With our new Library catalog, you can now:

- sign up for a personal account to track materials you have checked out, request renewals and save searches
- make and store lists of materials to which you can link from a course or other webpage – a great option for faculty making course reading lists.
- export catalog citations directly to RefWorks, saving you time and making the research process just that much easier.
- share materials via Facebook, Twitter, Linked In, and other social networks
- review materials and see the comments made by others
- have more control over search fields and sort results with Advanced Search

There's more, but don't just take our word for it.
Visit the new catalog and then let us know what you think:
