THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

What an exciting year for our Alumnae Association!

As of June 12th, 1976, The Diploma School of Nursing had its first male student graduate, and ---hereafter we will be known as The Jefferson Nurses' Alumni Association.

In April of 1976 it was my privilege to spend an hour with the graduating class, to tell them about our Alumni Association and to inform them that the entire graduating class has been accepted into the Alumni Association as Active Members for the remainder of the year 1976.

The view from my office window shows the steady progress that is being made on the new hospital. It is almost unbelievable how that big "mud hole" has been transformed by the steel girders reaching higher and higher. The campus continues to grow and grow. I'm sure many of you would be amazed at the physical changes if you were to pay us a visit.

Thank you for your confidence in me by re-electing me to serve as your President for another two years. My Office as President has been made easier by the help and support not only of the Officers and Committees, but by each one of you.

To the Officers, Committee Chairpersons and their members, I would like to express my gratitude and thanks for your help and guidance.

Best wishes and good luck to each one of you.

Sincerely yours,

Margaret Summers

PROGRESS

PROGRESS — THOMAS JEFFERSON UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

The past year has been a very exciting one at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital with many changes and improvements and the culmination of many years of planning for a new Hospital Building. It was a year of accomplishment, of meeting many goals and setting new ones to meet the ever changing needs of both our patients and staff.

During the year most of our former outpatient clinics were physically relocated to Jefferson's new Health Sciences Center at 9th and Sansom Streets, a complete one stop ambulatory patient care center, including supporting diagnostic and ancillary services in an attractive and modern setting. Under construction and soon to be opened within the Health Sciences Center is the Division of Nephrology's new 12 station outpatient dialysis unit and the new Department of Family Medicine's complete Model Family Practice Unit.

Within the Hospital itself, a substantial number of significant changes have also been made. A new Surgical Cardiac Care Unit, an Intensive Care Nursery, and a new Protective Care Unit were opened and a 5 bed Respiratory Intensive Care Unit is nearing completion. Three patient floors of the Thompson Building were completely remodeled and three more are scheduled for the coming year. With support from the Foerderer Foundation, a project to refurbish all patient rooms in the Foerderer Pavilion was also initiated. Hours for visitors were expanded to allow visiting from 11 A.M. to 8 P.M. and the change has been met with great satisfaction of patients and their visitors and has caused little additional problem for the staff.

With a continuing growth in the numbers of patient admissions and days (to 196,469 adult patient days and 12,982 nursery days during fiscal year 1975), a comprehensive study of bed requirements was undertaken by a special task force. As a result of the task force study, beds were reallocated by clinical department according to need. The reallocation has permitted consolidation on designated patient floors of each department's beds and concentration of patients by category to significantly improve efficiency of the staff and attending physicians.

To continue to meet our responsibilities as a teaching hospital, the numbers of residencies and fellowships were again increased during the past year. Training programs with affiliated hospitals were expanded in several disciplines and a new affiliation agreement was concluded with Magee Memorial Hospital which will greatly enhance training programs in physical and rehabilitation medicine.

The administrative staff of the Hospital was expanded to include a new Assistant Hospital Director for Surgical Programs and more recently, a new Assistant Hospital Director for Diagnostic and Therapeutic Programs. These new positions permit closer coordination and cooperation between administration and the nursing and medical staffs. This closer coordination will be invaluable as we begin to develop and refine the operating protocols necessary for the move to the New Hospital in 1979.

Perhaps the most exciting single event this past year was the beginning of construction of the new Hospital on the square city block between 10th and 11th Streets and Sansom and Chestnut Streets. Following the successful sale of an $81.6 million municipal bond issue in October, 1975, ground was broken in November and construction begun shortly thereafter. Occupancy of the new 411 bed clinical teaching facility which will be connected by a bridge over Sansom Street to the Foerderer Pavilion is planned for January 1, 1977.

Over the next three years we shall plan not only for the move to the new Hospital, but also toward the future use of our existing Hospital structures to meet the challenges of new technologies and changing social needs.

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

For two hundred years the name Jefferson has been related to significant contributions to our country — first through the authorship of the Declaration of Independence, then as President of these United States, and later as the Medical College bearing his name grew to university status. During this Bicentennial year, the university community has been reminded of its historicity through special lectures, a history course devoted to Thomas Jefferson, a special Bicentennial exhibition located within sight of Independence Hall, and the breaking of ground for the new Thomas Jefferson University Hospital.

Thomas Jefferson was honored on the occasion of his birthday with a Bicentennial lecture entitled, "Mr. Jefferson and Dr. Dunglison", on April 14th, the day following his birthday. A colonial style reception followed.

Twelve institutions of higher learning from the Philadelphia area are participating in "Learning, Revolution and Democracy", an area Universities' Bicentennial Exhibition. The huge display is housed in the second floor exhibit area of the New Penn Mutual Building at 510 Walnut Street. Each institution has its own display area. Jefferson's display is 22 feet in length and includes memorabilia dating back to 1824 — the year of the founding of Jefferson Medical College by Dr. George McClellan. The display endeavors to humanize the history of Jefferson by focusing on ten men who played a part in making it a world renowned institution for the education of health-care professionals. Focal point of the display is a large color photographic reproduction of Thomas Eakins' famous portrait, "The Gross Clinic". On display below the portrait is Dr. Samuel Gross' amputation kit, as well as biographical material concerning Dr. Gross and other memorabilia.

On November 13, 1975 ground was broken for the 411-bed clinical teaching facility. The nine-story complex, to be completed by 1979, will occupy the entire block bounded by Chestnut and Sansom, Tenth and Eleventh Streets. It will replace the outmoded Main and Thompson buildings and will be connected to the existing Foerderer Pavilion by bridges at each level. The major innovation in the facility will be the treatment of inpatients and ambulatory patients on an integrated basis. Physicians' offices will be located on alternate floors from inpatient floors. Ambulatory patients will receive care in these offices rather than in the "public clinics" of the past.

Two events occurred during this Bicentennial year which affected the university as well as the school of nursing. On December 31st, 1975, John W. Goldschmidt, M.D., Dean of College of Allied Health Sciences, resigned to assume a position as Associate Director of the Rehabilitation Center at Northwestern University. Lawrence Abrams, Associate Dean, was named Acting Dean, effective January 1, 1976. Abruptly, on March 31st, 1976 Dr. Peter Herbut's life came to a close. George M. Norwood, Vice-President for Planning, was named interim President, effective April 5, 1976. Search committees have been appointed by the Board of Trustees and are actively seeking the best candidates for appointment to these positions.

The university was surveyed by representatives from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in December 1975, and accredited by the Association at its meeting on February 28, 1976. All programs within the university took an active part in this accreditation visit and the diploma program, therefore, was required to submit a rather lengthy report. The director of the program, in conjunction with the directors of the other two nursing programs, met with a member of the accreditation team. Among the eleven recommendations forthcoming from Middle States was the recommendation that an Advisory Committee with faculty representation from all nursing programs be formed to consider the development of nursing education in the university. As you know, we have three nursing programs — the Diploma Program from which you all are graduates, the Baccalaureate Program, and the Practical Nursing Program.

The diploma program continues to have the unquestionable support of the Board of Trustees and the administration of the university. However, the administration and faculty of the school recognizes that, in view of trends in professional nursing education, an in-depth study of the future of nursing education at Jefferson is warranted. We believe that the diploma program has, since its very beginning in 1891, been one of the best and that it has produced graduates well qualified to assume their role as beginning practitioners. We are also aware that our graduates have received preferential consideration in many areas throughout the nation as well as in foreign lands. State Board results continue to be above the state and national means and we are especially proud of the Class of 1975 whose mean scores in all areas were above 600. We, therefore, will not willingly relinquish a program built upon so strong a foundation.

The 83rd commencement for the School of Nursing on June 12, 1976, with 86 students in the graduating class brings the total number of our graduates to 4,658. Dr. Robert I. Wise was the commencement speaker. The exercises were held in the Sheraton Ballroom at 1725 J. F. Kennedy Boulevard. Among the graduates was our first husband/wife team and, in addition, the first mother to be in school throughout her pregnancy, deliver, return to school within two weeks and graduate with her class. This year for the first time in many years positions were not available for all members of the graduating class who wish to remain on the staff at Jefferson. 24 members of the graduating class are returning to positions in nursing service and one to the operating room.

