URSINUS DELEGATES AT DEBATING CONVENTION

Ninth Annual Congress of Debating League Meets at Harrisburg, Saturday

TWENTY COLLEGES ATTEND

Ursinus College was represented at the ninth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Debating League held Saturday afternoon, October 11 in the Penn-Harris Hotel at Harrisburg. Representatives from twenty of the twenty-seven member colleges were in attendance. Delegates from Ursinus were Carolyn E. Ozias '31 and Grace Williams '31 from the Woman's Debating Club, Alfred C. Alspach '33 from the Men's Debating Club, and Prof. Harvey L. Carter, coach of debating for men. This meeting at Harrisburg is held every year for the purpose of arranging schedules, lists of judges, and select questions which will be agreeable to the member colleges for their use in the forensic season.

Dr. Thomas L. Cline, professor of English at Gettysburg College and president of the league, presided over the session. A report from the vice-president, Prof. George S. Wills of Western Maryland, was heard. Dr. Wills is chairman of the committee on judges. Following the report of the secretary-treasurer, Mr. Darrell D. Larsen of Franklin and Marshall, the committee on questions and other delegates to the conference conferred with each other concerning debate schedules. When the meeting reconvened, Prof. Harvey L. Carter of Ursinus College gave the report of

POVERTY DAY CELEBRATION FOR GETTYSBURG CONTEST

At a meeting held on Tuesday evening, October seventh, the Men's Student Council decided that the annual Poverty Day for Freshmen will be celebrated in conjunction with the Gettysburg game on November first. As in past years, the Freshmen will be required to dress in old clothing or in costumes which will be in harmony with the spirit of Poverty Day.

The Council has decided that the Freshman who shall be selected as the wearer of the most appropriate costume will be rewarded by having his regulations taken off for one week. Second prize shall entitle the winner to remove his dink and tie for one week. The judges selected for the contest are Albert Thompson '31, John Massey '32 and Alfred Alspach '33.

The matter of freshmen being absent from the first home football game was discussed at length. Because of the circumstances making it expedient for the Freshmen to absent themselves from the game, the Council decided to withhold punishment. In the future, however, the rule requiring freshmen attendance at all home football contests will be strictly enforced.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS MEET AT WILSON COLLEGE

The Association of College Presidents of Pennsylvania held its fall meeting at Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., on October 10. Applications for membership were received from Mount Saint Joseph's College, Chestnut Hill, Immaculata College, Immaculata, and Beaver College, Jenkintown. These institutions were found to meet the constitutional requirements and their presidents were admitted to the Association.

The Commission on the Pennsylvania Study of secondary and higher education presented a report through Dr. William S. Learned, secretary of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching by whom the study is being conducted, Dr. Learned with the assistance of Dr. Ben D. Wood of Columbia University, presented numerous charts showing significant results of the Sophomore examinations conducted in the colleges of the state last May.

At a meeting of local committees held today (October 13) at Harrisburg, a further study of the results of the Sophomore Examinations is being made. At this meeting, Ursinus is represented by Professors Tyson, Brownback and Clawson. Dr. Omwake attended the Presidents' meeting.

FATHER'S DAY SATURDAY

The day of the F. & M. game has been selected as Father's day at Ursinus, this coming Saturday, October 18. All fathers are cordially invited to visit the College and attend the game in the afternoon to which fathers will be admitted at the reduced price of $1.

No banquet will be served at the College but a chicken and waffle dinner will be served at Trinity church. In the evening at 8.00 the Senior class will present the play "The Thirteenth Chair" which has already won great praise.

COLLEGE BAND PROGRESSING UNDER CAPABLE LEADERS

Fifty Piece Outfit to be on Hand for Franklin and Marshall Game on Saturday

HAROLD HORN LEADER

Alumni and students are requested to take notice of the new and enlarged Ursinus band which will be on the field Saturday afternoon, October 18, at the F. & M. game. The band now numbers nearly fifty members with Maynard Hunter '31 acting as drum major and Harold Horn, of Collegeville, as leader. Mr. Horn has had a rather wide experience in band leading and in offering his services gratis he deserves the appreciation of the entire student body.

