Cairo.

April 14.

Dear Mme. Golozier,

I feel that I can add very little to what my husband has already written to you, except to assure you once
more of my affectionate gratitude to you for all that you, both

year did for him,
and so for me too,
at a time when I
was myself able to do nothing for him.
It would be a real pleasure if we could have had the opportunity of welcoming
you & the good Professor to our home in Cairo. But, while that is not possible,
we can, and do, welcome others, in your name, to speak, & so try to pass on to others something of the help you show -ed to us-

I trust you may care to accept the small souvenir of Egypt which we have chosen for you. It is Egyptian in design, and also - so they say - in execution. It is called "transparent enamel-
work."

With kindest regards,

Believe me,
Yrs. very sincerely,
W. D. Gairdner.

The gift will be posted just after this letter.
