Pace University

DigitalCommons@Pace

Dyson College- Seidenberg School of CSIS :
Collaborative Projects and Presentations

Dyson College of Arts & Sciences

3-6-2009

Understanding Terrorism Through the Use of GIS

Collaborative Project

Recommended Citation

Understanding Terrorism Through the Use of GIS

- Participants:
- Joseph Ryan, Ph.D.
- Daniel Farkas, Ph.D.
- Beth Klingner, Ph.D.

- Overall Goal/Purpose:
- Help students become active rather than passive learners.

- Specific Research Aims
  - To enhance students knowledge of global terrorism, including contributing factors such as religion and culture.
  - To understand strategies on how to collect intelligence data in law enforcement to address crime and terrorism.
  - To understand the potential and limitations of data mining as it relates to crime and terrorism.
  - To understand the potential and limitations of GIS as it relates to crime and terrorism.