PRICE, 5 CENTS

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR OLD TIMERS' RETURN

Statement by President of Alumni
Athletic Club Gives Program
For Home-coming

EVERYONE WELCOME

The return cards are coming in for October 4, so we are looking forward to a big time. By the way, have you returned your card? If not, sign it and mail it Henry W. Mathieu, Trappe, Pa., this week.

Alumni, ex-students, and friends in the community are invited to join our club and participate in its affairs. Membership is therefore not limited to alumni alone and anyone with the Ursinus interests at heart, is welcome to join at once and remit the five dollars to Mr. Mathieu.

The Student Council has kindly consented to help us by putting up the decorations for the smoker, which will also be used for the dance afterwards. The Y. W. C. A. room in the Memorial Library will be a bright and cheery place for the ladies' affair.

After the close battle with Lehigh last Saturday, the Bears are confident of a good showing against Haverford. Arrangements have been made by which the World Series game will be broadcast at Patterson Field between halves and at other intervals when actual play is not taking place on our field.

And so everything will be readiness for the big day when you get back next Saturday. Don't fail us! Come in the morning if possible to see the Alumnae hockey team play the varsity and stay until the last strains of music have been played at the dance. Everybody out and let's pull together for Old Timers' Day.

E. B. MICHAEL.

STUDENT COUNCILS TO SPONSOR OLD TIMERS' HOP

Arrangements are coming along nicely for the first Student Council dance of the year which will be a feature of Old Timers' Day, next Saturday, Oct. 4. The committee in charge of which John Lentz '31 is chairman, is working to make this a real old timer as Ursinus dances are, and a hint of the general plan of the affair has been divulged.

Since the dance will follow the Alumni Athletic Club smoker in the gymnasium, the decorative scheme will be in line with this celebration. Class numerals will be placed on the walls with red, old gold and black dominating the other features of decoration.

Students and alumni alike will welcome the news that Madame Jo Keene's Rhythm Boys will be here again to furnish the syncopation as only they know how. The booking of this popular orchestra always brings a crowd, so get your dates early, and help to make this a real, peppy evening.

COACHING STAFF SPEAKS AT FIRST PEP MEETING

The first pep meeting of the year, held Thursday evening, September 25, was a decided success and promises good student support for the football season. In spite of the band's recent organization and little practice, nearly the entire group was on deck with their new leader, Harold Horn, directing.

Cheerleaders Hafer '31, Beddall '32, and Welsh '33 started the crowd on the old familiar yells and also taught a few new ones. Speeches were in order and those who responded were Coach Kichline, Mr. Van Why, Ass't Coach McAvoy, and Captain George McBath '31. All expressed their confidence in the team's strength and predicted a successful season in view of the prevailing spirit of the student body. Everyone joined in singing the campus song which was the final number.

VOICE PUPILS SUCCESSFUL IN ATWATER KENT CONTESTS

It will be of interest to Ursinus students to know that William "King" Saalman, '28, baritone soloist, has won the local Atwater Kent radio audition held in Atlantic City recently and will represent the district in the Fourth National Atwater Kent radio audition contest to be held October 4. Saalman when in college was the popular glee club and choir soloist.

Another former voice student at Ursinus Alton Peterman, of Pottstown, placed first in the district contest comprising this section of Pennsylvania and will sing in the state contest over station WFI October 4. Peterman will be remembered as being the guest soloist in the oratorio presented last Commencement. Miss Ella Keller, coloratura soprano, won first place in the contest for women and will also sing over station WFI.

Evelyn Glazier '32, a promising young soloist at Ursinus, was the runner up in the local contest and lacked only experience. Each contestant sings a number of his or her own choice and is known to the judges by an assigned number only, the identity of the winner being disclosed after the rendering of the decision. All four of these young people are voice students of Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine.

SHEEDER AND CARLETON TO TEACH BIBLE CLASSES

A department for college students has been organized in Trinity Sunday School opposite the campus. The students assemble in the main room of the Hendricks Memorial Building and participates with the Young People's and Adult Departments of the School in the devotional service. They occupy adjoining class rooms during the lesson period in which both the international lessons and general and special religious problems are taken up. The student work of the school is headed by Professor Franklin I. Sheeder. Charles A. Carleton of the Faculty will have charge of one of the sections. The lessons of the Quarter will open on next Sunday which is designated Rally Day. The hour is 9.30. Students of all denominations are welcome.