Our faculty remains relatively stable, some members being with us for more than 15 years. At present, the faculty numbers 38 full-time and 2 part-time instructors, including 16 Jefferson graduates. Nine of our faculty members hold a master's degree, three are taking a leave of absence beginning July, 1976 to complete work towards their master's degree, and many others are enrolled in graduate programs on a part-time basis.

Those of you who have not been in the area recently will note on your next visit the following changes which have expanded and transformed our asphalt campus:

1. Completion of the parking lot and "green" between 10th and 11th on Locust.
2. Erection of the "Winged Ox" between the Orliwitz Residence and the Scott Building. The "Bronze Ox" created by Philadelphia-born Henry Mitchell, rests upon a 20-foot high cast bronze column bearing the names of fifty of the greatest men of medicine, including five of Jefferson's top physicians. They are: Dr. John H. Gibbon, Jr., Developer of the Heart-Lung Machine; Carlos Finlay, who discovered mosquito transmission of yellow fever; S. Weir Sims, Gynecologist; and Samuel D. Gross, Father of American Surgery.
"The theme of the sculpture is to link the functions of a great hospital in the present to great men of medicine through history", according to the sculptor.
"The Winged Ox", the traditional symbol of St. Luke, himself a physician (as well as painter and sculptor) is the master motif. The cast bronze column is conceived to be a visual reminder of 50 greatest men of medicine . . . going from Aesculapius and Hippocrates in an ascending spiral to suggest Caduceus, The Staff of Mercury," Mitchell says.
3. East Residence Hall under construction on the S.E. Corner of Walnut Street.
4. New Thomas Jefferson Hospital under construction between 10th and 11th and Sansom and Walnut.
5. New lounge for school to be completed on the 9th floor of the Health Sciences Center where the mock-up unit for the clinical teaching facility was seen last year.

I believe that the foregoing capsule is a clear indication of why, in this Bicentennial year, the name "Jefferson" is synonymous with quality education and care and why throughout the remainder of this century it will be an exciting place to be as student, faculty member, practitioner, administrator, and, if need be, patient.

My best wishes to you for a happy, successful and healthy year ahead!

DIPLOMA STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Student Affairs Council of 1975-76 began the year by compiling a student orientation handbook for the incoming freshmen. At the same time a Senior Farewell Party was arranged for the Class of 1975. It was a real success and very much enjoyed.

In September, with the arrival of the new freshmen came orientation. Student Affairs Council officers introduce themselves and their roles to the freshmen at a special meeting, and Residence Hall Council spent time discussing rules and regulations of the dorm. In addition a Student-Faculty get together was held.

The first social event for the entire student body was our Halloween Party on October 30 held in the recreation room of the residence. Refreshments were supplied by Student Affairs Council members. Throughout the remainder of the year there were several other social affairs to celebrate the holidays. At Christmas, a student party was held December 18 as well as a Student-Faculty Party on December 17. In February, Valentine's Day was brought in with a small gathering for all. And finally there was a small Easter get together of students and faculty on April 14. All of these occasions helped to create an even better relationship between faculty and the student body.

Different projects were sponsored by Student Affairs Council throughout the year. Our favorite project was at Christmas when students sang carols throughout the hospital but mainly on the oncology units. These patients were presented with cards and small gifts to help brighten spirits at this time of year. Other functions included selling stationery and sponsoring an Open House in the residence.

Individual classes were quite busy raising funds for their yearbooks. The freshmen were very successful in a "T" shirt sale and have a great start towards their goal. Juniors sponsored numerous events such as plant, candy, and bake sales. The seniors included bake sales, pretzel sales, a small spaghetti dinner in the Fall and then the Annual Spaghetti Dinner in April.

As in the past, the basketball team had a very successful season. We concluded the season with the first place in our league. Also sponsored was the First Annual Alumnae Game. Although the alumnae put up quite a struggle, they were overcome by the talents of our present team. Finally, our Annual Spectrum Game was a huge success as the Jefferson squad defeated Roxborough. In April, thanks to funds appropriated by the School of Nursing Department of the Women's Board of the Hospital, the team and cheerleaders enjoyed a delightful banquet to end a great year. Suzanne Tomlinson was this year's recipient of the Women's Board Award for Athletic Achievement.

Our cheerleaders, as always, provided the utmost encouragement to help the team have a successful season. Even though they didn't place in the competition sponsored by the American Legion Post, they will always be number one in the eyes of Jeffersonians.

This year, several students have been very much involved in the SNAP organization. Our two student representatives, Terry Mayne and Sue Burrell, attended meetings in the area and reported back to the Council officers and school on the whole. They also participated in the First Bicentennial Seminar for the History of Nursin Project which was hel February 28, 1976, at Strawbridge and Clothier Auditorium.

It was also with a great deal of pride that our junior class president, Luisa Ficca, was chosen to speak on the topic of "Student Rights and Responsibilities" at the November 14h meeting of the NLN Council of Diploma Schools workshop hel at the Bellevue Stratford. in addition, Barbara Winmore, also a junior, represented Jefferson in the Southeastern Pennsylvania Heart Association Queen of Hearts contest which was held in February.

On the whole, the year has been quite eventful for all involved. It has been filled with various activities to make each student's "spare time" more worthwhile and enjoyable.

Respectfully submitted,
Suzanne Tomlinson
Chairman,
Student Affairs Council 1975-76

HISTORY OF NURSING MUSEUM AND LIBRARY

The History of Nursing Museum and Library is located in the Pennsylvania Hospital, 8th and Spruce Streets. It is open for the Bicentennial year and is to become a permanent repository for important memorabilia of the nursing profession and for documentation of nursing history. It is located in the historic east wing of the Pine Street building.

SEMINAR

A Seminar on Crisis Intervention presented by the Nursing Service Division of Thomas Jefferson University Hospital and the Department of Baccalaureate Nursing, College of Allied Health Sciences, was held on May 7, 1976.

Alumnae, staff from Thomas Jefferson University Hospital and other hospitals, community health agencies, faculty, and students attended.

The purpose of the Seminar was to provide seminar participants with knowledge of crisis intervention theory and demonstrate its relevance to the nursing process and to provide opportunity for seminar participants to apply crisis intervention theory in the formulation of a nursing care plan based on a videotape demonstration of a potential crisis.

More seminars will be planned for the future.

THE BACCALAUREATE NURSING PROGRAM

The third class was graduated on June 11, 1976. The Baccalaureate Nursing Program has proved to be an array of many and varied educational and social experiences.

After completing at least two years of undergraduate liberal arts and sciences prerequisites, students enter the program as juniors. They then undertake an intensive program of study and clinical experiences totaling six quarters over a two year period. The baccalaureate program's philosophy focuses on the holistic concept of man. Individuals are perceived as a whole being greater than the sum of its parts, and are dealt with as such in the clinical areas. The curriculum enables the students to work with the people being first in the normal life cycle i.e., childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and then in abnormal or pathologic states, i.e., illness. Thus the continuity of the human life cycle is preserved throughout the nursing major.

Since its beginning in 1972, the curriculum of the Baccalaureate Program has evolved from a study of health and illness to the present holistic approach. Such revisions are in keeping with the changing roles in nursing and evolving approaches to baccalaureate education. Recently the University was accredited by The Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the Department was accredited by The National League for Nursing.

To an incoming student, the philosophy of the Baccalaureate Program can be quite unusual, especially to one who has been accustomed to the traditional concept of "nursing the sick".

Knowledge of the humanities, various forms of creative expression, and the natural, behavioral and social sciences is essential to understanding of nursing theory. The focus of the program is on maintaining health as well as on providing care during illness. In addition to aiding the students in attaining their academic and professional goals, the program facilitates students' continued personal and social development.

The curriculum of the Program certainly lends itself to following these concepts through its use of various clinical experiences, ranging from nursing care in hospital patient units, to out-patient psychiatric clinics, to community health nursing. In the last quarter of the senior year, the student chooses a clinical nursing elective. The clinical experiences in the elective have proven to be of tremendous value to the students' concepts of nursing in the "real world".

The men and women of this year's graduating class have come from various backgrounds. Many are married, some have several children, and quite a few have received, in the past, bachelor's degrees in fields other than nursing. The variety inherent in the group has facilitated the development of rather well-rounded personalities among the students.

