Trolley Car Trips.

1—Riverton Park on the Presumpscot River. Cars from Preble Street every fifteen minutes after 6.30 a. m. during Summer season. The most beautiful pleasure park in New England. All sorts of amusements—Rustic Theatre, Music, an elegant Casino and an unsurpassed Cafe. Electric launches, canoes and row boats on the river; vaudeville entertainments, afternoon and evening, free to car patrons. D. B. Smith, Manager. Distance, 6 miles; time, 33 minutes; fare, 10c. (one way).

2—Cape Cottage Park and Casino. The site of the once famous Cape Cottage is now a beautiful park with an unrivalled ocean view. Here is an attractive Casino with spacious piazzas, commanding the harbor entrance, the forts and upper islands. Shore dinners served in the Cafe at all hours. A cool and airy Theatre, with first-class entertainments, afternoon and evening, by a select stock company. Cars leave Monument Square every ten minutes, running via Cape Shore Road with its beautiful ocean scenery. Distance, 3 miles via Meeting House Hill route and 4½ miles via South Portland and Fort Preble; time, 30 and 40 minutes respectively; fare, one way, 10c., or 20c. round trip, including admission to theatre.

3—Falmouth Foreside, Underwood Spring, Casco Castle (Freeport), Brunswick, New Meadows Inn and Bath. Cars arrive and depart from Elm and Congress Sts., in northerly corner of Monument Square, passing over Tukey's Bridge, by the Marine Hospital, to the Underwood Spring. Beautiful, shaded slope, overlooking Casco Bay. A group of private cottages. This line passes near Prince's Point, a wonderfully beautiful spot for Summer outings; several boarding houses here. Yarmouth, a typical New England village, distance thirteen miles. Transfer to cars for Casco Castle (Special Shore Dinners), South Freeport and Brunswick, connecting with cars for Merry-Meeting Park, beyond Brunswick; also for New Meadows Inn (famous for its Shore Dinners), Bath and Lewiston. Distances, time, fares (one way): Underwood, 6½ miles, 35 minutes, 10c.; Broad Cove, 8½ miles, 46 minutes, 15c.; Yarmouth, 13 miles, 60 minutes, 20c.; Yarmouth to Brunswick, 15 miles, 60 minutes, 20c.

— THE LA MATICA —

A High Grade Porto Rican Cigar

Royals, 7c, 4 for 25c, $3.00 a box of 50. 5 other sizes

4—Old Orchard Beach, Saco and Biddeford by Trolley. Via Union Station and Vaughan's Bridge, passing the Country Club Golf Links, to Saco and Old Orchard every half hour. Excellent shore dinners at Dunstan's—at the "Wayland" or the "Moulton". Old Orchard, with adjoining beaches, makes a broad, unbroken sweep of snow-white sand for 16 miles. The finest bathing beach on the Atlantic Coast. Many large and first-class hotels and innumerable smaller ones and boarding houses. Distance, Old Orchard, 15½ miles; time, 65 minutes, fare, 20c. (one way). Saco, 17 miles. More facts, Trip No. 20, page 11; time tables, p. 9. Beginning of "all-trolley" trip to Boston.

5—Stroudwater Village. Terminus of car line, about four miles from City Hall. An historic old village, the stopping place for stage coaches and canal boats prior to railroads. A private canoe club on the river. Several of Portland's oldest houses still standing here. Distance, 4 miles; time, 30 minutes; fare, 5c. (one way).

6—Westbrook and Cumberland Mills. Car from Preble Street every quarter hour. In leaving the city via Brighton Ave. line the historic "Deering's Oaks" are seen. This is fast developing into a beautiful park. At Cumberland Mills are the Warren Paper Mills, the largest in the world; also other manufactories on the Presumpscot Water Power. Distance, 6½ miles; time, 35 minutes; fare, 10c. (one way).

7—The Windham Trip. Take cars from Preble St. 23 minutes after every hour; a fine ride by field and country roads. Now the nearest trolley point to Sebago Lake. Distance, 11 miles; time, 60 minutes; fare, 15c. (one way).

8—The Gorham Trip. A side line from Westbrook to Gorham Village, a distance of 3½ miles. Beautiful roads and farm-lands. Gorham State Normal School located here. Cars leave Preble St. 40 minutes past every hour. Distance from Portland, 10½ miles; time, 55 minutes; fare, 15c. (one way).

9—The North Deering Belt Line. Cars leave Elm Street waiting-room every thirty minutes, commencing at 6.44 a. m., and run via Congress Street to Union Station, Bradley's Corner, Stevens Avenue, to Morrill's and Allen's Corners, thence directly in over the new Tukey's Bridge to Congress Street, Portland. A car starts twelve minutes later from Elm Street waiting-room to make this trip in the opposite direction. The longest and most attractive continuous trolley trip entirely within the city limits. Round trip—distance, 9 miles; time, 60 minutes; fare, 10c.

HAY'S HAIR SAVER

Aids in Saving the Hair. Stops Dandruff

H. H. HAY SONS, 256-262 MIDDLE ST.

10—South Portland Heights Trip, returning via Cape Cottage. Leave Post Office via Middle, Congress and High Streets. Trolley to Town House. A picturesque walk over attractive road, down hill almost the entire way, by shore and cliff, for about two miles to Cape Cottage Park. Superb ocean views and vistas. Return either by Meeting House Hill or South Portland lines. See time tables, So. Portland Heights and Cape Cottage lines, pages 8 and 9.

11—Seeing Portland in Two Hours by Trolley. Congress Street Line, east, to Eastern Promenade and Fort Allen Park; good view of harbor; short walk to Observatory—birdseye view of city and Casco Bay. Congress Street Line back to Monument Square; free transfer to Spring Street Line, to Pine and Vaughan Streets; walk across Western Promenade to Bramhall Street (near Maine General Hospital); view of the White Mountains. Either Spring or Congress Street Line back to Oak Street for the JEFFERSON THEATRE, Free and Oak Streets. Regular season opens about the middle of August.

KEITH'S NEW THEATRE. Entrance by subway under Preble House. Performances at 2.30 and 8.15 daily (except Sunday) by a Stock Company. This is one of Keith's most attractive houses.

NEW PORTLAND THEATRE, Preble St. Vaudeville and Moving Pictures, afternoon and evening.

Some Buildings to Visit when Seeing Portland.

Wadsworth-Longfellow House, 487 Congress Street. Erected by Gen. Peleg Wadsworth, 1785-6. Home of Lieut. Henry Wadsworth. Birthplace of Com. Alex. S. Wadsworth, 1790. Home of Stephen Longfellow and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Maine Historical Society now occupies a new building in the rear, dedicated in February, 1907, the centennial of Longfellow's birth. Library free. Admission fees to the Longfellow Home are applied to this building fund.

Portland Society of Natural History, 22 Elm Street. The museum open to the public every week day, from 2 to 4 P. M. Admission free. A. H. Norton, Curator.

Portland Observatory, on Congress Street car line, Munjoy Hill. A sweeping view of thirty to forty miles both towards the beautiful White Mountains and the Casco Bay to the open ocean, with Portland at one's feet in the foreground.

(See pages 1 and 2 for other places of interest.)
