To the editor:

Are you concerned about such issues as reproductive freedom, the ERA, equal pay for equal work, rape, sexual harassment, and the recent conservative swing in American political thought? The UMO Women's center is a campus group that shares these concerns and provides a forum for action and discussion. We urge campus and community women and men to join us in our examination of these changing aspects of society.

In our effort to serve the campus and community, we have presented concerts of women's music, held a 3-day symposium on women which included over 20 workshops, brought films on a variety of issues, held a Rape Awareness Day, held bi-weekly potluck/discussion groups, published a newsletter, and continue to staff an office and resource center, including a library and extensive files on women's issues.

In order to continue our work at this level and expand into new areas, we need a variety of people, their ideas and their energies. We invite everyone to learn more about us by visiting our office or attending a weekly meeting, Thursdays; 3:45 p.m. in the Peabody Lounge of the Memorial Union. Come join us today!

(The UMO Women's Center is funded by the Student Government of the University of Maine at Orono and is located in the Senior Skull Room, 3rd floor, Memorial Union.