CHAPEL SPEAKER THURSDAY

Rev. R. S. Snyder, D. D. pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Utica, N. Y., will be the chapel speaker for October. Dr. Snyder has spent the past three months with a group of sociologists making studies in Russia. He will speak on his impressions of that country. The address will be delivered at the chapel service on Thursday, October 2. Visitors will be welcome.

COUNCIL ASKS CO-OPERATION OF STUDENT BODY

It has been reported to the Men's Student Council that once again there are thieves operating in the dormitories. During the past week, a considerable sum of money was taken from one of the rooms.

The Council is very anxious to stop this petty thieving, but cannot do so without the aid of the entire student body. In the past, the persons who had property stolen from them neglected to report their losses to the Council. Then too, students have been very careless about allowing money to lie around in their rooms and often times allowing their rooms to remain unlocked.

The Council is now making a plea for the co-operation of every student in the College. Each individual should in the first place safeguard his valuables and see that they are not strewn carelessly about the room. The College office maintains a safe in which the authorities will be glad to keep any valuables for the students. Again care should be taken to see that the dormitory rooms are always locked. Finally, when any losses are noticed, the offended students should immediately report their losses to the college authorities or to the Student Council. In that way these bodies may be able to find clues which would lead to the apprehension of the guilty party or parties.

It is only through this co-operation of the student body with the authorities that thieving can be stopped. The Student Council is asking each student to abide by the instructions listed above and to aid it in stamping out theft of all kinds.

ATHLETIC COUNCILORS

CHOSEN BY CLASSES

A meeting of the Girls' Athletic Council was held Tuesday noon, September 24th. The purpose of the meeting was to complete the election of council members.

Anne Connor '31 was elected captain of tennis and Margaret Swartz '32, tennis manager. The opportunities of further developing the hiking club were then discussed and Helen Green '31 was elected hiking chief.

This year something new is to be introduced during the hockey season, a junior varsity team. The purpose of this is not only to create more interest in hockey but also to give more girls an opportunity to play. In the near future, a jayvee manager will be appointed and several games scheduled.

Class representatives to the Council as elected during the past week are as follows:

Senior Helen Green
Junior Lois Strickler

BOOSTER COMMITTEES HAVE COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM

The Booster Committees, the men's headed by John Lentz, '31, and the girls' with Helen Green '31, as chairman, have organized an extensive campaign. Pep meetings, banners and the band are part of the program to keep the college spirit at its height.

Before every game a pep meeting will be held. Lively speeches will be delivered on these occasions, while the band will furnish the music. Colorful banners on the campus and at the girls' halls are designed to promote spirit.

Ursinus now has a real, live, peppy band! Mr. Harold Horn, an experienced band leader from Norristown, has taken charge of it. A collection was taken Thursday evening and the money will be used to purchase additional uniforms, music and two snare drums. Forty men have turned out for the band and will furnish music at all the home games. It is also probable that they will attend some of the contests on foreign fields.

The members of the Men's Booster Committee are: John Lentz, '31, Lloyd Myers, '31, Ted Moore, '31, Jesse Hafer, '31, and James Tucker, '32. The girls' Booster Committee consists of: Helen Green, '31, chairman, Vivian Davies, '32, Ruth Beddow, '32, Gladys Ulrich, '33, Vivian Washburn, '33, Beatrice Trattner, '32, and Anne Conner, '33.

DRAMATIC CLUB

PLANS REORGANIZATION

The Dramatic Club is in the midst of a reorganization program. A contest is open for the selection of a new name for the club. The committee under the leadership of R. C. Miller '31 is offering a prize of one dollar for the best name submitted before 11.45 p. m., Monday, September 29. Any student of Ursinus College is eligible to try his or her skill in choosing a name which will be borne by the Dramatic Club in the future.

On Friday evening, October 3, each of the lower three classes in College will put on a short play in the field cage auditorium. The Freshmen will sponsor "Sham." Beatrice Trattner '32, will coach them. The Sophomore play "Wurzel-flummery" will be coached by Edith Henderson '33. Eleanor Mengel '32 will assist the Juniors in their presentation of "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," a play by Sir James Barrie.

This year, membership in the Dramatic Club will really be an honor, for only students of merit will be accepted into membership. Rebecca Price '31, president of the club, is being assisted by the other officers, R. C. Miller '31, Lois Strickler '32, and Clarence Cunard '32, in the new enlargement program.

BEARS BOW TO LEHIGH 12-0 IN GRID OPENER

Penalties Give Brown and White Two Touchdowns in Second Period
To Capture Contest

GRIZZLY OFFENSE STRONG

A fighting Ursinus football team battled to the finish in an attempt to overcome the 12-0 lead gained by Lehigh, when they scored two touchdowns in the second quarter, but they were unsuccessful, and the Brown and White aggregation emerged victorious in their first home game. Penalties paved the way for Lehigh to register both touchdowns.

