FOR THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE HARRIS COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY

By MRS. J. L. SHORT

The spirit of fellowship, service and love,
Rules in our hearts and lives,
We who can help the truest of men,
Are proud to be doctor's wives.

Each day takes it's sacrifice great or small,
But the recompense comes to atone,
When we think of the comfort the doctor takes
Into the sufferer's home.

Thru the days that are long and the lonely nights,
He goes with his message of cheer;
Goes with a smile, tho it's many a mile,
He knows not the meaning of fear.

With faith and courage which we can share,
He greets each day anew,
Whether the skies are dark and gray,
Or a lovely cloudless blue.

Tho pangs of suffering we cannot assuage,
Our service can be just as real;
Keep a song in the heart and faith in his art,
And God-given power to heal.