At present, the graduating seniors understand that it will be necessary to adjust to their roles in the nursing profession. Hopefully, the future will hold a fulfilling career in service to mankind.

SCHOOL OF PRACTICAL NURSING

The School of Practical Nursing is twelve years old in this bicentennial year and continues to provide a vocational nursing education for men and women of many varied backgrounds. Since September 1975 the 1199 C union, to which the nursing assistants employed by Thomas Jefferson University Hospital's Nursing Service belong, is now providing the funds to sponsor qualified candidates from that group to be upgraded through our program to become licensed practical nurses.

The faculty of the school now boasts the acquisition of a third person from the School of Nursing Alumnae as of October 1975. As graduates of the program continue to enroll in professional nursing education programs, it is hoped that some day it may be possible to employ one of our graduates as an instructor in the School. A class of forty-seven women and five men will be graduated at exercises to be held in McClellan Hall on September 1, 1976 and a new class of approximately 70 students will begin their classes on September 7, 1976.

NURSING SERVICE REPORT

This past year, Nursing Service at Jefferson Hospital has continued to progress in the areas of patient education and staff education.

Last August we began a cardiac rehabilitation teaching program. This was a grant from the United Fund. Beginning in August, we interviewed approximately 78 patients and families to determine what knowledge they needed about their illness. Responses to the interviews were analyzed and the educational program which was developed included the following areas: cardiac anatomy, activity levels for patients, diet, medication, risk factors, and the adjustment process. The actual classes began February 1, 1976. Since then approximately 70 patients have attended the formal education classes. Approximately six to eight patients go every week. Staff nurses from the Cardiac and Intermediate Cardiac Care Unit teach the classes and the total program is coordinated by Chris McCann, R.N.

Patient response to the classes is enthusiastic. The patients receive a great deal of peer support from each other and develop relationships which continue after discharge.

Follow-up interviews immediately after the classes and six weeks after discharge show a great increase in knowledge, especially in the areas of medication. Management Services Department statistically analyzed the information from the interviews and the increases in knowledge in all areas except for diet were statistically significant. This demonstrates that patients can learn from formal education programs within hospitals.

When patients are called six weeks after they go home, they appreciate the call and feel that we are truly interested in their well-being. They also relate that they have used the teaching pamphlets given to them during the classes and have shared this material with their families. We will also call patients three months and six months after discharge to determine if they have been able to adjust to their return to work.

This program was presented at the Second Eastern Conference on Nursing Research at the University of Pennsylvania. The nurses who attended were impressed by the program and felt that it was a means of evaluating the effectiveness of formal teaching in hospitals.

Educational programs for the nursing staff have also undergone a great change this year. We have conducted more all-day seminars and have included such topics as Pain, Fluid and Electrolyte Balance, Crisis Intervention with Patient and Family. Attendance at these seminars has been very good and all nursing staff seem to appreciate them. The seminar on Fluid and Electrolyte Imbalance received continuing education credits from the Pennsylvania Nurses Association. We have also developed one critical care course, which will apply to all the intensive care areas. This course will be conducted twice a year and in the future we hope to open it to nurses from other hospitals.

For the coming year we will conduct more seminars of the type mentioned and will include such topics as Problems with Immobility, Acid Base Balance, Medical-Legal Implications for Nurses. Also in the coming year we will be developing a program of respiratory care for patients on Barton. This will be in conjunction with the development of the Acute Respiratory Unit, which is scheduled to begin this coming year.

The other area which we will be emphasizing in the future is evaluation of care through a retrospective and ongoing nursing audit. This program was initiated in the past year and two audits have been completed which have shown the need for improved documentation on the part of the nursing staff.

In the areas of patient care we will begin another educational program for patients this July. Through this program patients on long-term medication will take their own medications while in the hospital and will receive information concerning the action and side effects of medication. Our goal is to achieve a greater patient understanding of why they are on the medication and when and how it needs to be taken. The overall goal is to improve patients' compliance in taking their medications after they go home. This program was developed jointly by Nursing Service and Pharmacy Departments.

OPERATING ROOM NURSING

The basic goal of operating room nursing is to improve the quality of care given to the patient undergoing surgery.

To accomplish this goal the following steps were taken:

1. To update and implement the team concept

Each nurse and operating room technician was given the privilege of choosing the area of specialty in which he or she desired to be assigned. These choices were given every consideration. The selection's were made according to the individual's ability, potential, need for coverage in the area, and with suggestions from and approval of the surgeons in each discipline.

The staffing levels and the request for the surgical procedures determines the assignment of the team members. Hopefully, with the increase in staffing levels and some much needed adjustments of the scheduling system, each team member would routinely be assigned to the discipline of choice.

The team assignments include nurses' aides in two of the surgical specialties.

Additional call personnel have been assigned, not only to weekends for surgical areas that demand such coverage, but also on a daily basis during the evening and night hours.

2. Development of a formal staff development program

A staff development program has been established by assigning a qualified nurse solely to the orientation of new personnel and the continuation of staff development. Goals for the orientation period, assignment of instructional responsibilities to the experienced nurses and a formal evaluation at the completion of the orientation period has been implemented. The development of operating room nursing staff has been accomplished by giving each person an opportunity to develop his capabilities individually to provide more coordinated care of the surgical patient.

An informal in-service education program is conducted once a week utilizing physicians, hospital personnel, films and operating room staff. Depending on the daily operating room schedule, the head nurses and unit specialists meet with their staff to discuss and review procedures, techniques and equipment. In order to formalize and expand the existing program, a committee has been selected; however, due to the demands of the daily schedule, the committee has not been able to function.

NEW SURGICAL CONCEPTS FOR LARYNGEAL CANCER

LESLIE L. PRATT, M.D.
Professor and Chairman of the Dept. of Otolaryngology

Surgery upon the larynx for malignant tumors has undergone dramatic changes in the past ten years. Through the pioneering efforts of Dr. Joseph Ogura, Professor and Chairman, Department of Otolaryngology, Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, the concept of partial removal of portions of the larynx has become accepted in the medical community.

Prior to the acceptance of partial removal of the larynx, the total larynx was removed, and all patients with cancer of the larynx had a total laryngectomy. The estimates are that 60% of patients who previously had their total larynx removed, may now have their larynx preserved by employing partial laryngectomy procedures.

The partial removal of portions of the larynx referred to as conservation laryngeal surgery, is possible because of the embryologic development of the larynx. Embryologically, the larynx develops from two different areas with a central transition or neutral zone. The lymphatic drainage from these three portions of the larynx are not linked together. Each area has its own separate lymphatic drainage, consequently a tumor in one area will not spread to the other area of the larynx.

Anatomically, if we take the true vocal cords as the area of transition, the area of the true vocal cord, consisting of the epiglottis, the aryepiglottic folds, the arytenoids, and the false vocal cords is called the supraglottis. The area below the true vocal cords is referred to as the subglottis. Any tumor involving the structures in the supraglottis, can be effectively removed by performing what is referred to as a supraglottic laryngectomy. All the structures above the true vocal cords are then attached to the base of the tongue. A tumor of this area can be safely removed, and the true vocal cords and subglottic area may be safely left behind because their lymphatic drainage is separate.

Tumors of the true vocal cords can be successfully removed by performing what is referred to as the hemilaryngectomy. However, many of these tumors can be equally successfully treated through the administration of x-ray treatment.

Tumors involving both the true vocal cords and the subglottic region cannot be removed by any kind of partial laryngeal surgery. Whenever the true vocal cord is fixed and the subglottic extension of the tumor is greater than 1 cm. below the margin of the true cord, a total laryngectomy is necessary.

Why is it so important to try to conserve the larynx? The larynx is an extremely important physiologic structure. The functions of the larynx are numerous. First of all, it is concerned with communication. Secondly, it is concerned with the cough reflex. Thirdly, it is concerned with lifting, and a person's ability to exhibit strength, and finally, the larynx is associated with swallowing.

The role of the larynx in communication is extremely essential. A person who is unable to communicate has a severe handicap in our society. The ability to keep the true vocal cords in approximately 60% of the patients with cancer of the larynx, thereby preserving their voice, has been a marvelous advancement, and one for which mankind should extend much credit to those who pioneered this work.