The Bear backfield, led by Don Sterner, who did some beautiful broken field running, aided by perfect interference, staged a powerful offensive attack in the second half, with a consecutive march of 66 yards down the field, which placed them only six yards from the goal line. Sterner started the attack with a substantial gain of seven yards thru left tackle. Miller went thru the same side for another gain of seven yards. Sterner unloosed a beautiful pass to Miller and registered a twenty-five yard gain for a first down. Soeder plunged thru the center of the line for five yards. Sterner reeled off two gains of five yards each thru the left side of the line. Soeder marched thru the same side for three yards. Again Sterner hit tackle for eight yards. On the next play Miller took the ball to the six yard line. Then the Bears fumbled within the shadows of the goal posts and a Brown and White lineman recovered. On the next play Halstead kicked to his own 36 yard line. The Bears, undaunted by their failure to score, started an aerial attack, but a Lehigh back intercepted a pass, and dashed to his own forty yard line where he fumbled, and Parunak recovered for Ursinus.

In this march down the field, Ursinus backs ran wild behind a line which time and again opened up huge

HOCKEY SEASON OPENS

OLD TIMERS' DAY

The prospects for a successful hockey season seem very encouraging. Quite a few freshmen have come here with interesting records along athletic lines. The daily practice indicates the enthusiasm of all the players. In the practice games, their eagerness makes the scrimmage interesting. This year there are Captain Heinly '31, Anne Connor '31, Esther Billet '32, "Toots" Wismer '32, and "Mickey" Stenger '32 left from the 1929 team, while Anne Ulrich '32, and Eleanor Petherbridge '32 saw plenty of action in their capacity as subs.

The season starts this Saturday in a tilt with the Alumnae. Up to the present, seven old timers have signified their intention to participate. All alumnae who wish to play are urged to send their names to Harriette Drysdale, Maples Hall, so that a definite number can be counted on.

The tentative hockey schedule for the season 1930 is as follows:
Oct. 4—Alumnae, home, 9.30 a. m.
Oct. 17—Phila. Normal, home, 3.30
Oct. 24—Glassboro Normal away
Oct. 29—Drexel home, 3.30 p. m.
Nov. 1—Beaver home, 10.30 a. m.
Nov. 14—Cedar Crest away
Nov. 21—Swarthmore away

POLITICAL COMPLICATIONS

For the first time in almost a decade there is some excitement in a Pennsylvania gubernatorial campaign. Usually an uneventful procedure, the candidacy of the free-lancing votegetter, Gifford Pinchot, and the attempts of the Democrat-Liberal coalition to make prohibition an issue are giving us a reminiscence of politics in the gay 'nineties.

In many respects it is an unusual campaign. For instance, we find Pinchot the irregular, upbraiding the Philadelphia machine for alleged disloyalty to the party ticket. Then there is the Liberal Party trying to make Pennsylvania wet by electing a governor who couldn't do anything if he were elected.

But the greatest curiosity in the whole campaign is the Philadelphia situation. Pinchot accuses the Vare machine of planning to bolt the party and support the Liberal candidate. Councilman Hall, Senator Salus, and the rest of the war board neither affirm nor deny this charge. As a matter of fact, we think that they don't know what to do. Certain it is, they don't like Pinchot. It was he who was instrumental in securing the rejection of Mr. Vare by the Senate. He is the determined foe of the utilities who supply the cash for the war board's activities. He has threatened to fire a Public Service Commission which is apparently ruled by the Philadelphia machine and the P. R. T. And he has denounced the peculiarities in political practice for which Philadelphia is noted, and told the world that the only safe hiding-place for a Philadelphia politician is behind a cork-screw. Mr. Hall and his associates were active in the support of Mr. Brown at the primaries. So active were they that on the flimsiest of technicalities they appealed an election case to the Supreme Court, where a favorable decision would have nominated Mr. Brown, but disfranchised 60,000 voters. Having met defeat in every quarter, they now sulk in their tents.

Our uninformed opinion is that the future of the Philadelphia organization depended on the nomination and election of Mr. Brown. We believe that he was so tied up with the gang, and they with P. R. T. and possibly other utilities, that his defeat was disastrous. They realize that the election of Mr. Pinchot would be a terrible set-back to their plans. He has told them that their support is expected, but will be rewarded, if at all, at its face value only. Pinchot in Harrisburg means trouble in City Hall. Mayor Mackey, the greatest opportunist in Philadelphia, has declared for Pinchot. Should Mr. Hall and his band climb on the wagon now, they would follow a man they are loath to recognize as any sort of leader. To stay off means to be branded as renegades by that same man. These are the complications, state and local, which face the wise men of Philadelphia.

