

Hollins University

Hollins Digital Commons

Ann B. Hopkins Papers

Manuscript Collections

12-24-1988

Letter from John to Ann Hopkins, December 24, 1988

John

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.hollins.edu/hopkins-papers>

Recommended Citation

John, "Letter from John to Ann Hopkins, December 24, 1988" (1988). Ann B. Hopkins Papers. 111.
<https://digitalcommons.hollins.edu/hopkins-papers/111>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at Hollins Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ann B. Hopkins Papers by an authorized administrator of Hollins Digital Commons. For more information, please contact lvilelle@hollins.edu, millerjc@hollins.edu.

December 24, 1988

Dear Ann,

It has been a very long time since we have been in touch - over ten years! This is the season when I contemplate such things, and this is the year when I decided to do something about it.

I have tried to reach you from time to time. About eight years ago, I was working on a project in Washington, so I called information for your phone number. You were not listed, so I thought you had moved. Last year, I did get your number and I tried to call. You were not home. I was surprised you did not have an answering machine - but, then again, you always were an old fashioned type. And there were a few other meager attempts to reach you in between.

I have kept in close touch with Michael Rosen, though he still lives in San Francisco. We correspond and usually manage to get together at least once a year. Neither of us knows where anyone else from the "old gang" (CSC and/or CUC) are today.

Due to Lucile Rosen's legal connections, I became aware of your trials (literally) and tribulations. However, we thought it was all over with the Court of Appeals, and just recently found out about the Supreme Court.

That is why I have decided to write you, instead of call. You must be inundated with telephone calls. If you can possibly find the time, I would love to hear from you, or, better yet, get together somewhere, and catch up on things. I am very curious about your company, what you are up to, and how you are doing. I am sure there are many good things going on in your life, not all legal hassles.
(over)

This fall, Cher and I celebrated our 20th anniversary, still having great fun. We have moved a couple of ~~the~~ times. See the enclosed card for addresses and phone numbers.

Please give me a call, if you can. It is time we get back together.

Happy Holidays!
John