One may consider the function of the larynx in the cough reflex as minor. However, there are three mechanisms by which one is able to clean the lungs. The first is the squeezing of the terminal branches of the tracheobronchial tree, which brings some of the secretions up to the larger branches. The second function is the use of the cilia which beat towards the larynx and moves secretions in that direction. The third important function is what is referred to as the "behic blast". If you try to do this yourself, you will see its significance. It is impossible to obtain a good cough unless one is capable of exhaling against a closed larynx. This builds a pressure within the tracheobronchial tree so that when the larynx is opened, a blast of air is produced.

One's ability to lift is also almost impossible without the function of the larynx. Bend over and lift something. Did you notice how your larynx closed, locking the passage of air? If you then attempt to raise the same object without closing the larynx you will experience greater difficulty in producing the same strength as when the larynx was closed.

Finally, the function of the larynx in swallowing prevents food from entering the tracheobronchial tree. During the act of swallowing, the larynx closes. Food passing the larynx in the pharynx is prevented from entering the tracheobronchial tree. Without this function, a patient would choke on each swallow. The treatment of patients with suspected carcinoma of the larynx requires an evaluation or upon the exploration of the larynx by an instrument referred to as the laryngoscope. This instrument is introduced into the larynx and the larynx is examined and biopsies taken. At the time of the laryngoscopic examination, a drawing is prepared to mark the extent of the tumor.

An x-ray study may be helpful in many cases called the tomogram or the laryngogram. These are very helpful in assisting to determine the extent of the tumor in many cases.

Aside from surgical treatment, x-ray therapy can be employed with some types of tumors of the larynx and the use of therapy in conjunction with the surgery has been widely accepted as good treatment practice. It has been the accepted procedure in a patient with carcinoma of the larynx in which a partial laryngectomy type of operation is contemplated, to receive preoperative radiation therapy prior to surgery. Following the preoperative radiation, the larynx is operated upon within a 4-5 week period of time.

Laryngeal lesions are frequently associated with metastasis or spread to the regional lymph glands in the neck. With the increased effectiveness of radiotherapy, many of these glands which are not palpable, but contain tumor, referred to occult lymph node metastasis, can be sterilized very effectively with radiation therapy. No surgery is needed for these metastasis. However, if the lymph glands are 2 cm. or larger, it is felt by many authorities that even though preoperative radiation is administered to the lymph glands, surgery should be performed as well. The neck tissues including the lymph glands are removed at the same time as the larynx.

The postoperative course of patients having partial laryngeal surgery compared to the total laryngectomy patients, the average total laryngectomy postoperative course is approximately 10 days, while that of the partial laryngectomy is 3 weeks. This is because the type of healing process that is necessary following a partial laryngectomy is much more difficult than that following a total laryngectomy.

In summary, the advancement of partial laryngeal surgery, for removal of only a portion of the larynx containing the cancer, has been a marvelous advancement in the treatment of laryngeal cancer. Most authorities feel that 60% of the laryngeal cancers which previously had to be removed by a total laryngectomy, can now be treated successfully with a combination of radiotherapy and partial laryngectomy.

ACTA-SCANNER

COMPUTERIZED TRANSAXIAL X-RAY SCANNER (Revolutionary Changes in X-Ray)

COMPUTERIZED TRANSAXIAL X-RAY SCANNER has been in clinical use for about 2 years. The unit works on the principle of tomography, in which the x-ray tube and film move in opposite directions during the exposure. This procedure blurs all tissue shadows above and below the plane of interest and circumvents the problem of superimposition of body structures. During the scan, the profile of the x-ray transmission is fed through a computer and an instantaneous x-ray image is reconstructed on both black and white and color video monitors. The unit has electronic controls which change the characteristics of the image, and video tape recording capability.

It requires approximately 45 minutes to do the examination. The x-ray exposure is about the same as conventional x-rays.

Diagnostic information is now being obtained which was never before possible. Jefferson's unit is capable of doing all parts of the body, but is used most frequently for studies of the brain. The scanners have had a great impact on the diagnosis of disease, general patient management, and medical economics. Risk-laden, technically complex, and costly diagnostic procedures, sometimes requiring lengthy hospitalization, are in some cases eliminated. The computerized transaxial x-ray scan is simple and innocuous, and in most cases can be performed on an out-patient basis. Repeated follow-up examinations can be easily accepted by patients, because it is a painless procedure. The entire field of Diagnostic Radiology is on the verge of revolutionary changes due to these scanners.

DENTAL HEALTH CENTER

Thomas Jefferson University Hospital dedicated its new facility for the Department of Dentistry in November 1975.

The center, which occupies the entire 11th floor in the University's Health Sciences Center at 9th and Sansom Streets, offers a full range of modern dental services to rich and poor alike.

Its staff includes more than 40 dentists and other health specialists.

Dr. Edward Cherkas, director, says that the center can accommodate approximately 1,500 patients per week.

The orthodontic unit of the center is one of the largest in the area and was named to honor the late Dr. Emerson R. Sausser.

The center will be site for many clinical studios and research, according to Dr. Cherkas, and will continue to serve as the Delaware Valley's prime location for the treatment of oral-surgery patients with hemophilia and head/neck cancer.

The center, which offers a one-fee structure for everyone, will be the training ground for students in Jefferson's dental health education program. The program is expected to be expanded in 1977 to include the offering of dental hygienist degrees, and later, a multiple degree program including advanced degrees in stomatology and dental medicine.

The center, which is attractively decorated and offers comfortable waiting areas, is unique and untypical of traditional dental health facilities.

Patients are treated using the "team approach" in which the doctor is the head of the team.

The center now occupies 78,000 square feet of space but there are immediate plans for expansion of the facility, according to Dr. Cherkas.

THE WINGED OX OF ST. LUKE

On Monday, November 24, 1975, a sculpture of the Winged Ox of Saint Luke was placed atop a column between the Orlowitz Residence and the Scott Building on the Thomas Jefferson University campus. The 18-foot column supporting the Winged Ox carries the names of fifty famous men in medicine throughout the centuries, beginning with Hippocrates an ending with John H. Gibbon, Jr., inventor of the heart-lung machine, and alumnus of Jefferson Medical College in the class of 1927. The Winged Ox was designed by Mr. Henry Mitchell, American sculptor, whose other works include: "Running Free", Drexel University; "Giraffes", Philadelphia Zoo; "Phillips Fountain", Philadelphia Museum of Art; and "The Sower", Provident National Bank. Mr. Mitchell's design was selected by a committee that judged a competition conducted under the direction of Harbeson, Hough, Livingston, and Larson; architects of the Scott Building.

The winged ox has traditionally been identified with Saint Luke, who was, himself, a physician. In describing the sculpture, Mr. Mitchell stated that, seen from an intermediate distance, the column and winged ox suggest acadauceus, a symbol of the physician.

The sculpture was obtained by Thomas Jefferson University and placed in its present location in fulfillment of conditions that accompany the assignment of any property through the Redevelopment Authority of Philadelphia. By law, anyone to whom the Redevelopment Authority assigns property, is obligated to appropriate an amount equal to one percent of the total project cost, to artwork and beautification of the site. This requirement applies to the Scott Building and Orlowitz Residence. The cost of the sculpture was budgeted in 1966, at the time work on the buildings was authorized.

SOCIAL REPORT

On December 9, 1975, the Alumnae held their Annual Christmas Party in the Faculty Club of the Jefferson Alumni Hall. There were 39 guests present. Many thanks to Therese Bushek Poli of 1949 for donation of door prizes.

On March 8, 1976, the Alumnae held a Dinner and Auction Sale in the Jefferson Alumni Hall. There were 37 guests present. Proceeds from the auction sale were placed in the general fund. Auctioneer was Mary Ann Stauffer.

The main event of the year with a Bicentennial theme was the Annual Luncheon held May 8, 1976, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. There were 357 in attendance.

The Graduation Class of 1976 were guests of the association. There were 30 members present.

The 50th Anniversary Class were the guests of the association. Present were: Martha Boyd, Martha Clark, Laura Cross, Marjorie Workinger, Grace Kuhns, Blanche Chedester, Beatrice Bixler, Emma Schaefer, Margaret Pinkerton, Ernestine Rowe, Mayda Maxwell, Pauline Still, Eleanor Stewart, Josephine Dickerson, Ruth Davis, Mary Breth, Mary Bonenberger, Mary Peterson.