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

TRAINS UNDER NEW COACH

The call for candidates for cross-country was announced early last week and practice was begun at once. A competent coach has been secured in the person of Dr. Ruben of Collegeville, who has volunteered his services. Dr. Ruben was graduated from McGill University, Montreal. He was a Canadian champ miler and a noted harrier, or cross-country runner.

Under Dr. Ruben's direction the experienced men have been running varying distances up to three miles, and the entire squad has been subjected to gradual workouts.

The first race is a triangular meet between Union College, Dickinson, and Ursinus, at Union, Schenectady, N. Y., on October 4. The course of this run will be six miles in length. The Conference meet will be held at Gettysburg on November 8, when Ursinus will make a bid for repossession of the cup. Manager Trauger and Captain Fertig report that meets are still pending with Susquehanna, Gettysburg, and F. and M.

There are 18 men reporting for the squad thus far but this list is temporary and partially incomplete. Two lettermen from last year are available, namely John Fertig '31, captain, and Ray Jamison, '32. George Clark '31, Scott Covert '32, Donald Dulaney '31, Clarke Sautter '33, and James Palm '33, are experienced men reporting. Other men from last year's squad are Walter Welsh '33, Henry Dembinski '31, Ben Souders '33, Gilbert Kugler '32, and Philip Costa '33. The list of recruits is not large but nevertheless some very promising prospects are out. They are: Austin Hill '33, John Werner '34, Dwight Gregory '34, Bernhardt Stabart, '34, Irvin Sutin '34, Dale Carlberg '34.

Members of the squad signed out for their equipment last Friday. Regular practices will continue daily at 4.00 p. m. starting from the Gym.

$500 PRIZE CONTEST

What Are the Greatest Dates in History?

Do you know who begat whom—and when and why? If you do, you are qualified to enter a historical contest, offering substantial cash prizes, announced by the Forum Magazine.

The idea is to pick the twelve most important events in the history of the world, give their correct dates, and tell why they ought to be regarded as the greatest dates in the calendar.

As a starter in this contest, the Forum is publishing three articles in its September, October, and November issues by Hendrick Willem van Loon, Will Durant, and H. G. Wells in which each of these famous outliners has listed the twelve dates which he thinks are the greatest, and has stated his reasons for thinking so. For the three best papers listing the most important events that van Loon, Durant, and Wells forgot or overlooked, the Forum will award a first prize of $250, a second prize of $150, and a third prize of $100.

Full details about the contest are printed in each of the Forum issues mentioned above. The magazine's announcement says that college students with a flair for history are particularly invited to compete for the prizes.

FROSH-SOPH TUG-OF-WAR

Wednesday afternoon witnessed the opening contest between the Sophomores and first-year men when the annual tug-of-war was held on the football practice field. By 4.30 o'clock a large crowd representing all classes had gathered and the fight was on.

The Sophomore team aided by superior weight and veteran knowledge of the tactics of the contest won easily in two pulls of two minutes each. Both times the Frosh were pulled nearly ten yards past the goal stake. By gaining a comfortable advantage at the outstart, then rooting themselves in their positions, the Sophs soon tired the Frosh so that toward the end of the two minutes another gain was easily obtained and held.

Due to a previous order by the Men's Student Council all fighting on the bell tower was prohibited so that this destructive custom was eliminated.

An interesting and unusual side-light offered amusement to many on-lookers when several girls, names withheld, attempted to make off with a piece of the rope after the Sophs had divided their coveted booty. But Elmer Morris rose to the occasion and gave a splendid exhibition of class loyalty.

"Jing" Johnson, '16, graduate manager of athletics, served as judge of the contest. Edwin Krall '31 acted as time-keeper. The members of the victorious Sophomore team in their order beginning with anchor man were: Steele, Ziccardi, Kraft, Snagg, Buchanan, Alspach, Slotterer, Brown, Weis and Welsh. The Frosh team consisted of: Briesch, Morrow, Baldwin, Schnebly, Yurgat, O'Donnell, Bown, Diskan, Tallis, and Davis.