The band is now on a fairly firm financial basis, nearly one hundred and twenty dollars being already collected and promised contributions swelling the fund. The Athletic Council has pledged sixty dollars for general expenses besides providing for a trip to Swarthmore. After the Haverford game nearly twenty dollars was collected at the gate.

Managers Hafer '31 and Moore '31 report that after the F. & M. game money will be collected to enable the band to make a trip to Muhlenberg. All alumni and students are urged to contribute freely. The band with its lively music is a large factor in creating and sustaining lively college spirit and furnishes an excellent opportunity for the alumni to directly aid campus activities.

All members of the band are urged

BEARS PICKED TO WIN OVER F. & M., SATURDAY

When the Ursinus-Franklin and Marshall grid feud is renewed on Patterson Field October 18, the fighting Grizzlies should enter the fray favored to win the 26th annual football classic. The splendid showing made by the Bears against Haverford, coupled with the rather mediocre performance of the Lancaster institution, auspiciously points to an Ursinus victory.

For the past week Coaches Kichline and McAvoy have been grooming their charges for the contest. A lively scrimmage with the Freshman team on Wednesday most emphatically demonstrated that the offensive power shown against Haverford is not lacking. The yearling line was repeatedly ripped open by the efficient Bear linemen. Accurately tossed forward passes fell into the arms of 'varsity receivers. End runs gained substantial yardage. The Bears are capable of presenting a well-balanced attack, but passing should play an important part in the meleé.

RULES FOR RADIOS DRAWN UP BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Ban on Radios Reconsidered by Academic Council; Rules Expected to Eliminate Abuse

CO-OPERATION ASKED

Through the efforts of the Men's Student Council, the Academic Council has reconsidered its action in regard to radios, and has, in cooperation with the Student Council, formulated a set of rules which are printed below.

The Academic Council's ban on radios was the result of complaints made by certain students concerning the disturbance and confusion which have attended the use of radio sets in dormitory rooms in certain past cases. The Student Council brought to the Academic Council's notice the students' side of the case, and the resulting set of regulations are expected to eliminate the abuses of the past.

The cooperation of every student concerned is earnestly requested by the Student Council, inasmuch as the Academic Council has lifted its ban on radios only so long as the new rules are observed. In order that the majority of radio owners may not be deprived of their privileges by the actions of a certain few, the Student Council intends to enforce these rules to the letter. Every student will be expected to be acquainted with them.

Rules and Regulations for the Use of Radios

1. Radios are not to be played unduly loud so as to annoy occupants of other rooms. (Discretion to be in the hands of the Student Council Members).
2. No radios are to be played between the hours of 7.30 P. M. and 9.30 P. M. and between 12 o'clock midnight and noon of the following day.
3. Unnecessary grouping in one room is not to be tolerated and the students shall leave at the request of the owner of the radio or at the request of a Student Council member.
4. All radios are to be registered at the College office and with the Academic Council.

ENFORCEMENT:

1. All complaints are to be made to the Men's Student Council.
2. Anyone violating these rules shall first be warned and upon the second offense the Council shall recommend to the Academic Council the removal of the offender's radio.

These rules are not in force between 7.30 P. M. Friday and 7.30 P. M. Sunday.

COLUMBUS DISCUSSED AT VESPER SERVICES

Six o'clock Sunday evening found the usual group of followers gathered in the auditorium of Bomberger Hall for Vesper Services. Conducted by Clair Hubert '33, the service proved to be one of the most impressive of its kind. Because of Columbus, the leader devoted a short period of time to a eulogistic contemplation of that great man. The spirited poem, "Columbus," was read by Alfred Creager '33. The aim of the evening service was to uphold to us the indomitable faith and courage which led the discoverer of this continent to his haven. The greater part of the evening was spent in the singing of a delightful selection of songs, foremost among them our national anthem. Alfred Alspach '33 was at the console during the song service. The hymn "Abide with Me," followed by the benediction marked the termination of another enjoyable Vesper Service.

WILSON CELEBRATES SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Last week Wilson College celebrated its sixtieth anniversary. Wilson was incorporated by the State of Pennsylvania in March, 1869, just one month after the incorporation of Ursinus. The exercises included the dedication of a new recitation hall, and a pageant celebrating the Vergilian Bimillennium. The anniversary address was delivered by the Rev. Joseph R. Sizoo, D. D., of Washington, D. C.

