June 28

Dear Anne,

The spring got away from me:
two graduations, three birthdays, a fifth wedding anniversary in the family alone.
I have retreated to Good Hart for R & R.

I was sorry, however, that I did not see you before I left. I would have loved to have your reaction to the U.S. J. piece. (I think I wouldn't have liked it if I were you)

I hope you have a good summer.
We will have to catch up in the fall.

My best to your brood.

Affectionately,
Mary
