

Grants Information Service

Helena Washington, MLS, Senior Librarian

Paul Hunter, DMD, MLIS, Clinical Informatics Librarian

Scott Memorial Library, Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, PA

Pivot: Search, Collaborate & Organize

Pivot reports on opportunities available from federal, state, public, private and international sources. Pivot is a subscription service available through the library.

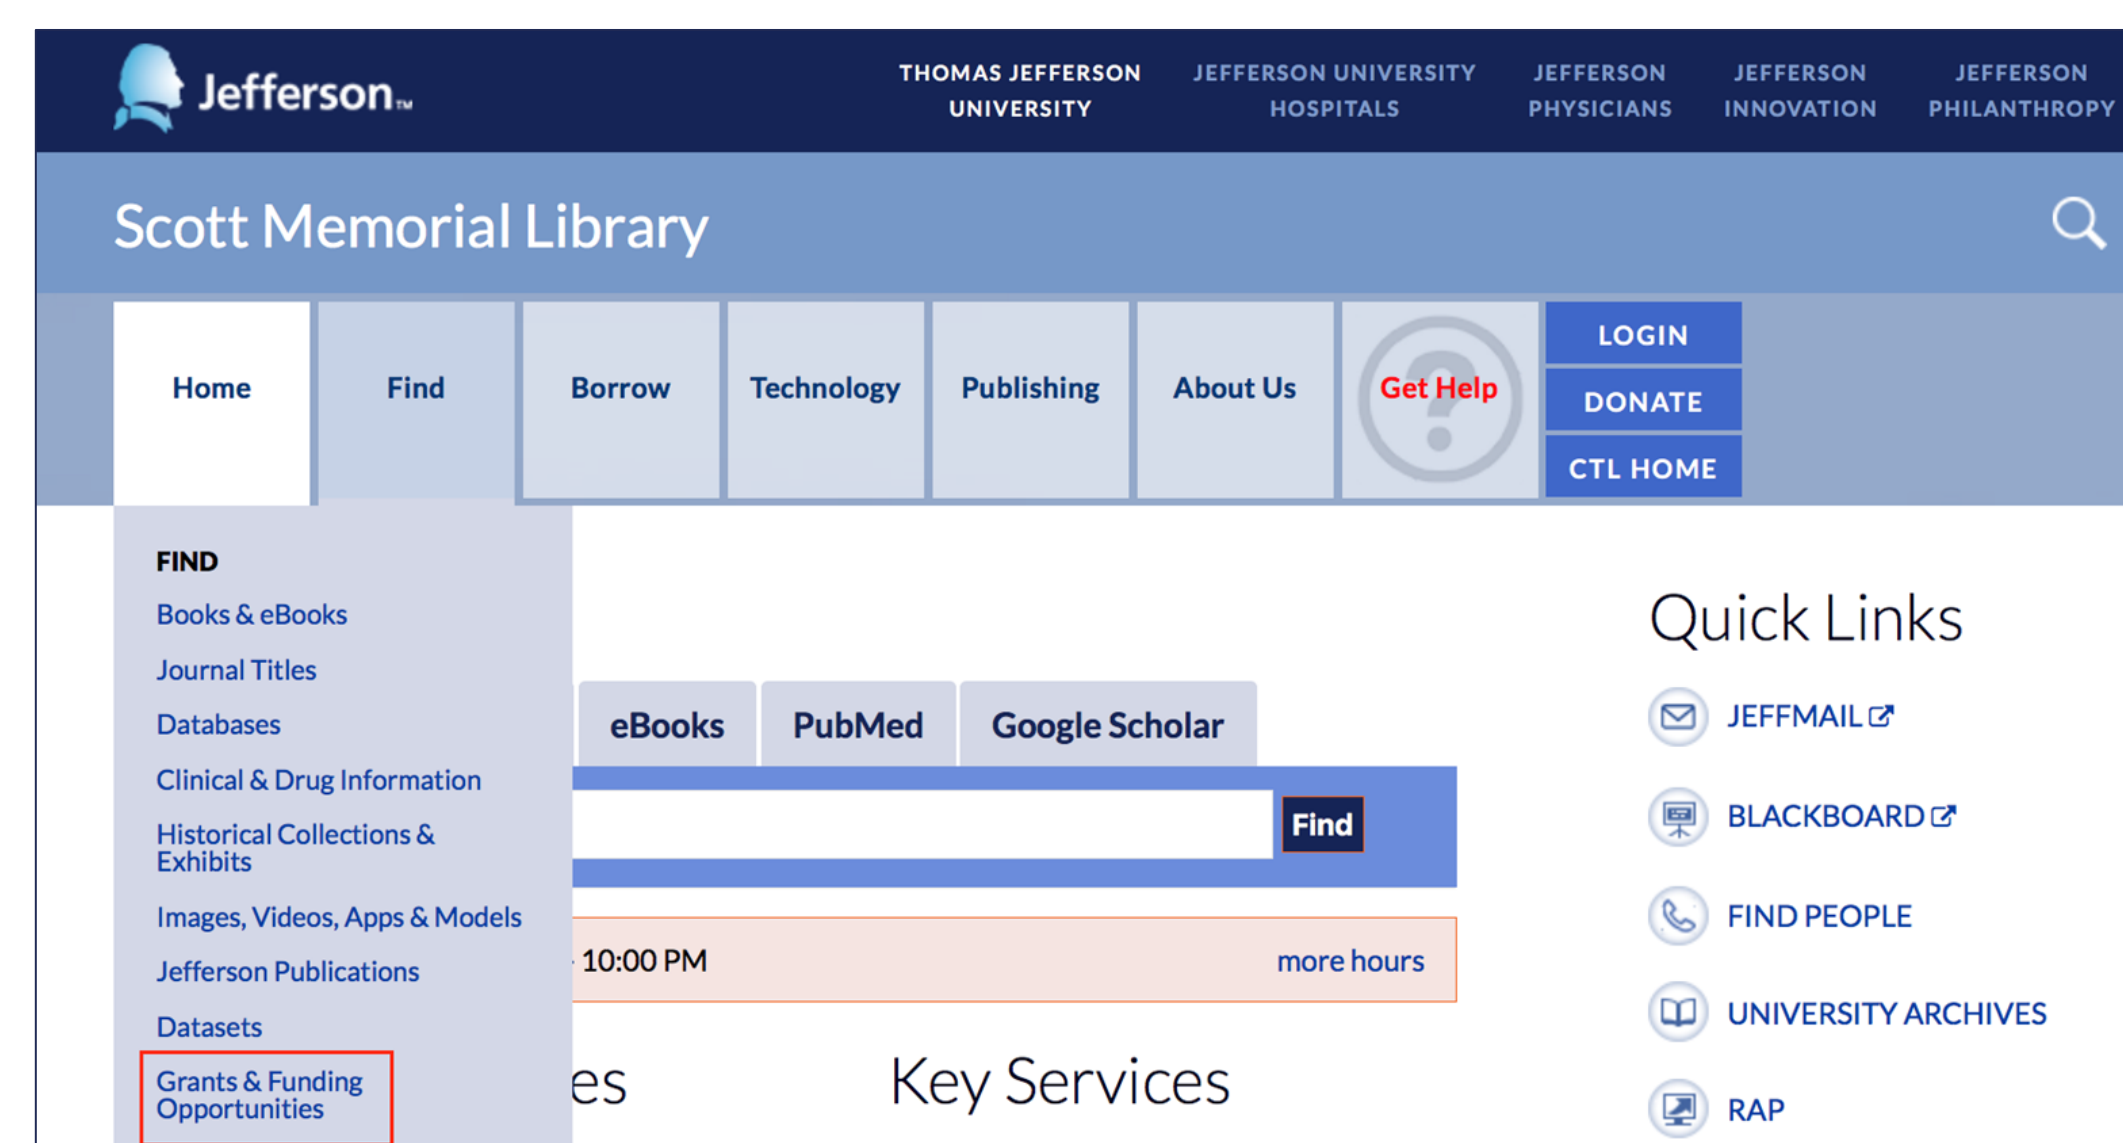

Highlights Include

A strong, multifaceted search interface

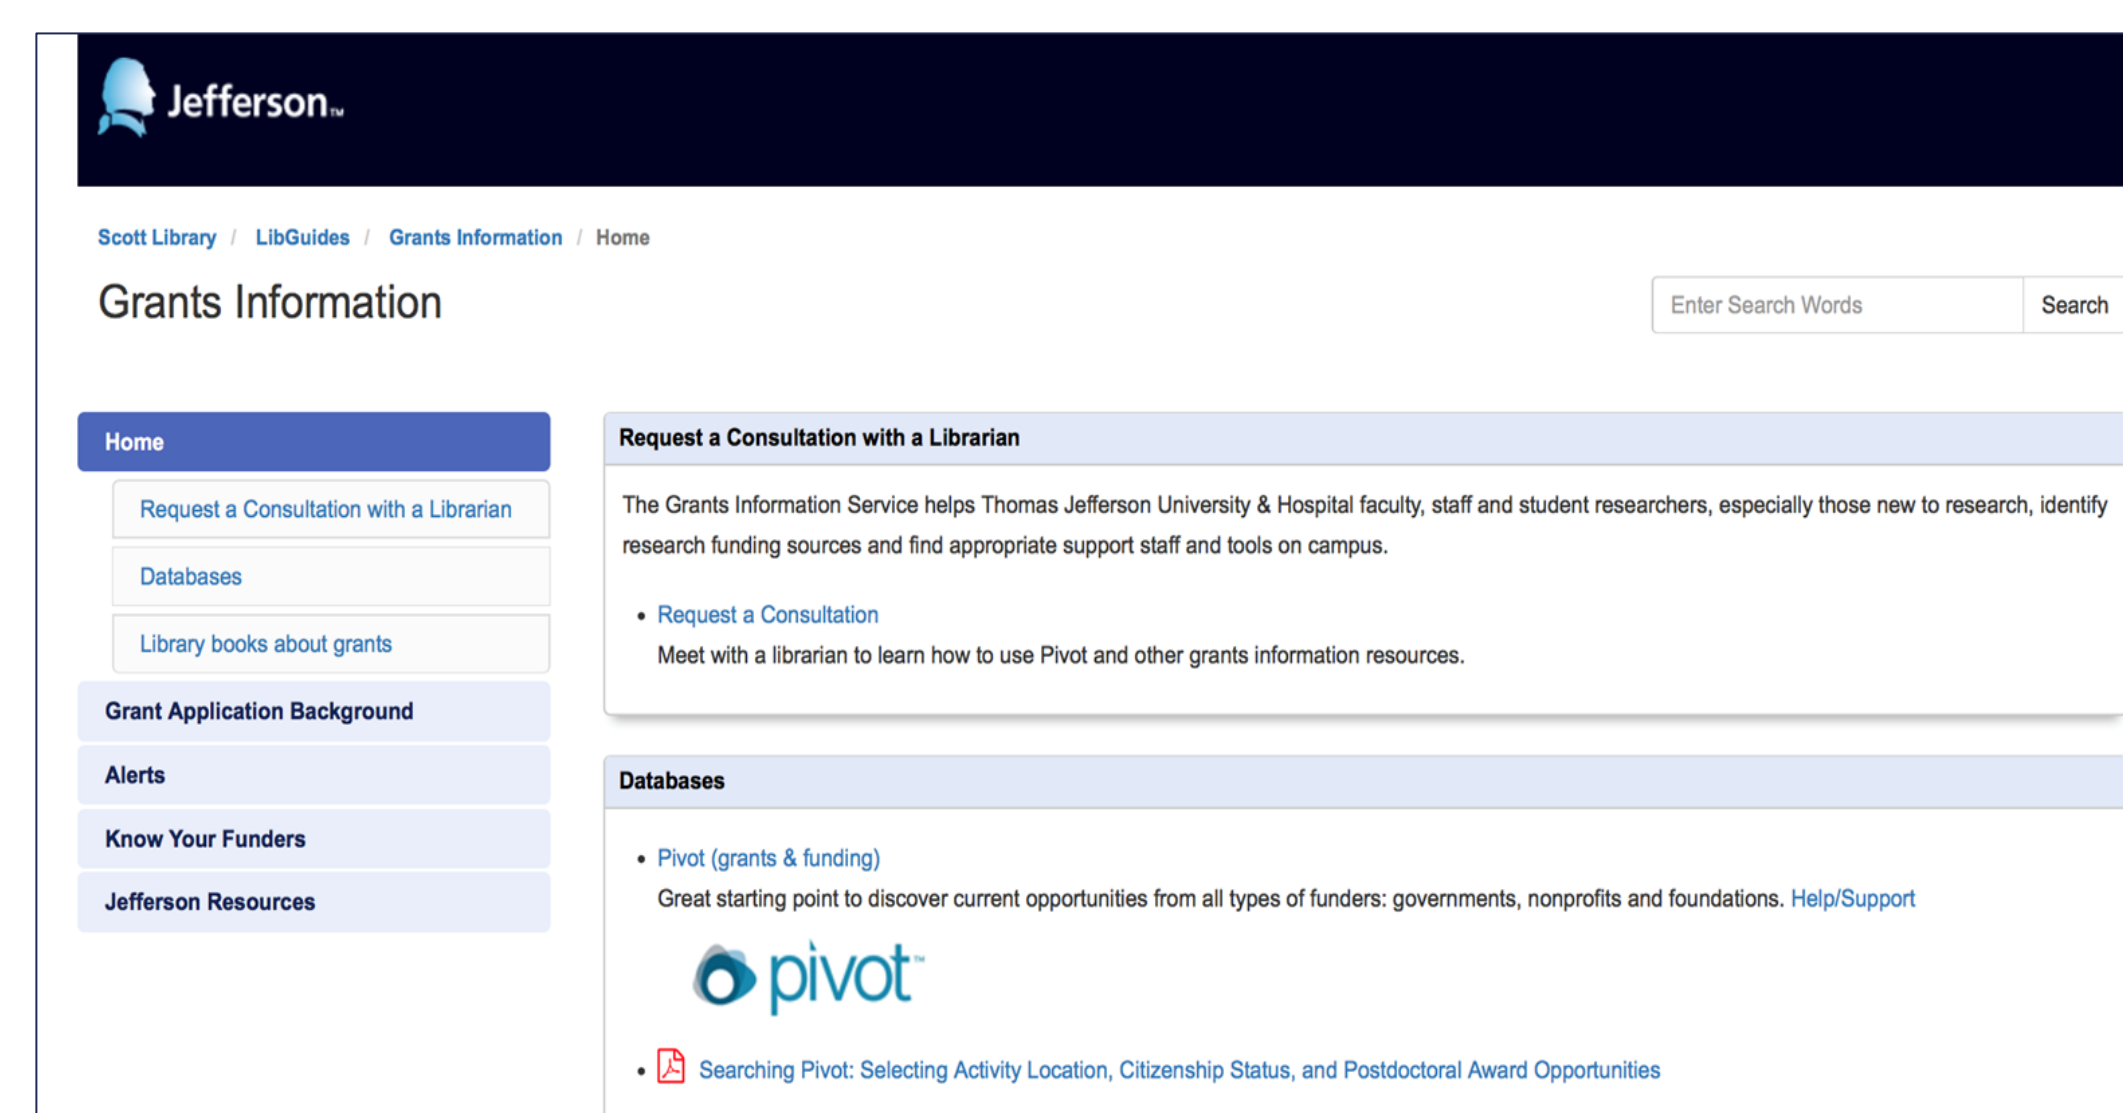

Collaborator discovery - identify colleagues with similar research interests