The guests at the head table were: Miss Doris Bowman — Director of the Diploma School of Nursing, Dr. Charlotte Voss — Chairman, Department of Baccalaureate Degree Nursing, Miss Carol Hutelmyer — Director of Nursing Service.

Flowers were presented to the following alumnae: Miss Elizabeth Heaton 1915, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller 1921, Mrs. Ann Craven 1921, Mrs. Verna Roberts 1921, Miss Helene Weber 1922, Miss Clara Brunner 1923, Mrs. Julie Canster 1924, Mrs. Edith Ogden 1925, Miss Clara Luck-singer 1925, Mrs. Marian Briggs 1925.

The flowers at the head table were given to Mrs. Dorothy Freeman, Mother-in-law of Kathryn Francis Freeman class of 1971, who was hospitalized on the day of the luncheon.

Center piece decorations were made by the Pediatric Department under the supervision of Mrs. Marge Tucker — Physical Therapist.

The Social Committee extends their thanks to all members for their continued support and a special thanks to the members who wore Colonial dress on the day of the Luncheon.

The tentative date for the Annual Spring Luncheon for 1977 will be on Saturday, May 7, 1977.

BULLETIN REPORT

Those of us who have visited the Graff House where Thomas Jefferson, age 33, wrote the Declaration of Independence, are privileged people. We have read and reread numerous accounts of those famous days during the hot and humid Philadelphia weather. We are very proud to have graduated from an institution of learning and healing bearing the name of such an important statesman. Mr. William W. Bodine, Jr., a former President of Jefferson and presently Chairman of the Board of Trustees, has presented a bust of Thomas Jefferson to the University. This bust may be seen on the first floor of the Scott Library.

Another piece of sculpture, The Winged Ox of Saint Luke, may be seen between the Orlowitz Residence and the Scott Building. This sculpture carries the name of fifty famous men and ONE WOMAN — FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

Instead of going back 200 years, lets just take a glance at more recent happenings in the Diploma School at "Jeff". The newer policies allow Males, Marriages and Maternity — not necessarily in that order, however. For further information — be sure to read Miss Bowman's excellent article.

The Bulletin Committee has endeavored to give our sister alumni members and one brother alumni member — varied articles about Jefferson. We have published most of the articles as written, a few were condensed and several pictures were included. May we remind graduates that colored photos do not show up well in this type of black and white publication.

RESOURCE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Regular Monthly Meetings are held to discuss and report on the Progress of the Campaign. Phase I is finished and Phase II is now in progress.

There are continued discussions and reports on Bequests and Deferred Gifts and the Foundation and Cooperate Relations Program. The Jefferson Medical College Alumni and Nurses' Alumni Association reports are also given at this time.

YOUR SESQUICENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN One Hundred Fifty Plus Two

Our accomplishments — 1975 and 1976:

Last year's picture "Demolition of Buildings" is changed in this year to "Building of Buildings". This has been possible only through the work, interest and giving of each one individually, but united in the total picture. This is not only the frame work of the Jefferson look, but the frame work to new education for the improvement of Health care and the advancement of medical science and knowledge. It is also a peak into the twenty-first century, when most of the people entering into the Health Educational Fields today will be offering their services and caring for our lives. It is these students who will be educated here and will take from the frame work the ability and knowledge to cope with the next century's problems. All these things arrive only with our basic and continued direction and commitments to make it possible.

The new building north of Locust Street, between 10th and 11th Streets, is finished. It is beautiful. It is also a self-supporting 410 car garage — but more than this — it is a magnificent pedestrian esplanade to connect Jefferson Alumni Hall, the Scott Library, the Martin Nursing Home, and the Orolowitz Residence Pavilion. It is a comfortable open area in which to relax in the center of our University. It is also the foundation on which to build additional stories when needed for educational purposes.

The southeast corner of Walnut Street is the nearly completed university student housing building. It is also self supporting and consists of efficiency to three-bedroom apartments and adds greatly to the overall appearance of the university.

The great new building arising on the entire city block between 10th and 11th Streets is Jefferson University's new replacement "Teaching Hospital". This nine story complex will feature two enclosed central courts which will bring beauty and country to our patients and to the center of the city. The hospital will be connected to the existing Foerderer Pavilion by bridges at each level. The majority of the rooms will be private, with the remaining rooms semi-private. The traditional nursing stations will be replaced by nursing command posts serving 8 to 16 beds with patient care.

The facility was designed with efficiency as a prime consideration, since with efficiency comes economy. Each in-patient floor is largely self-sufficient — with self contained administrative, diagnostic and medical surgical units. Therefore, patients can be admitted, treated, and released on the same floor.

The new hospital will be headquarters for the clinical education of future students in the Medical College and College of Allied Health Sciences. The goal of the new hospital is to provide a total range of patient care and professional clinical education without requiring the patient, the professional or the student to leave the facility to receive, administer or observe this care. It provides an ideal setting for continued innovation and education.

I wish to again thank all the workers and donors who have given of their time and money to support your nursing association and Thomas Jefferson University. To those who have not contributed to the campaign, we are still welcoming any donations as we are still $10,000.00 short of our target $100,000.00.

ADMINISTRATION

This has been another busy year in the Alumni Office. There were 2675 letters mailed to graduates for the Alumni Giving, and the same number for the Annual Luncheon, May 8, 1976. Also approximately the same number of mailings for the University activities for 1975 and spring of 1976.

It is really very important that all graduates send in their change of address and change of name to receive information and the activities of the Alumni Association and University.

I wish to thank the anniversary classes for sending addresses of their classmates, that we had no record of for several years, nice to have them back on the Alumni files.

We would like to complete the collection of Graduating Exercises Programs for the Alumni Association records. The Programs missing from the collection: 1941 — 1947 — 1950 — 1964.

We have received programs for 1949-1951. We thank the graduates for sending them to the Alumni Association. We have a special portfolio for the Programs.

If any Alumni has in her Possession one of these Programs and would like to give to the Association, or if you want it returned we will make a copy and return the original to you.

I am in the Alumni Office on Tuesdays, 10 to 4, of each week. The Alumni Office is on the Mezzanine Floor of Jefferson Hall, 11th and Locust Streets, Room M-2. Telephone No. 829-8981.

RESUME OF MINUTES OF ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

September 9, 1975

14 members present.

1. Recommendation was approved that — Miss Joni Bender, freshman student nurse be given a Student Scholarship.

October 14, 1975

22 members present.

- Recommendations were made and approved as follows:
1. That Deidre Blank represent the Alumnae Association at the P.N.A. Convention.

2. That the Alumnae Association contribute to the History of Nursing Museum which will be housed at 8th & Spruce Streets and to the United Fund Campaign.

A very interesting talk on "American Indian Jewelry" was given by Barbara Ellick. Also she had a display of jewelry and purses which could be purchased.

November 11, 1975

14 members present.

Recommendations were made and approved as follows:

1. That we send a contribution to Christmas Seals.
2. That we send all Graduates who are in Nursing Homes a check for $100.00 for Christmas.

A very interesting report on the P.N.A. Convention was given by Diedre Blank. Theme of the Convention was "Nurse-Power-Prescription for Care."

January 13th, 1976

12 members present.

The Christmas Party held on December 9th, 1975, was enjoyed by everyone. The highlight of the evening was a visit from Santa.

The following Ballot was approved:

President:	Margaret Summers
2nd Vice President:	Evelyn Curran
Board of Directors:	Mary Ellen McDonald
	Evelyn Dute
	Dolores Heckenberger
	Beverly Rupp
	Jeannette Plasterer
	Mary Ann Stauffer

Results of the Memorial Tribute Questionnaire:

It was voted upon and accepted that we select three Nurses Lounges and two classrooms as the Nurses Alumnae Memorial tribute.

February 10th, 1976

13 members present.

Dinner and Auction Sale to be held on Tuesday, March 9th, 1976, in Faculty Club at Jefferson Hall.

Program was two films, entitled "Where Are We Today?" and "How to Examine Your Breasts", followed by a very interesting talk on Breast Cancer given by Dr. Carla Goepp.

April 13, 1976

A recommendation was made and approved that a scholarship be given to Eileen Blum.

Dinner and Auction Sale held in March was a success despite the inclement weather.

A recommendation from the Board of Directors was approved that we give a contribution of $1,000.00 to the Peter A. Herbut Memorial Fund.

