SCENES THAT ARE BRIGHTEST.

Cantabile e con molta semplicita.

Words by A. Bunn Esq.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a continuous, flowing accompaniment with many triplets. The vocal line has lyrics and includes some triplets. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The piece concludes with a dim. (diminuendo) marking.

The first system of music features a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The vocal line contains the lyrics "none . . . to love us, How sad . . . they seem . . . With". There are two triplet markings (indicated by a '3' in a circle) under the notes "us," and "seem". The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a simpler bass line in the left hand.

none . . . to love us, How sad . . . they seem.

The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line lyrics are "none . . . to love us, How sad . . . they seem.". A triplet marking is present under the notes "us, How". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as the first system.

This section is a piano solo, consisting of two staves (treble and bass clefs). It features a complex, flowing eighth-note melody in both hands, with some triplet markings. The key signature remains two flats.

Words can not scat - ter . The thoughts we fear

The third system features a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line lyrics are "Words can not scat - ter . The thoughts we fear". There are two triplet markings under the notes "ter ." and "fear". The piano accompaniment continues with the established eighth-note pattern.