Tools for organizing funding opportunities and staying current

Find the Library's Grants & Funding Opportunities Resource Guide

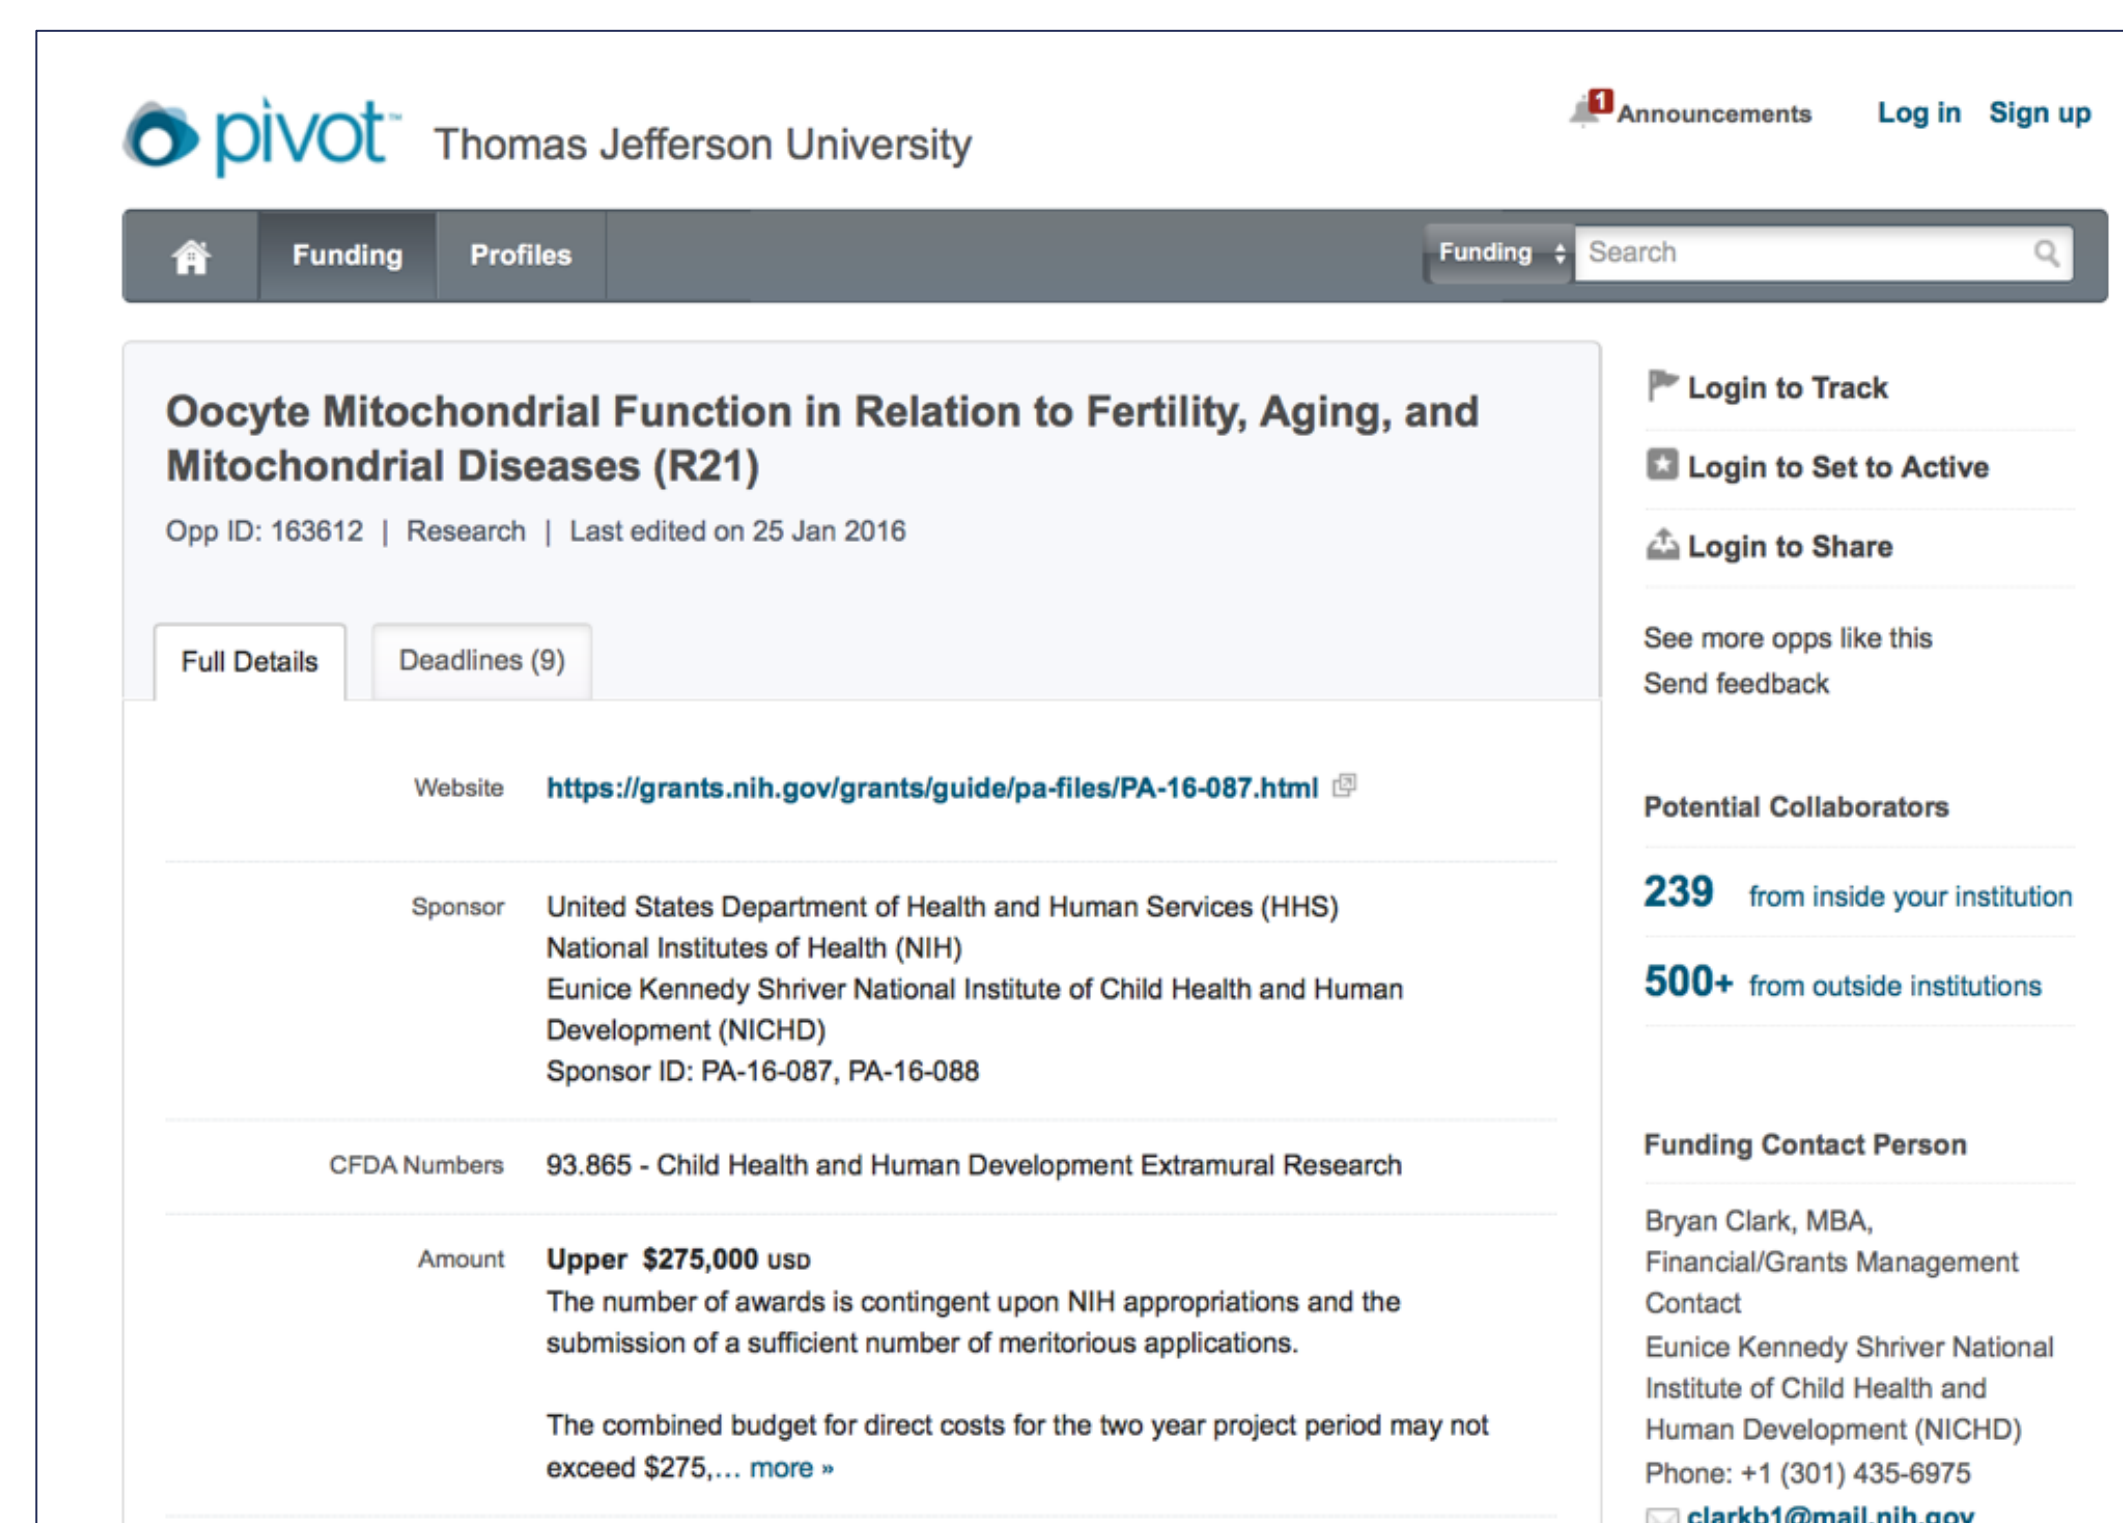

Select the Pivot Link

Locate a Grant Opportunity