Results of the election:

President:	Margaret Summers
2nd Vice President:	Evelyn Curran
Board of Directors:	Dolores Heckenberger
	Beverly Rupp
	Mary Ann Stauffer

May 11, 1976

13 members present.

There were 385 reservations for the Alumnae Luncheon and 359 attended. A good time reported by everyone.

A motion was made and approved that the President and Board of Directors conduct all business of an emergency nature until the regular business meeting in September, 1976.

Respectfully submitted,

DAR AWARD GOES TO MARJORIE J. WILSON,

Chief of Nursing Division,
Health Services Command

Colonel Marjorie J. Wilson, Chief of Nursing Division, HQ, US Army Health Services Command, will receive the Army Nurse of the Year Award, presented annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution, on April 21, 1976, at DAR's Constitution Hall in Washington, D.C.

The award commemorates Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee, who organized and founded the nucleus of the Army Nurse Corps, following the Spanish-American War.

Wilson, whose military service spans 26 years, was selected for her consistently outstanding record and leadership. Before reporting to her present assignment at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., she was Chief Nurse in Headquarters, US Army Command, Europe.

From 1968 to 1971, she served on the staff of the Surgeon General (Army) as Chief of the Nurse Corps Career Planning Branch. Her efforts were recognized with the Army's Legion of Merit. She was next assigned as Chief, Department of Nursing, Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, D.C., serving there until 1974 when her next tour of duty took her to Europe.

Colonel Wilson received her R.N. diploma from Jefferson Medical College Hospital School of Nursing in Philadelphia. She subsequently earned a B.S. in nursing education from the University of Pennsylvania and an M.S. in nursing service administration from the University of Colorado.

After her basic nursing education, Colonel Wilson joined the Army Nurse Corps in 1945. Her assignments took her to Army hospitals in Europe, Japan and Korea, as well as the United States.

The Anita Newcomb McGee Award is of special significance to the Army Nurse Corps. Dr. McGee, at the request of then-Surgeon General George M. Sternberg, wrote a bill which eventually served to establish the Nurse Corps as a permanent part of the US Army in 1901. The Army Nurse Corps is presently celebrating its 75th anniversary year.

The award ceremony will take place during the annual Continental Congress held by the Daughters of the American Revolution in Constitution Hall. Brigadier General Madelyn N. Parks, Chief of the Army Nurse Corps, who will attend the presentation, cited Colonel Wilson's "exemplary service to her country and the nursing profession . . . (and is) most deserving of the award."

Colonel Wilson is a native of Tyrone, Pa. She has three brothers and two sisters.

NEW MEDICAL TRAINING PROGRAM

Debra A. Freeman, a resident of Ridgefield, and a professional representative of Pfizer Laboratories Division, Pfizer, Inc., recently completed a sophisticated medical information program at the company's New York Training Center.

The course represents the final phase of a four phase, 21-week training program which Pfizer created to insure the greatest flow of pharmaceutical product information to doctor, pharmacists, and other medical personnel.

Pfizer's centralized, self-instruction learning facility in New York features an advanced multi-media system. It permits students to proceed at their own pace in assimilating extensive medical and product information, and speeds learning while significantly enhancing information retention.

According to Ralph Kauffman, Director of Manpower Training and Development. "The new system standardizes the knowledge our professional representatives receive; lets them gain knowledge and skills at their own rate — they all learn regardless of prior training and skills; learning and retention are maximized; and even dry subjects generate high interest because of the nature of the program."

Kauffman also notes: "Based on our experience, retention of knowledge via the new system appears to be greater than that achieved by straight programmed instruction."

Debra Freeman will now join the ranks of Pfizer's nation-wide corps of highly trained professional representatives, which is the primary channel of information between the diversified pharmaceutical company and America's health care team.

IN DEFENSE OF NURSING HOMES

EVENING TRIBUNE — San Diego, Thurs., April 10, 1975

By TERRY LAMBRETH — Class of 1962

In recent months, many articles have been written regarding conditions in convalescent hospitals and other related health facilities.

It is my sincere opinion that these items have a poor connotation and grossly underrate the quality of care which is rendered in these institutions. Without any doubt, it is certain to depict a very grim picture to the public.

Having been professionally involved with these types of institutions for the past eight years, in several areas, in the state of California, I feel capable of offering an objective study, and feel it is time that a counterpoint be offered.

There are, I am sure, those facilities which have warranted the published criticism; however, they are few and it is not in the general interested to make blanket remarks and falsely generalize the charges against a few to make them appear to be an indictment of all such health care units.

The public is not aware of the services available in modern convalescent hospitals, which have had a rapid growth in the past decade. Those of us who have been associated with their growth have striven to achieve a high level of professionalism as well as a high quality of patient care. We take pride in this occupation and its accomplishments. Geriatrics is becoming a recognized specialty like pediatrics and orthopedics.

The employees are fully qualified and have had all the same academic background as required for all licensed personnel. Other employees are trained in the care they render to our patients. As in other fields, no one can do a good job if not personally suited and interested in this type of patient care. Therefore, only those who genuinely care are usually found administering to our senior citizens.

All those who have had previous experience with these health care units are aware of these facts, I'm sure. To those who are not, it is hoped that they have not already formed opinions of what our hospitals are without suitable research.

In past years, most of the patients in these units had been quite terminally ill and beyond any hope of improvement or cure. Not so in recent years. We now see more people accepting these facilities and recognizing the need for them. Consequently patients who are not so ill are more frequently seen as well as those who come for brief periods to convalesce.

The units are prepared to administer skilled nursing care of many types excluding detailed diagnostic work — intensive care-type nursing as well as surgical needs. Nurses work closely with physicians to ensure proper care, and maintain a close relationship with families.

These patients are not being abused, starved, mistreated, oversedated or being housed in unsafe or substandard buildings.

Again, if specific units have been found to be unsuitable, the the proper action should follow. But do not damage the fine reputation our facilities now enjoy as well as the sincere people who staff them.

We are proud of the excellent care we administer to our patients. And, happily, society is now accepting our units and recognizing the need for our services.

Lastly, the most important aspect of the overall picture is the human element, the knowledge that we care.

Although nurses and nursing personnel should not become emotionally attached to patients, it is difficult to take care of patients for one, two, three, or more years and not begin to regard them as friends. We cannot deny the close relationships that evolve.

Our patients are not referred to simply as room numbers, case numbers, or "the stomach case". We become aware of their needs and quite interested in them. It is not unusual for a staff member to provide for some of their personal needs.

We give love where there is none. We offer what families cannot or will not provide. We are frequently the only family a patient may have.

Patients warmly speak of the facility as their home and express pleasure at their care and confidence in us. Often they go home and return if the need arises and also return to visit. These are not the words or actions of dissatisfied people. Nor are the families unhappy about the care their loved ones receive.

And it is not at all unusual for us to feel greatly saddened by the loss of one of the patients, because we do care.

In conclusion, I submit, there most definitely is a counterpoint. It should be presented to the public. Many of us have and will have a need to utilize the services of our facilities. It is always a most difficult time for those involved.

Be assured that we are concerned and prepared to provide our services to you, the community.

Mrs. Lamberth is the director of nurses at a convalescent hospital in La Mesa. She has worked in nursing homes in California for eight years. She is a graduate of the school of nursing at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia.

SAGA OF A PRAIRIE NURSE

The date was Sunday, January 23, 1976, when we packed up our worldly belongings and left Pennsylvania for the prairie lands of Canada!

for the prairie lands of Canada! This was not to be one of our everyday adventures; this adventure would last a long time, for now we were to establish a new home—stead in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

What's a Manitoba? Well, it is a province considered to be part of western Canada; it is bordered on the south by Minnesota and North Dakota, to the east by Ontario, to the west by Saskatchewan and lastly to the north by the Northwest Territories. Its name is truly Manitoba, not Manituba or Manitola and Winnipeg is not in Quebec as some of our United States mail insists. Yes, it is a long way from home — 1750 miles from Philadelphia.

The Sunday we left home was a cold, bitter, rainy day. The weather was so bad that we had to stop several times just to remove the ice which clung to our windshield. This was in Pennsylvania, no less; and we were headed for far colder country. The trip lasted for 4½ days with stopovers in Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota and North Dakota. By the time we had reached Grand Forks, we knew that we were only one step away from what must be the Arctic! The temperature was well below zero and there was plenty of snow.

