

Abstract

Jesuit college in Klatovy with adjoining Church of The Immaculate Conception of Virgin Mary and Saint Ignatius and grammar school is a remarkable baroque monument of southwestern Bohemia and in the past served as an important center of knowledge, even for the bordering german area. The complex is connected with significant names of many great writers and architects. This Bachelor's thesis focuses on describing the changes of the komplex, the artistic decoration, it's complicated history and the activity of Society of Jesus in Klatovy.