Get Money!

Need Help Locating Grants?

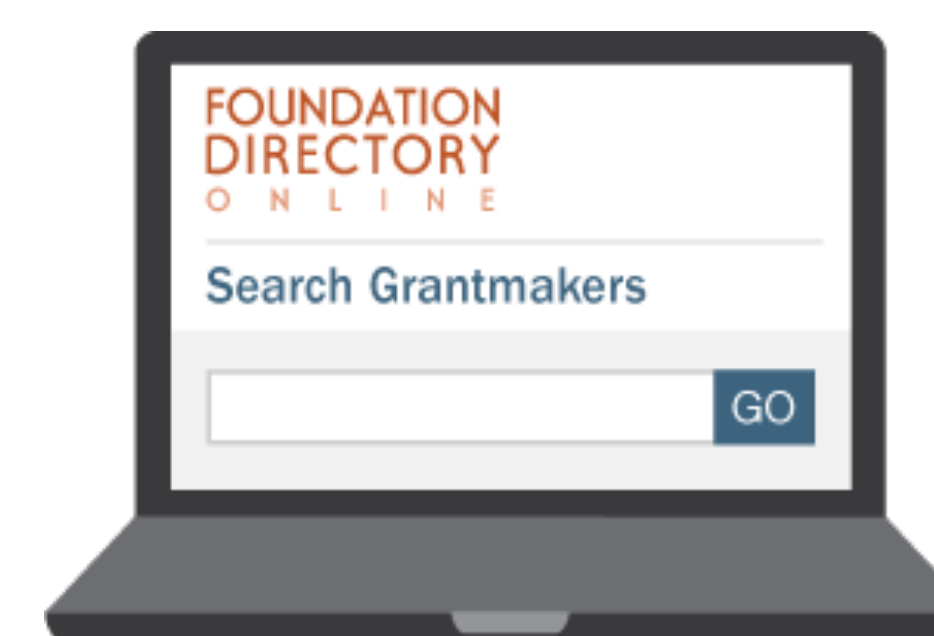

Librarians assist the Jefferson Community identify funding opportunities.

Individual and group session consultations are free of charge.