FOREIGN RELATIONS

CLUB MEETS

The Foreign Relations Club met in Bomberger Hall at 7.30 p. m., Tuesday, September 23. Interesting plans were discussed concerning programs for future meetings. At the next meeting Dr. White is going to give a talk on her trip this summer and will supplement it with pictures which she took. Any one interested in joining the Club is urged to give his name either to Mr. Schuyler or Miss Drysdale at once.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Barnes wish to thank the students in Brodbeck and Curtis Halls who helped to raise the sum necessary for the purchase of a new vacuum sweeper to be used in the cleaning of the dormitory rooms. This is a fine piece of work and will result in increased benefits for the students in these two halls.

GAFF FROM THE GRIZZLY

It's up to you whether or not you believe this one—Dr. Price: "Aren't you anaemic?" Freshman: "No sir, I'm a German."

Up until the tug-of-war the gentlemen of '33 were the only ones against a "Bigger and Better Freshman" movement.

Apropos of the radio discussion, it is the consensus of opinion that a permit should be necessary for the privilege of studying instead of vice versa.

Oysters "R" in season. For full particulars apply 304 Curtis Hall.

And then there's the inexperienced Frosh who bids goodnight to his girlfriend at Freeland gate.

The Theatre

The fall announcements of the theatres should prove attractive to the season's lovers of drama. While humor seems to be the theme of the majority of presentations, there are several worth-while attractions for those who prefer the more serious pictures.

Musical comedies appear to be rare this season, but the Shubert presents a new one, "Girl Crazy," beginning on September 29. "The Street Singer" at the Forrest is still quite popular with its full Broadway cast and dancing chorus.

PHILADELPHIA
Mastbaum—Gloria Swanson in "What a Widow."
Stanley—"A Lady Surrenders" with Conrad Nagle and Genevieve Tobin.
Fox—Two Black Crows, Moran and Mack, in "Anybody's War."
Keith's—The Marx brothers in "Animal Crackers."
Boyd—Ann Harding in "Girl of the Golden West."
Earle—"The Squealer" with Davey Lee, Dorothy Revier, and Jack Holt.
Garrick—The Theatre Guild Inc., presents "Elizabeth, the Queen."

The Tower Window

THE Committee on the New Woman's Building appointed by the Directors of the College will make their appeal in a few weeks for the funds with which to erect this urgently needed addition to our equipment. A careful study of the field is being made with a view to an economical and effective presentation of the cause to the many friends who are already interested and to others whose interest will be sought.

At this juncture it will be the place for me to state a few of the more important reasons why Ursinus should have this building.

In the first place, Ursinus is a residential college. It is our policy to have all students who do not live at home to reside in college buildings and to take their meals in the college dining rooms. This policy needs no defense. Hundreds of our graduates will testify to its value, and other colleges are adopting the same policy all over the country. We cannot carry out our policy in this respect without additional dormitory space. At the present time there are 82 women students living in other than college buildings.

A second reason why Ursinus needs this building is because it is planned to provide an administrative and social center for the women's life of the institution. There is much to be said in favor of the cottage plan and it will be seen on examining the picture of the building presented in this issue, that we are not departing from the essential features of this plan. However, the cottage plan as we have it at present, provides no headquarters for women's life. The new building includes suitable living quarters and offices for the Dean of Women, suites for women teachers, preceptresses and other officers of administration. On the main floor are a lobby and parlors and downstairs is a large social room with a built-in stage for rehearsals and for entertainment purposes on social occasions. There are also service rooms such as girls need. Indeed, the building embodies the best ideas in modern women's building construction. It will be both home and headquarters for women students. Other units can be added or built near by as the future may require.

A third reason why Ursinus should be supplied with this building is the economic one. This year the College is paying out almost $10,000 in rentals for outside space, all of which could be applied to educational purposes if the young women for whom this space must be procured, could reside in college-owned dormitories. By building the new Woman's Building we gain two important ends—more convenient and salutary living accommodations for students, and improved educational facilities.

This building has been cherished as an ideal for years. The dream must now become a reality. May I not ask every one who reads these lines to take an active interest in the project. Subscriptions to the fund will be arranged on such terms that generous gifts will be possible to the larger and smaller contributors alike.

Remember that back of the beautiful structure will go on through generations to come the making of beautiful lives. Your gift will be a contribution to both. G. L. O.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The Freshman football team is rapidly being whipped into shape by Coach Van Why, in preparation for the opening tussle with Perkiomen on October 4. Although, at the present, no indication of the Cubs' strength can be determined, an unusually large number of experienced players auspiciously points to a successful season.