FRESHMEN ATTEND ANNUAL BANQUET MONDAY EVENING

Lively Orchestra and Excellent Food Feature Social Affair at Hotel Adelphia

CLASS PRESIDENT SPEAKS

The annual Freshman banquet was held Monday evening, October 6, at the Adelphia Hotel Roof Garden in Philadelphia. Shortly after six o'clock, the Freshmen, arrayed in their most elaborate evening attire, set out for their southbound journey. Three large buses stopped for them in front of the Eger Gateway. Amid shouts of "Have a good time!" from upper classmen and showers of rice from Sophomores, they finally departed. The ride, according to the Freshmen, was extremely delightful both going and coming. They were very much surprised, upon arriving, to find that their president, William O'Donnell, was there (in good condition) to greet them. In spite of the Sophomores' desperate attempts to "kidnap" him, he had remained safe and sound under the care of the Adelphia Hotel authorities.

After everyone had assembled in the beautiful roof garden, the toast was given by A. Elmer Diskan, who enlivened the atmosphere with his very clever remarks. The banquet, consisting of roast Vermont turkey and all of Adelphia's best in accompaniment, was indeed one of the most enjoyable parts of the evening. Between courses, brief but interesting addresses were made by the Freshman president; Professors Sheeder and Brownback, who with their wives, served as chaperons of the evening; J. Wilbur Applegate, the Junior class president; and Evelyn Henricks, the Junior secretary. Their words of welcome and advice were greatly appreciated by all. And then, as Professor Sheeder suggested, "On with the dance" became the enthusiastic cry of all. It was after midnight when the dancing, all the more enjoyable because of an excellent orchestra, finally

MUSIC CLUB PRESENTS EXCELLENT PROGRAM

The vocal studio in Bomberger Hall was packed to capacity when the Music Club held its first meeting of the College year, last Tuesday evening, October 7. President John H. Sando '31 outlined the program for the coming year and thanked the members for their hearty support. A number of new students were elected to membership, bringing the total enrollment to more than a hundred. Miss Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine was guest of honor. Following the brief business session, the meeting was turned over to the competent committee which was composed of Violet Gwydish '31, chairman, Iris Lutz '33, Jane Bierbower '32, Donald Ottinger '32, and Jerome A. Wenner '33.

The entertainment consisted of a tenor solo by Donald Ottinger '32, accompanied by Helen Green '31; humorous reading by Harriet Kohler '31; original piano compositions, Ralph Sumpman '33; violin solo, Muriel Ingram '33 accompanied at the piano by Helen Green '31; "Harmonization," original music skit, Jeanette Baker '33 and Mildred Martin '33; cornet solo, Jerome A. Wenner '33 with Paul Wagner '32 at the piano; piano sol by Doris Wagner '32.

Following the program, the ever-popular refreshments, ice cream and pretzels, were served.

Displaying a brilliant brand of defensive football, and unleashing a powerful offensive which featured a brilliant aerial attack, Coach Kichline's Ursinus Grizzlies defeated Dickinson, 19 to 7, in the first Conference tilt of the year, on the loser's historic stamping grounds.

It was the first time the black jerseyed warriors of Ursinus came off that gridiron victorious since 1920. The Bears gave a superb demonstration of stellar football by outwitting and outplaying their conference rivals to score 3 touchdowns and an extra point. Ursinus also showed marked superiority in the number of first downs by scoring 21 to Dickinson's 7.

Coach Kichline started his entire second team, with the exception of Capt. McBath. The "shock troops" were in there for about 13 minutes of the first quarter. Two fumbles ruined their offensive attack, but without any doubt the most stirring and stubborn defensive stand of the current campaign was made by that team, when they held Dickinson for four downs on the Bears' one yard line. Four times a heavier Dickinson eleven charged against the Ursinus forward wall consisting of Egge and Thoroughgood at the wing positions, Heron and McBath at the tackles, Hallman and Hess at the guards, and Parunak at center, with Lodge and Scirica backing up the line, and four times that band of warriors stopped them in their footsteps, and the Bears took the ball on downs on their own six-inch line," and Lodge booted it out of danger on the next play.