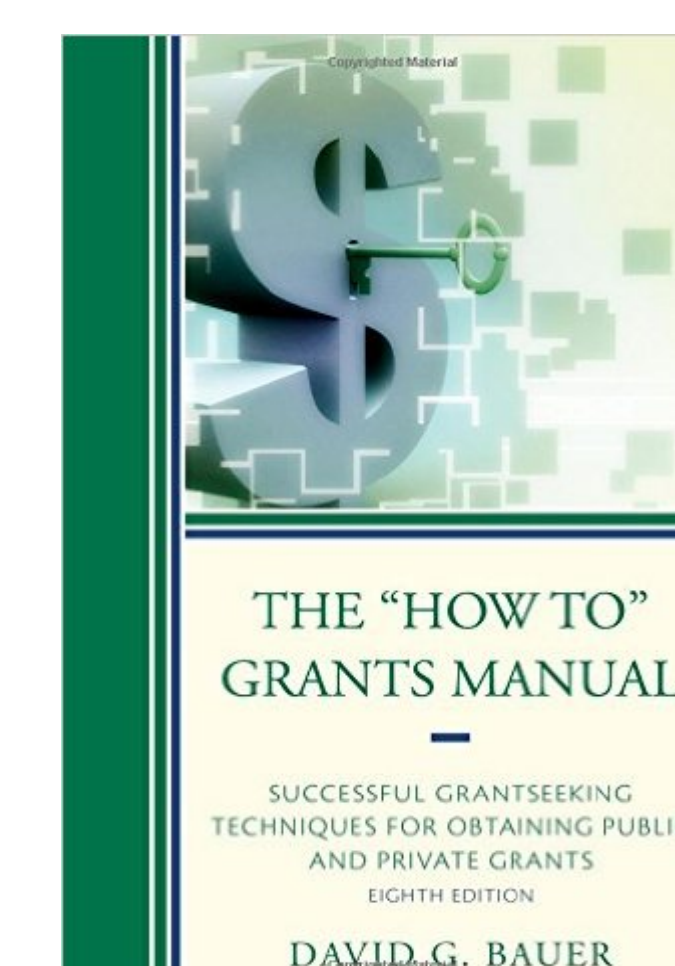

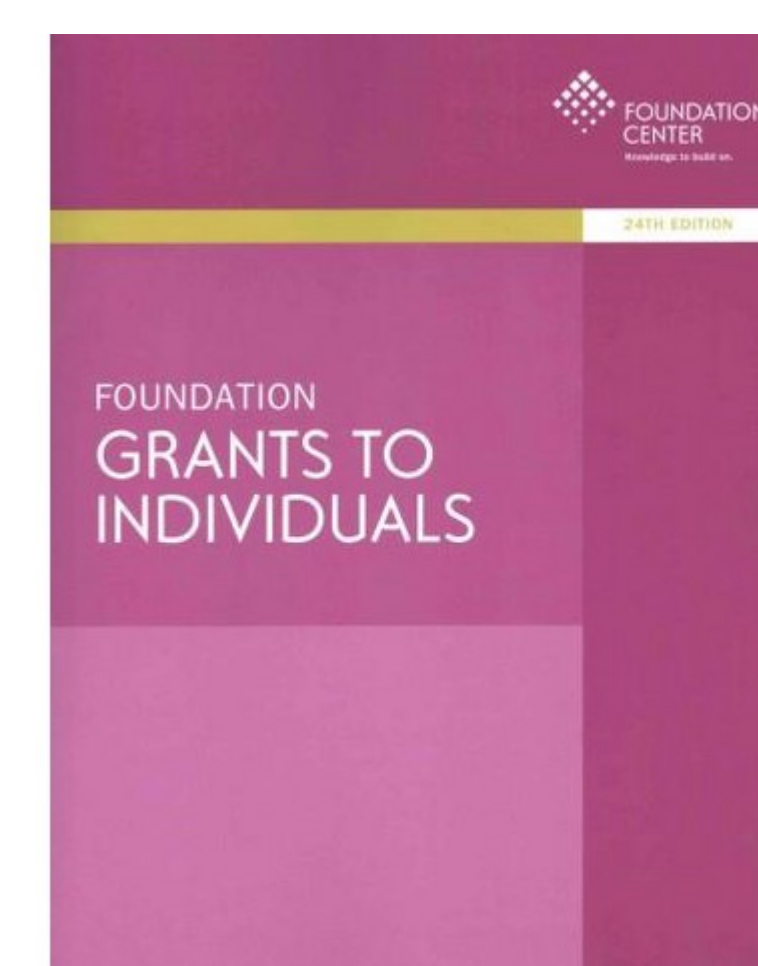

Foundation Directory Online

The Foundation Directory Online includes grantmaker profiles and available funding opportunities from industry, Non-US foundations, public charities.

Ask at the Service Desk for a librarian to log you in.

