J. ARONSON & CO. GOLD

There's a yellow rose in Texas, that I'm going to see,
 other ladies know her number only me; she cried to when I told her,
 like to break my heart, and if I see that face, my eyes will melt.

THE YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS

arranged for the GUITAR

BY NAPOLEON W. GOULD.

ALLEGRETTO.

There's a yel-low rose in Texas that I am going to see, No.

other darkey knows her, no darkey only me; She cried so when I left her, it like to broke my heart, And if I e-ver find her we never more will part.

4

CHORUS.

She's the sweetest rose of color this dar-key e-ver knew, Her eyes are bright as diamonds, they sparkle like the dew, You may talk about your Dearest May, and sing of Ro-sa Lee, But the yel-low rose of Texas beats the belles of Tennessee.

3. Oh! now I'm going to find her, for my heart is full of woe, And we'll

2. Where the Ri-o Grande is flowing, and the starry skies are bright, She sing the song to - gether that we sung so long a - go; We'll walks a - long the ri-ver in the qui-et summer night; She play the ban-jo gaily, and we'll sing the songs of yore, And the thinks if I re-mem-ber, when we parted long a - go, I yel-low rose of Tex-as shall be mine for e - ver - more. CHORUS.

promis'd to come back a - gain, and not to leave her so. CHORUS.