Finally, the big day arrived; it was Thursday, January 27, when we reached the border at Emerson, Manitoba. Customs detained us for about ½ hour, and then we were off for the last 60 miles of our trip.

Gradually, weather conditions changed. The temperature dipped to — 30° Celsius (or minus 20° F.) and there was four feet of snow on the ground. Most of the snow was blowing quite heavily. We had trouble seeing the road on the way to Winnipeg and there was a deep ravine on either side of the road. Get the picture?

Arriving safely and rolling into the city around noon, a cosmopolitan city lay in front of us blanketed with a white winter covering of snow. The common occurrence of subzero temperatures with additional blankets of snow was a routine sight for the next two months. Long thermal underwear was the fashion rage for this time of the year.

Now that we had reached the city, our first task was to find temporary lodging. We spent the next four days in an efficiency motel. These four days were quite hectic and looking for a suitable apartment, meeting Michael's boss and just trying to entertain ourselves.

Sunday proved to be fruitful. We had found the apartment which was to be our new home while in Winnipeg. With all the activity and traveling before we left for Canada, it was great to once more have a place to call our own — even if we waited four weeks for our furniture to arrive. Have you ever slept in a sleeping bag for four weeks? I wonder if that's some kind of record?

Meanwhile back to the reality of work, Michael was adjusting to his new position as a research scientist. The physiology department at the University of Manitoba's Health Sciences Center is one of the largest and the best of its kind in Canada, and as a result it attracts people from all over the world. We have met people from Australia, Tanzania, Switzerland, Spain, Japan, Germany, China and many other parts of the world. The fun part is tasting the specialty foods from the various countries.

Time passed and before we knew it, our furniture was arriving from Philadelphia. Time to play house again! Oh, but it felt good to sit on a sofa (or as they say in Winnipeg, a Chesterfield)! My aching back!

Now settled in, it was the right time to explore the world — the world of nursing! Due to the mail strike in Canada, I did not receive word that I was eligible for registration in Manitoba. Fortunately, nurses with master's degrees are in great demand in the province. Knowing little about nursing in Manitoba, I set out for the provincial nurses' association. What better place to start! I now hold a position with the Manitoba Association of Registered Nurses as a nursing consultant. My task is quite challenging since I am charged with developing standards of nursing practice for the province.

Well it's spring and the snow has long gone; the temperatures range from +16° to +29° Celsius (60° - 80° F.) and the days are magnificent and mostly sunny. The city has blossomed from under its winter blanket of snow demonstrating to everyone what a beautiful city it really is. It has most everything that a typical city would have, including parks, a zoo, hockey and curling rinks, a football stadium, an art museum, and a cultural arts center. They are famous for their well known Royal Winnipeg Ballet as well as the Winnipeg Jets (their hockey team which just won the WHA championship in '76).

CURLING

Ethnically, Winnipeg is diverse: Ukrainian, French, Greek, German, Chinese, and native Indian are represented, to name a few. The province of Manitoba reflects a rich, cultural mosaic because of this diversity.

Physically, Winnipeg has a population of over 500,000 people with another 500,000 people comprising the rest of the province. The total population of Manitoba is about one-half the size of Philadelphia. The landscape is comparatively flat. One of the province's outstanding features is the many and beautiful lakes where fishing is not only a luxury, but also a way of life for many of the northern people.

Because of the various cultures and the expansive terrain of Manitoba, its needs are very unique. Its people are just as unique. Because of this, nursing in such a province is quite diversified. Although the urban areas have their hospitals, much of the nursing in Manitoba is done in northern nursing outposts — a team of one to four nurses with a two to four bed unit. Some areas attended by nurses can only be reached by air.

Fortunately, although some customs are different, the principles of nursing here are the same.

CLASS NEWS

Mary M. Robinson Godfrey, 303 N. Market St., Ligonier, Pa. 15658. My grand daughter, Pandora Gerard Aleman, a graduate of Cornell University is married and lives in Panama. She is a writer for the U. S. Information for Canal Zone.

The Editors of "The Bulletin" visited the History of Nursing Museum and Library at the Pennsylvania Hospital in June. We were fortunate in meeting Mrs. Irene L. Matthews, R.N., Secretary, who was in charge that day. After talking with her we decided to write Mrs. Mary Robinson Godfrey requesting any data that she wished to give us regarding her interesting career. Mrs. Matthews spoke to us at the January meeting 1973 about the Army and Nurses Museum.

Below is a copy of the letter Mrs. Godfrey was kind enough to write.

July 9th '76

Dear Mrs. McCracken:

Your letter of June 28th was received.

Mrs. Matthews is a historical buff. I think it sort of awes her that she has become acquainted with us of an earlier time. Since coming here, I am conscious that the World War I personnel had better be forgotten. I am now closing my mind to that era.

I have told so much about my interesting experiences — some to an author that Mrs. Matthews met. He has written much about some of it in a book called "The Leviathan", a German ship that was interned in New York in 1914, and later made into a transport on which I was Chief Nurse from Dec. 1918 to Sept. 1919. The author of the book is Frank Braynard. He started the project "Operation Sail 1976". He was shown on TV recently. The project was also shown and historically very interesting.

I am having trouble writing. I have crippling arthritis.

The excitement of the Bicentennial program has about driven all else from my mind.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,
Mary Robinson Godfrey '09

Christine Troester Fellows, 7220 Spruce St. Upper Darby, Pa. 19082. I am sorry to be so late in informing the alumnae association that for the past year I should have been on the inactive list due to my age and infirmities. Thank you for your understanding.

1917

Ethel Faust, Nursing Home, V C Blair Hospital, Huntingdon, Pa. 16652. Dear Fellow Nurses: I want to thank you for the generous check which you sent me for Christmas. I am not sure yet what I will spend it for, but I will find a use for it. I am now practically bed ridden, but the pain I had over the holidays has mostly gone now, with medication and I think I am still in my right mind. If anyone would like to write to me, I would love to hear from them, but I am unable to write myself.

1933

Anna Woodring Crofford, 45 Sullivan Road, Wayne, Pa. 19087. Retired December 1975 from Administration of Cathcart Home. Looking forward to some travel, rest and relaxation.

Carolyn Olson Kaltenstein, Retired in April after 29 consecutive years of "11 to 7" — really to finish renovating a house I bought to retire in. Contractors and night duty are incompatible!

Mildred Huber Bentz, Woodmont North Apts. C19, Downingtown, Pa. 19335. Due to the after effects my husband suffered from a severe case of poly neuritis, we now live in a first floor apartment here in Downingtown. This makes it much easier for both of us. Our daughter and family (2 girls and 1 boy) live close by. Our son and family (1 boy) live in Remington, Va. My last contact with Jeff was through Erma Painter who moved back to Milton, Pa. We keep in contact either by phone or letters. Hope to see them at our shore home this summer.

Attending the luncheon were Evelyn Wilson Frazier, Mildred Dunkle Bowman, Verna Hertzler Diehm, Betty Piersol (seated at the head table), Julia Tyler McCracken. Thirteen of our members contributed to the Annual Giving Fund. Julia McCracken is sorry to report that Tip lost his fight with cancer on January 6, 1976.

Sprecher was named "Mother of the Last Ten Years" for her volunteer work at North High's Clinic. "Wig" as she was affectionately known around Jeff where she graduated in 1940 was supervisor of the 14th O.R. She has been dedicated to the great interests which she has held in and around Hagerstown. Besides the clinic for the students, she has been active in Girl Scouts, Brownies, YMCA Youth work, plus PTA. More recently she has been a member of the Washington County Citizen's Advisory Council for Education, also a member of the Family Life and Development Program — a group that has diligently tried to make an intelligent approach to the sex education of students in the county. Her more recent duties include being a member of the Church and Ministry Committee locally and on the Board of Directors of Hoffman Home for Youth in Littlestown, Pa. What does Wig do for fun? Play golf! She sends her best wishes to all her classmates and is sorry that she could not attend the luncheon.