Practices for the past three days, in which Coach Van Why was aided by "Pep" Young and Johnny Lentz, have consisted mainly in fundamentals. The Frosh linemen showed an adeptness at blocking, which seemed to assure the team a strong forward wall. Several of the back-field candidates show promise of developing into fine ball carriers. The men displayed a willingness to practice hard, and under the tutelage of such competent coaches should have a winning team.

Ex-'33—Gloria Mac Namee is studying at the University of Pennsylvania.

Y. W. C. A. SING

The Y. W. C. A. held its initial get-together on Wednesday evening, September 24 in the form of a "sing." The crowd that assembled at Glenwood Memorial at 6.30 was unusually large for an affair of the kind. The usual prayer and Bible reading of Y. W. meetings was dispensed with and the singing entered upon at once. Several new songs were learned in the course of the "sing," which was closed with "Follow the Gleam" and The Campus Song. Ruth White '33 led the singing.

ALUMNI NOTES

'99—Rev. Walter E. Garrett, of Hellam, Pa., has recovered from a serious nervous collapse and is able to resume his work at the Kreutz Creek charge.

'15-'16—The Alumni department would enjoy writing some bits of news about you in the near future; that is, if you will write.

'20—Prof. John Myers of the Department of Religious Education, Catawba College, attended the religious conference sponsored by Dr. W. W. White of the Biblical Seminary of New York. The conference was held at Lake George, New York. Prof. Myers noted that all religious denominations were represented; altogether it was a noble experiment of people who have different religious conceptions, living together as Christian men.

'21—The engagement of Mary Crooks, of Norristown, to Clyde L. Swartz has been announced. Mr. Swartz is now employed by the Bell Telephone Company of Philadelphia.

'22—Margaret Bookman is instructor of English and director of dramatics in the Eisenhower High School in Norristown.

'18—Mr. and Mrs. Emlen Craft announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Justice, to Dr. J. Oscar Thomson on Saturday, the twenty-eighth of June, one thousand, nine hundred and thirty, Paak Hok Tung, Canton China.

'23—Arthur Fretz is director of music and an instructor in English in the Hamburg High School, Hamburg, Pa.

'23—Dr. E. Karl Houck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Houck, of Reading, and Caroline Barton McBlain, daughter of Mr. Walter McBlain, of York, Pa., were married Saturday, September 20, at 7.45 in the evening. Among the bride's attendants were Millicent Z. Xander '23 and Isabel Houck '29. Two of Dr. Houck's ushers were Leon C. Sauders '22, now a member of the faculty of Gettysburg College; and Eugene Michael '24, a member of the Ursinus College faculty.

'23—Irvin E. Neuroth, of Chambersburg, Pa., was elected instructor in the history department and leader of the band at Wilson High School, Easton, Pa.

'26 Mrs. Phebe M. Cornog has announced the marriage of her daughter Phebe and Mr. Donald M. Weiland, Saturday, September 20, at Old St. David's Church, Radnor, Pa. Mrs. Weiland was a graduate of Ursinus in the class of '26.

'27—Rev. C. Eugene Blum, who was ordained in Salem Reformed Church, York, Pa., has taken up his duties in the Reformed church, Shippenburg, Pa.

'28—Mildred Stibitz is associated with the reference department of the Dayton Public Library, Dayton, Ohio.

'28-'30—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Klein of Rahns, Pa., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beatrice May to Paul Stanley Krasley, of Royersford, Pa. Miss Klein, a member of the class of '30, is at present instructor of social studies at J. Horace Landis Consolidated School, Schwenksville. Mr. Krasley, '28, is an employe of the Fisk Tire Company, Omaha, Nebraska.

'29—Margaret Stocker is attending Drexel Library School, Philadelphia.

'29—May Grim is teaching at Trumbauersville, Pa.

'30-'31—At a luncheon and bridge given at the Lamons home, Cynwyd, Pa., the engagement of Grace Lamons '31 to Jacob Stacks '30 was formally announced.

'30—Robert Boyer is doing post-graduate work at Lafayette College where he is also an instructor in science.

'30—Claire Mac Namee is teaching Latin at Mt. Penn, Pa.

'30—Irene Zimmerman is substitute teacher at Shoemakersville, Pa.

'30—Isabel Rickley, a recent visitor on the campus, has been appointed substitute at Ocean City, N. J.

'30—Raye Ash will matriculate at the University of Pennsylvania next Friday, as a graduate student.

Ex-'32—Carolyn Bickel has transferred to the University of Pittsburg.

A KEYBOARD

FOR

EVERY LANGUAGE

EVERY PROFESSION

To typewrite the theses for your technical classes or the papers for your favorite language study would make school work a distinct pleasure, and improve its quality. Also, your notes and papers would be in shape to be preserved for future reference.