Books: Print & Electronic

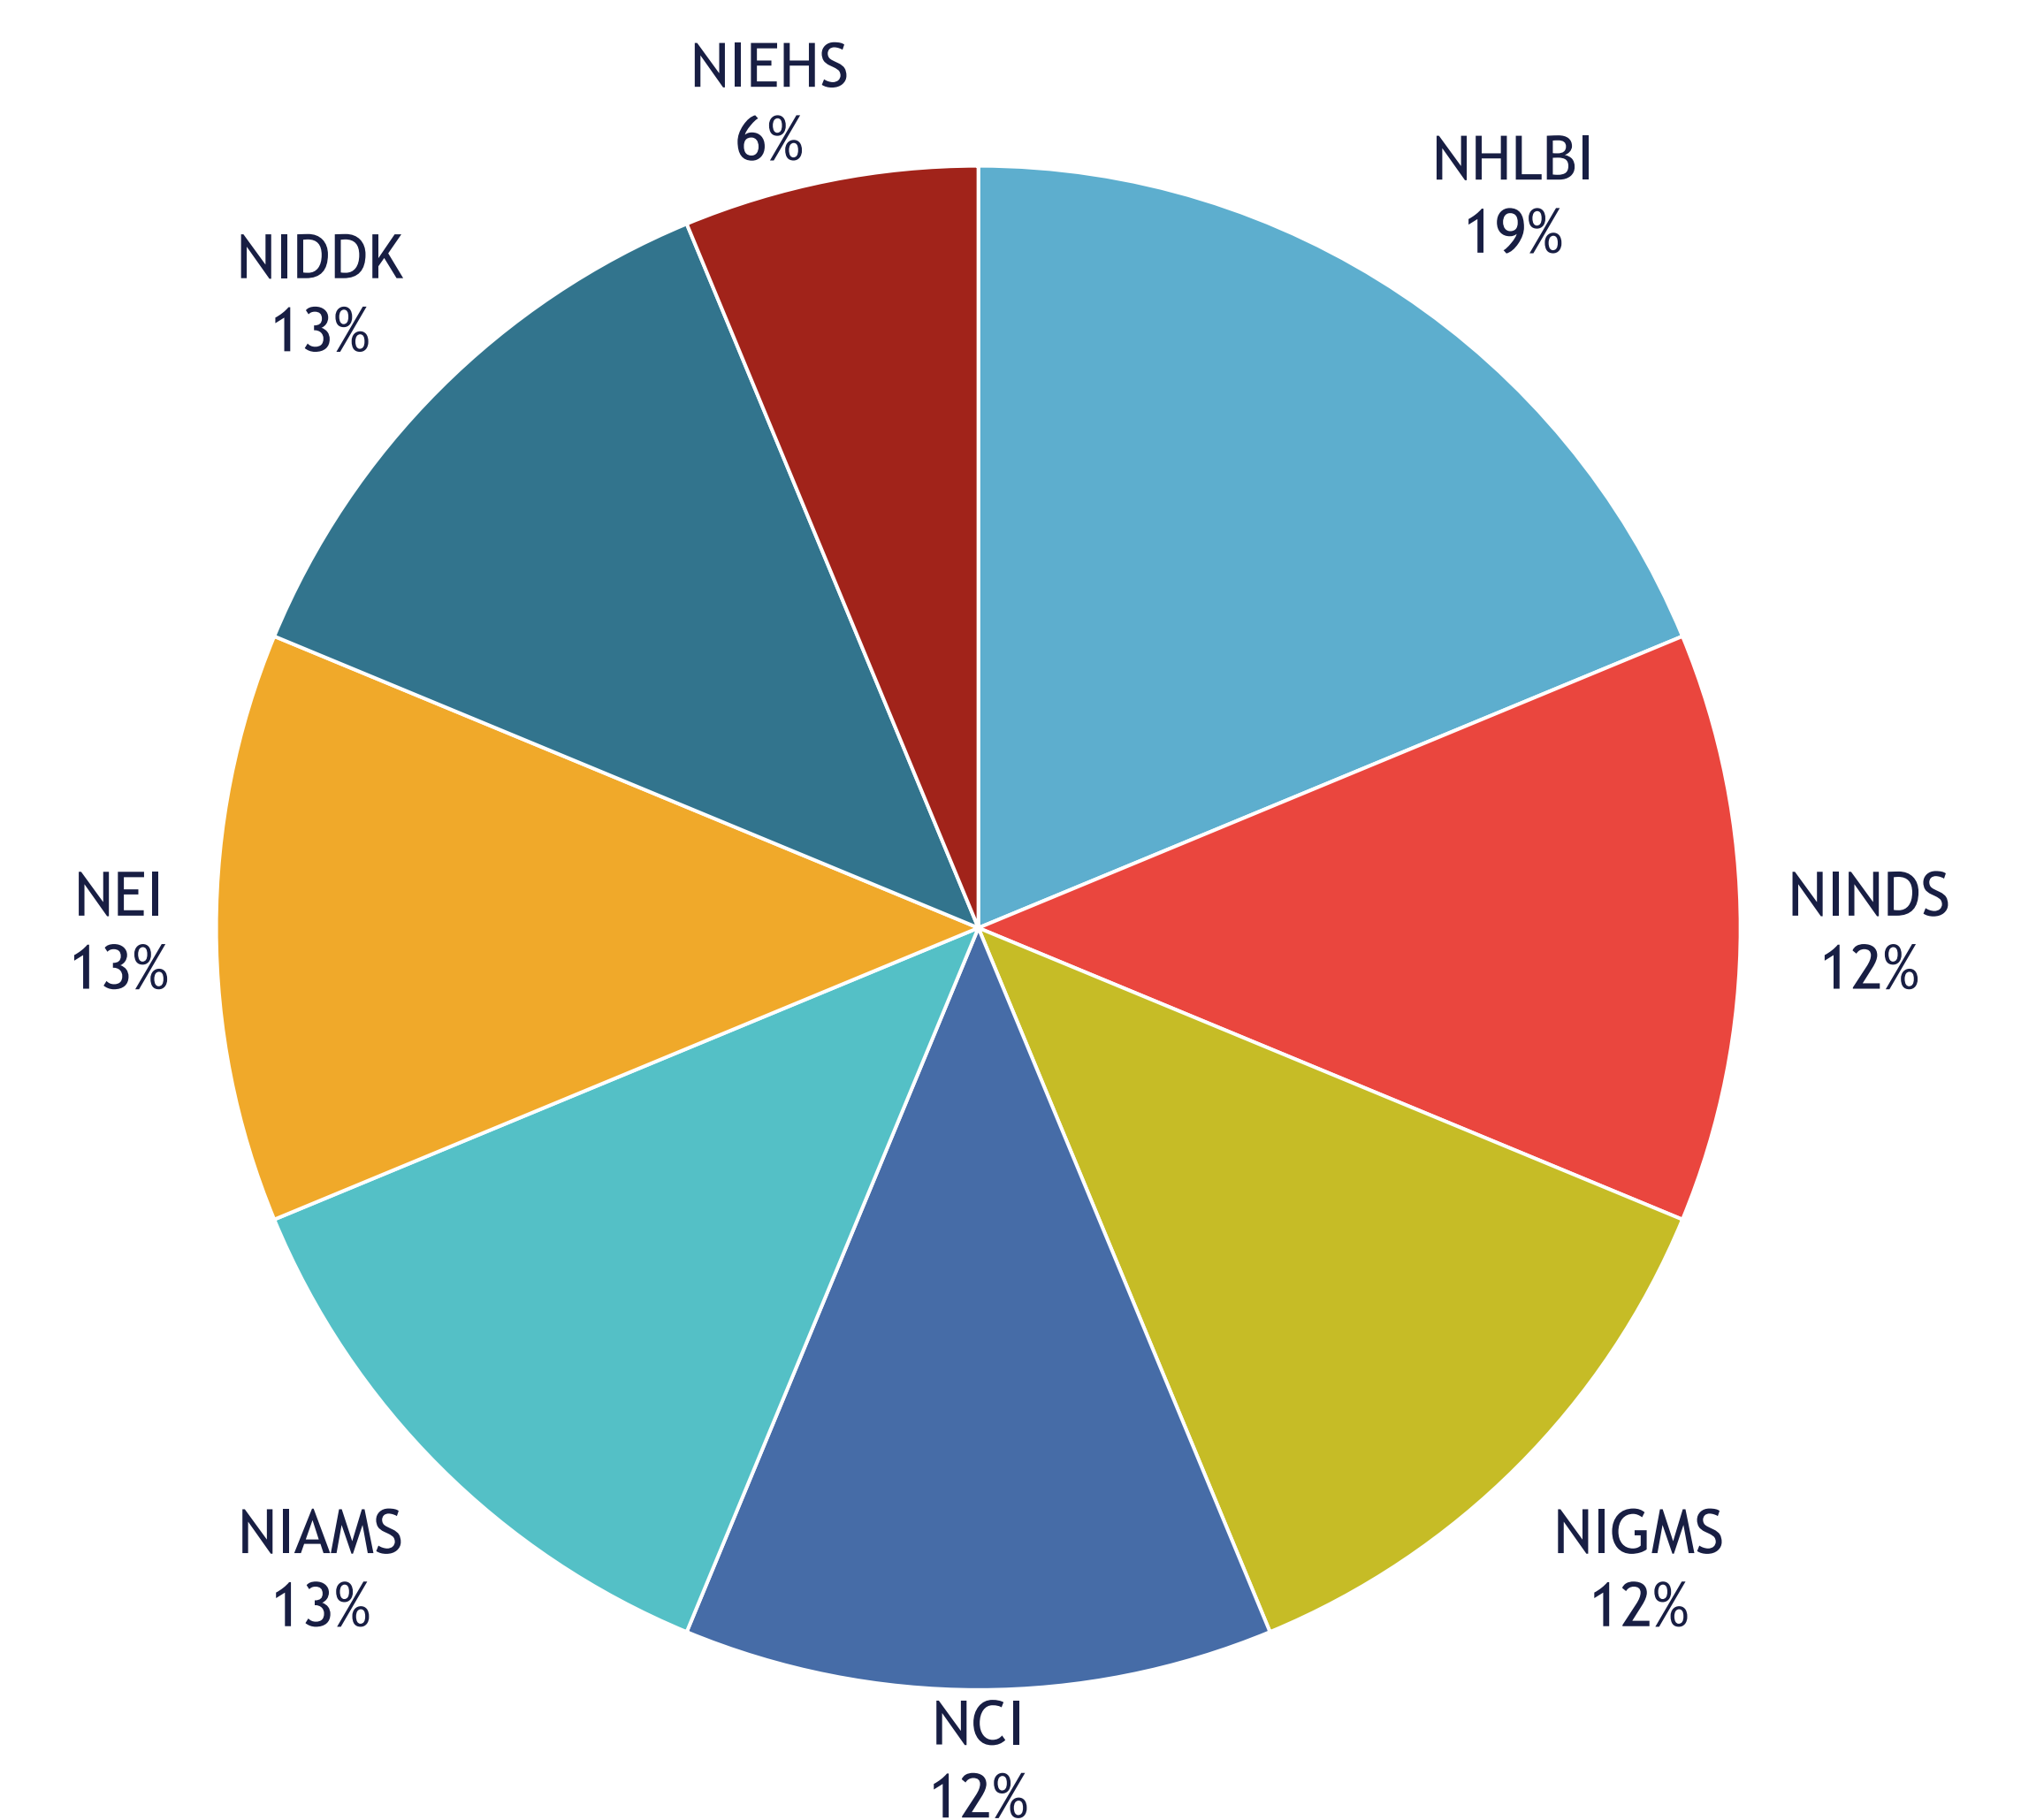

NIH Grant Resources

Free governmental resources help researchers identify potential NIH Institutes related to a topic.

In this example, searching mitochondrial disease in NIH RePORTER for Thomas Jefferson University Active Projects, yields 16 awarded grants.

Projects

Total=$5,989,775.00
Top Three NIH Funders: NHLBI, NEI, NIAMS
(Based on Money Awarded)

Administering Institute/Center	Projects	Total Funding	Sub Projects	Sub Project Funding
NHLBI	3	$1,301,853
NINDS	2	$682,500
NIGMS	2	$639,000
NCI	2	$545,816
NIAMS	2	$866,134
NEI	2	$1,055,343
NIDDK	2	$688,125
NIEHS	1	$211,004
Total	16	$5,989,775		