Over the past few years, people have been talking about the possibility of political changes in Cuba. When do you think that major political changes are likely to occur in Cuba? Would you say within one year, in two to five years, in six to ten years, over ten years, that change is already occurring, or never?

First, allow companies to sell medicine to Cuba, do you strongly favor, mostly favor, mostly oppose, or strongly oppose this?

Allowing U.S. companies to sell food to Cuba. [..Do you Strongly Favor, Mostly Favor, Mostly Oppose, or Strongly Oppose this?]

Some U.S. companies have managed to establish limited business relations with Cuba to sell grain, other agricultural products, and medicine. Should this kind of trade be expanded, kept the same or stopped?

Should unrestricted travel by all Americans to Cuba be allowed or not?

Currently, all Americans can travel to Cuba in People-To-People trips organized by special travel agencies and designed to encourage communications among citizens of the US and citizens of Cuba. These trips are usually organized for educational, religious or research purposes. Do you Strongly Favor, mostly favor, Mostly Oppose or Strongly Oppose this type of People to People travel?

Overall, do you think the U.S. embargo of Cuba has worked very well, well, not very well, or not at all?

Do you favor or oppose continuing the U.S. embargo of Cuba?

Do you favor or oppose the U.S. re-establishing diplomatic relations with Cuba?

The US Department of State [or US Government] includes Cuba on a list of four countries which the US government considers to be State Sponsors of Terrorism. This designation penalizes persons and organizations engaging in certain activities with Cuba and the other countries on the list. The other countries on the list are Iran, Sudan and Syria. Do you believe that Cuba should be kept on that list of penalized countries that support terrorism, or be taken off the list?

Recently the Cuban government has allowed more of its citizens to start their own small private business. Overall, do you think this change is going make things better, worse, or not make any difference for people living in Cuba?

Do you think people living in the US should be allowed to invest in these new non-governmental small businesses in Cuba?

Would you invest in a private business in Cuba if given the opportunity?

As it stands, Cubans who leave by raft or boat are sent back to Cuba if they are intercepted before they reach U.S. soil. If they DO REACH U.S. soil they are allowed to stay in the U.S. Do you agree or disagree with this policy?

Since 1966, the entrance of Cubans into the United States has been regulated by the Cuban Adjustment Act. This law stipulates that Cuban citizens and their accompanying spouses and children may get a green card and become residents of the US one year after arriving in the country. This automatic application process is not usual for other immigrant groups. Do you Strongly Favor, Mostly Favor, Mostly Oppose or Strongly Oppose the current policy of accepting Cubans into the US?

Last year, the Cuban government eased travel restrictions for Cubans wanting to travel abroad. What kind of an impact do you think that this change of policy will have on our community? Do you think that this policy change will have a mostly positive impact, a mostly negative impact or no impact at all?

Changes in U.S. regulations over the past five years have made it possible for Cuban Americans to travel yearly to Cuba directly from the United States. Do you support or oppose maintaining this travel policy for Cuban Americans?

Did friends or relatives living in Cuba visit you during this past year?

Do you or your relatives in Miami send money to relatives in Cuba?

Amount of remittances sent

Do you think that some of the money or items that you've sent to Cuba have been used to establish or assist a private small business?

Where do you get most of your news about Cuba -- newspapers, television, radio or some other source?

What language do you prefer to get your news in?

Have you ever traveled to Cuba since you left?

How likely is it that you would return to live in Cuba if the economy improved, would you say very likely, somewhat likely, not very likely, or not at all likely?

If Cuba changed to a more democratic form of government. How likely is it that you would return to Cuba to live - would you say very likely, somewhat likely, not very likely, or not at all likely?

Are you a U.S. citizen?

Do you plan to become a U.S. citizen?

Are you registered to vote?

Are you registered as a Republican, a Democrat, an Independent, or with some other party?

In the past Presidential election, did you vote for Mitt Romney or Barack Obama or did you not vote for either?

In political elections, how important is a candidate's position on Cuba in determining your vote - would you say it is very important, moderately important, not very important, or not at all important?

How likely would you be to vote for a candidate who supports the reestablishment of diplomatic relations with Cuba?

How likely would you be to vote for a candidate who supports replacing the embargo with increased support for independent small business owners in Cuba?

How likely would you be to vote for a candidate who supports replacing the embargo with support for increasing pressure on the Cuban government over human rights?

How would you compare Raul Castro with his brother as president in terms of improving the overall well being of people living in Cuba. Would you say Raul Castro is worse, is the same, is somewhat better, or is much better, than Fidel in terms of improving the well being of people living in Cuba.

People sometimes talk about the American dream-having a nice home and financial security for you and your family. Which of the following comes closest to your view? Do you feel as if you have achieved the American dream, or you have not achieved the American dream, but you feel that you will do so eventually, or feel like you will never achieve the American dream?

In what economic class would you place yourself ... lower, lower middle, middle, upper middle, or upper class?

Would you describe the state of your own personal finances these days as excellent, good, not so good or poor?
