A Word That Means The World To Me

Lyric by
HOWARD JOHNSON

Melody by
THEODORE MORSE

Andante moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat) and common time. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present at the beginning.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The lyrics are: "I've been a-round the world, you bet, But nev-er went to school, Hard When I was but a ba-by, long be-fore I learned to walk, While". The piano accompaniment is marked with a dynamic of p (piano).

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "knocks are all I seem to get, Per-haps I've been a fool; But ly-ing in my cra-dle, I would try my best to talk; It".
