LET THE DEAD AND THE BEAUTIFUL REST

Words by C. C. Butler.

Music by S. Wesley Martin.

The first system of piano accompaniment features a treble and bass clef. The treble clef part begins with a series of eighth notes in the right hand, while the bass clef part provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes in the left hand. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C).

The second system of piano accompaniment continues the melodic and harmonic patterns established in the first system, with the right hand playing eighth notes and the left hand providing accompaniment.

The first vocal line is written on a single treble clef staff. It begins with the lyrics "Let the dead and the beauti-ful rest, Make her grave 'neath the willow by the stream, Where the". The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, with a key signature of one sharp (F#).

The second vocal line is written on a single treble clef staff. It begins with the lyrics "wind-harps will whisper o'er the blest, Like the song of some an-gel in our dream." The melody continues with quarter and eighth notes, maintaining the key signature of one sharp (F#).