Theresa Lefchick Lamberth, 726 Pomona Ave., Coronado, Ca. 92118. Have completed another eventful year. I had a lovely extended vacation in the Orient and spent two months seeing new places and revisiting some countries we'd been to on our last trip. I did a fair amount of touring some countries alone and enjoyed it; through it all, I must say Hong Kong will always be my favorite port. My husband also had an exciting year as he was intimately involved in the evacuation of Cambodia and Viet Nam. He had lots of interesting days and nights and tells some exciting stories. We are due for orders again in August and have no idea where we'll go next. Wishing everyone a wonderful Bicentennial year! (An article "In Defense of Nursing Homes" is published in this issue of "The Bulletin".)

Ellen Elizabeth May Whitchoke, 4204 Barrett Drive, Newburgh, N.Y. 12550. I am now working as assistant head nurse (11 - 7) in combined ICU and CCU and really love it.

Mary Bennett Kendrick, 3048 S. Race St., Denver, Colo. 80210. Ken is now co-pastor of Washington Park United Methodist Church. I'm a clinical lab assistant at Presbyterian School of Nursing (3 year diploma) at the freshman level. At present I'm responsible for the oncology course and this summer will be running the skills lab for the new class that starts in June. I'm also planning on attending Metro State College here in Denver, working on my nursing degree — starting classes in June.

Claudia Bennett Penders, 510 Westminster Ave., Swarthmore, Pa. 19801. Feb. 10th of this year, John and I went to JFK Airport to pick up the latest addition to our family — 4 years old Gregory — just arrived from Seoul, Korea and quite a bundle of energy and love. Our son — Jonathan — 7 years old — is reserving judgment but seems to be enjoying him very much. We also moved to a new house in Swarthmore. Really beautiful town and of course a larger house — 2 boys like to run around a lot.

Dorothea Hamilton, 1763 W. 1875 N. Oak Harbor, Wa. 98227. Am stationed at Naval Hospital Whidbey Island. Was just promoted to LCDR. In December had the pleasure of assisting Donna Kocher Christiansen (Class of 1966) during the labor and delivery of her baby boy.

Lois Russell Foxen, 246 W. Brentwood Ave., Orange, Ca. 92665. I was recently elected Western Regional First Vice-President of the American Association of Nephrology Nurses and Technicians for 1976-77. Would love to hear from fellow alumnae should they visit Southern California. We're so close to Disneyland!

Judith Jean Abbott Getz, 5434 Widgeon Drive, Wilmington, N.C. 28401. Last July I spent two weeks in Djakarta, Indonesia, with Lore Miles Eichfeld (Jeff '65). With her help Don and I adopted an Indonesian daughter, Kera Lore, born last June 16th. I went over to get her. Then we bought a 26 ft. sailboat. We have just adopted our second daughter, Helayne, 2 years and 4 months. So that's David — age 5, Travis — age 2 1/2, Helayne 2 1/4, and Kara 10 months! Don is getting a third partner in June — Bud Azzato, from Jeff — so life will be easier for him. Expecting Lore to visit with her family on home leave this summer.

Pamela Johnson Drzik, 2300 Andover Road, Cinnaminson, N.J. 08077. Ed now working for Montgomery County Children's Aid Society in Norristown. I'm working part time in Ob-Gyn office. Kevin and Michael are big, bad and beautiful!

Julia Connelly Flynn, 243 Sweetbriar Ct., King of Prussia, Pa. 19406. Still working in the O.R. at Sacred Heart in Norristown, Pa., also active in Red Cross Bloodmobiles as a volunteer. Daughter — Anne — is in Brownies, so this year I am a Brownie leader. I will celebrate my 10 years with Sacred Heart Hospital — May 1976 — with a service dinner.

Carolyn Elizabeth Jones Walchak, 101 Promenade, Swanton, Ohio 43558. I am temporarily retired to raise our two daughters, lama, age 2, and Jennifer, age 9 months. Frank is here at the medical college doing a plastic surgery residency.

Adrienne Lowe Daughenbaugh, 11 Forest Drive, Northfield, N.J. 08225. I am attending Stockton State College for a B.S. in Health Care Administration. Still working part time at Shore Memorial Hospital. Children are growing up. Lori is 5 years and Craig is 2 years.

Anita Harbison Karpetsky, 20 Acorn Circle, Towson, Md. 21204. Have had 10 years happy marriage with husband, Tim. He received his PhD in 1970 from Johns Hopkins University and is now on the staff of the National Cancer Institute. I completed my B.S. and expect to complete my M.S. in Adult and Continuing Education this summer — also at Johns Hopkins University. I have been teaching Maternal-Child Health in a Baltimore Diploma School and enjoying it thoroughly! Would be happy to hear from anyone near or passing through Baltimore.

Barbara Davis Schraeder, 736 South St., Dalton, Mass. 01226. We will be returning to Philadelphia. I will be working in the Pediatric ICU at Children's Hospital. My husband, Paul, will be Ass. Prof. of Neurology at the Medical College of Penna.

Janet Carolyn Walker Kespess, 215 Jules Ave., San Francisco, Calif. 94112. Jim is working on his Master's thesis in Molecular Biology and I am employed in the OR at Children's Hospital. We hope to leave San Francisco by July of 1977.

In Memoriam

Dr. Peter A. Herbut, President of Thomas Jefferson University, died suddenly March 31 at his home in Rosemont, Pennsylvania. He was 63.

Inaugurated as President of Jefferson Medical College on May 3, 1967, Dr. Herbut announced plans for full university status and saw these come to fruition when Jefferson was regartered as Thomas Jefferson University on July 1, 1969.

Dr. Herbut devoted the years of his presidency to the growth of Thomas Jefferson University as a health-related, medically-oriented institution, comprising a College of Allied Health Sciences and a College of Graduate Studies in addition to Jefferson Medical College and Thomas Jefferson University Hospital.

An internationally recognized pathologist, Dr. Herbut has written four textbooks in pathology and more than 100 scientific papers.

Born July 6, 1912 in Alberta, Canada, he received his medical degree in McGill University in Montreal in 1937. He completed internships in Montreal and in Wilkes-Barre, and a residency at Medical College of Virginia in 1938-39. He joined the faculty at Jefferson as Assistant Professor of Pathology in 1939. Later, he served Jefferson as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Pathology from July 1, 1948 until his inauguration as president.

Over the years, Dr. Herbut held office in more than 25 professional organizations. He was awarded honorary Doctor of Science degrees by the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science in 1968, and by Washington and Jefferson College in 1974.

Other honors he received included the McCrae Award by the Jefferson Society for Clinical Investigation, the American Society of Clinical Pathologists Ward Burdick Award, and the Schaffrey Award by the medical alumni of St. Joseph's College.

Upon hearing the news, Dr. John V. Templeton, president of the Jefferson Medical College Alumni Association, said, "We have lost not only a president, but also a devoted and beloved friend."

Dr. Herbut is survived by his wife, the former Margaret Fetsko; two daughters, Mrs. Linda Foulkrod, and Paula Herbut; and three grandchildren.

In Memoriam

Katherine Childs graduated from Trinity College, Texas, after which she entered Johns Hopkins School of Nursing. After graduation in 1926, she spent five years with the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions in Iran. On her return to the United States, she joined the staff of Lake Forest Hospital, Chicago.

Later she moved to Barnes Hospital in St. Louis where she first met Miss Helen McClelland, who prevailed upon her to come to Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, as Assistant Director of Nursing Service in charge of the women's building. She held this post for fourteen years.

Miss Childs left this position to head the School of Nursing and Nursing Service at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. Her forward-looking approach to the education of nurses was very much evidenced throughout Pennsylvania.

After six years at Jefferson, she then went on to Easton Memorial Hospital, Maryland, where she remained as Director of Nursing until her retirement. While here she saw the hospital enlarged, the nursing school enrollment increased and she was responsible for having the school accredited by the National League for Nursing.

Katherine Childs combined energy, intelligence and unswerving strength of purpose with the personal magnetism and gentleness of character which made her so warmly loved and respected.

Katherine Childs, Honorary Member of the Jefferson Nurses Alumni Association, died January 22, 1976.

HELP US — HELP YOU

Want to help your Alumni Association save money?

We try to keep up to date, but with nearly 3000 active addresses, it is a really big job.

The Postal Service returns every piece of Alumni mail that is not delivered; this costs us money, and the cost of returned mail may soon double.

Here is how you can HELP US - HELP YOU!

Advise us if there has been any change whatsoever in the address we are currently using. Also send us the address of a classmate or friend who is not receiving mail from the Alumni Association.