The catch lies in the fact that the ordinary typewriter does not make the characters of the language you are studying, nor the technical symbols peculiar to your profession.

At no extra cost, you can have your Remington PORTABLE equipped with the correct keyboard for your needs. Literally thousands of special keyboard arrangements have been designed for the Remington...one for every language and every profession.

holes. Don Sterner repeatedly escaped opposing tacklers, and flashed thru the line for lengthy gains. Hy Miller inaugurated his debut into the backfield with beautiful offensive and defensive work. Miller ran the ball like a veteran, and his tackling was hard and clean. Soeder played a steady game at fullback, making gains when yards were needed, while the whole backfield shone defensively.

The long gains made by the Grizzly ball carriers were made possible by beautifully formed interference. Three Lehigh men were placed on McBeth most of the time and yet, he broke thru to get his man. He was capably assisted on the left side of the line by George Allen and Egge. Allen opened up gaping holes in the enemy forward wall and repeatedly blocked the right tackle to aid Sterner in his long runs.

On the right side of the line, Ray Coble, played a great defensive game. More than once he spilled the interference and broke up Lehigh plays. Herb Levin, starting his first college game did some sterling tackling, and his all-around play was on a par with that of a veteran. Warren Hess started at right guard and played a good defensive game until replaced by Smeigh, who made his initial bow in college football, with some nice work on both the offense and defense. Julo played almost the entire game at center, and altho outweighed by his opponent, his defensive work was very commendable and his passing was flawless. Dotterer did most of the punting for the Bears and while he did the majority of it against the wind, it was excellent, as he averaged around forty-five yards.

Alvin Paul, one of the two Sophomores to start, and a great end on both the offense and defense was painfully injured in the first quarter, when he suffered a dislocation of the elbow, which will keep him on the bench for some time. Paul's absence will be keenly felt in the Bear line-up.

Lehigh was in possession of the ball most of the time during the first half. It was the second quarter which proved disastrous for Kichline's proteges, when the Bears were offside as Ware successfully kicked a field goal from the seven yard line. The men of Lehigh elected to take the penalty, and the ball was placed on the two-yard line. On the next play Halstead took the ball over for a touchdown. Captain McBeth elected to kick, and Lehigh ran the ball back to their own 37 yard line. They failed to gain thru the Ursinus line and punted. On this play the Bears were penalized 25 yards for clipping from the rear. This brought the ball to the one yard line and on the next play Ware smashed thru the line for Lehigh's second and last touchdown.

The Bears proved that they are a courageous and fighting eleven when they came back in the second half and played the Brown and White clan to a standstill. Ursinus registered eight first downs in this half, in comparison with two for Lehigh, and gained 73 yards from scrimmage to almost double the 43 yards gained by Lehigh. Any team which can make a stand like the Ursinus eleven did in that second half at Bethlehem on Saturday is bound to come thru against college teams in its class.

The Bears swing into action on the home field next Saturday when they will meet Haverford. The team's showing against Lehigh makes prospects for a Grizzly victory look bright. The game will begin at 2:30.

HISTORY OF WOMAN'S BUILDING CAMPAIGN

The first step toward the erection of a Woman's Building was taken by the girls of the college several years ago when they formed a Dorm Committee in the Women's Student Government Association and began accumulating funds for the new building. Soon afterward the Ursinus Woman's Club took up the cause as its major interest. For several years the Club has applied practically all of its income to this cause, and last year made a special effort through local committees to raise $5,000. In this they succeeded.

A little more than a year ago, the late Vice President of the College, Dr. J. M. S. Isenberg, began interesting friends of the institution in providing this new building. He was highly successful, and it is believed that, had he lived, he would have had the funds secured by this time. His sudden death on January 22 of the present year, occasioned a temporary setback.

At its meeting in June last, however, the Board of Directors took the matter up and resolved to make an appeal in the name of the College itself. The Board felt assured of the further help of the student body and of the Woman's Club. A committee of alumni to have charge of the campaign for funds was appointed as follows: T. A. Alspach, D. D., chairman, A. C. Thompson, D. D., Maurice Samson, D. D., W. S. Kerschner, D. D., David Lockart, Mabel Hobson Fretz and Rhea Duryea Johnson. President Geo. L. Omwake was asked to serve on the Committee, ex officio.

This Committee is now in charge of the movement. Several meetings have been held during the summer and fall and in a fortnight the active solicitation for subscriptions will begin. As a result of many preliminary interviews with friends of Ursinus the Committee feels confident that there will be a prompt and generous response to its appeal.

ALUMNI NOTES

'92.—The Rev. Howard H. Long, D. D., died at his home in Evans City, Pennsylvania, on Friday, September 24. The funeral was held Sunday. He was an active minister of the Reformed Church for thirty-four years, serving pastorates at Stone Church, Northampton county, Red Lion and Evans City. He was a loyal and enthusiastic alumnus. Ursinus conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1922. His son, Kenneth H. Long was graduated in 1924. Mrs. Long, who survives him, is a sister of Mrs. J. M. S. Isenberg.

'90.—The Rev. Paul Menges Spangler, a former minister at East Berlin, died at his home in Paxtang, Pa., following an illness of four months caused by pneumonia. Rev. Spangler was a graduate of the Ursinus School of Theology.

'26.—June was the month chosen by two well-known members of '26 for their weddings. On June 26 Margaret Ruth Ehly of Roxborough became the bride of Harry R. Fleming in Fourth Reformed Church. Some of Mrs. Fleming's attendants were Isabel Radcliffe '26, maid of honor, and Helen Walbert '26. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming will reside at West Mont, New Jersey.

The second '26 wedding was the marriage of Miss E. G. Dougherty to George W. R. Kirkpatrick. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick were members of the faculty of Berwyn High School for the past four years. Mr. Kirkpatrick has been elected principal of Marcus Hook Junior High School for this year.

People seen at random on the Lehigh campus but faithful to old Ursinus included: Margaret Stocker '28, Virginia Kressler '29, Elizabeth Howell '28, Mary Oberlin '29, Margaret Miller '27, Arthur Faust '28, Merritt Jeffers '29.

MANY PLACES OF HISTORIC NOTE NEAR COLLEGEVILLE

Three Revolutionary Battlefields
Within Twenty Miles of Campus

MANY OLD CHURCHES

Many Ursinus students are unaware of the many places of historic interest in the vicinity of Collegeville. A brief catalogue of these places for the benefit of those who may be interested follows:

Closest to Collegeville and one of the best known and best preserved, is the old Lutheran church in Trappe. This structure was built by the famous Dr. H. A. Muhlenberg in 1743. Hexagonal in shape, it stands today exactly as it did in the XVIII century. Buried in its church yard are Dr. Muhlenberg and his sons, General Peter Muhlenberg of the Revolutionary Army and Frederick A. Muhlenberg, several times speaker of the House of Representatives. Close by lie the remains of Governor Francis Rawn Shunk, the only man who ever resigned the governorship of this state.

Across the Perkiomen, in Evansburg, stands St. James Episcopal Church. The parish dates back to the beginning of the XVIII century, but the present church was erected about the middle of the last century. In the graveyard can be found some of the oldest tombstones in the neighborhood, in which are inscribed many curious epitaphs. Quite a number of Revolutionary soldiers are also buried here.

Farther down the Germantown Pike, at the foot of the hill below Fairview Village, is the Norriton Presbyterian Church, whose small stone building is said to have been erected in 1698.

Across the Perkiomen from Schwenskville stands Pennypacker's Mills, the headquarters of General Washington before the battle of Germantown. This estate was also the home of Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker. The whole region, in fact, was traversed several times by the Continental troops. Within twenty miles of Collegeville are the battle-grounds of Germantown, Barren Hill, and Warren Tavern and the sites of the Paoli Massacre and the skirmish at Matson's Ford. It was at Barren Hill that Lafayette escaped the loss of his command only by a brilliant rear-guard action.

The campground at Valley Forge, famous national shrine, is too well known to need description.

At Audubon, near the mouth of the Perkiomen, is Millgrove, the home of John James Audubon, who was America's greatest ornithologist. The mansion is now in the possession of the Wetherill family and is unfortunately closed to the public, but glimpses of it may be secured from nearby roads. Adjoining the Millgrove property are the remains of the old Ecton copper mines which were worked in the first half of the last century. A drift or two, a rubbish-choked shaft and a few ruined chimneys and buildings are all that remain of a once-flourishing industry. Across the highway from Millgrove stands the stately mansion occupied in Revolutionary times by George Vaux, who, it is said, had Howe to luncheon and Washington to dinner on the same day. The estate later passed into the hands of William Bakewell, whose daughter became the bride of her neighbor, Audubon.

Collegeville was first called Freeland. It drew its name from Freeland Seminary, forerunner of the Ursinus seminary and college. The Freeland Seminary was one of the first boarding schools in the State.