With the first quarter just about completed, Coach Kichline sent his regulars galloping into the fray with Dotterer, Soeder, Sterner and Miller in the backfield. Costly fumbles prevented the Bears from scoring until about the middle of the second quarter, when Ursinus uncovered a startling aerial attack, completing passes ranging in distance from five to twenty.

URSINUS HARRIERS LOSE TO UNION COLLEGE

Ursinus Cross-Country runners were defeated by the Union College harriers 15-40 in a dual meet held at Schenectady, N. Y., last Saturday. Aussicker of Union was first to finish the six mile course in 36:30. Van Zile, Union, came in two minutes later. The other places were distributed as follows: Boerner, Capelle, and Holleran, all of Union; and Sautter, Jamison, Hill, Palm and Clark for Ursinus. Sautter ran a very fine race. Fertig, who was counted on for a high place, was handicapped by a very serious foot bruise. Despite this, he persevered to finish the course right behind his running mates.

Union College pays a great deal of attention to cross-country and always has a good team. Their record is two defeats in seven years.

PROGRESS

There are some on the campus who bemoaned the absence of stacking during the recent Freshman banquet, complaining that the spirit of the College is dying when what they call a tradition is allowed to pass uncelebrated. However, to any one who really thinks this change can but seem, as it is, a step forward in the history of our college life.

In the first place college spirit in its higher forms does not exhibit itself in childish upsetting of rooms or similar antics. A true spirit looks further and in so doing sees the actual harm that comes to a college as the result of such activities. Then, too, just because some tomfoolery recurs more or less regularly each year, it does not become a tradition. True traditions are built up from year to year, better things of college life.

The student body is to be congratulated and thanked for their attitude in this affair and for their co-operation with the Student Council in their effort to improve student life.

Having made this advancement the attention of the men of the College is called to another problem, that of the radio. Elsewhere in this issue appear the rules governing the use of radios in the dormitory. Every man must back this movement for the cooperation of all is needed in order to have a greater freedom for the group. We feel sure that the men's student body will respond equally as well to this challenge as they did to the other.

DR. STURGIS SPEAKER AT JOINT Y. MEETING

A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. was held in Bomberger, Wednesday evening, October 8, at 7.45, with Kenneth Alexander '31, Chairman of the Program Committee of the Y. M. C. A. in charge. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Sturgis.

The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn which was followed by the reading of the Scripture by Miriam Fissel '31, president of the Y. W. C. A. Prayer was offered by Kenneth Alexander. Following another hymn, Dr. Sturgis presented the group with a very interesting talk.

In his lecture the speaker linked Science with Christianity saying college students are passing through a transitional period, and are meeting those who are from different homes and of different opinions. This is a crucial period in spiritual development. One of the main questions in our minds today should be: "Are not spiritual values eternal and those things upon which we build our lives?" In conclusion Dr. Sturgis said there should be an honest reading of the Bible. The meeting closed with a hymn and benediction.

GROUP MEETING SCHEDULE

The dates and places for the group meetings have been set as follows:

- Tuesday, October 21
 - History-Social Science, Room 7;
 - Chemistry-Biology, Room 12;
 - Classics, Y. W. C. A. Room; Mathematics, Olevian.
- Thursday, October 23
 - Business Administration, Room 7;
 - English, Room 12; Modern Language, Y. W. C. A. Room.

NOTED LECTURER ON AIR

The Weekly has been requested to announce that Professor Stephen P. Duggan, director of The Institute of International Education, is delivering a series of radio addresses on the general topic of "Our Changing World," each Thursday evening at 6 p. m., E. S. T. There will be twelve speeches in all which come to the hearer over the Columbia Broadcasting System, the first of which was delivered last Thursday, October 9, on "England; The Passing of the Autocratic Tradition."

ALUMNI NOTES

'07—Harold Dean Steward is the very successful supervisor of schools in Newark, N. J.

'17-'20—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yost left last week for Pinehurst, North Carolina. They will spend the entire winter there.

'19—Wallace Savage is principal of the new million dollar Upper Darby Junior High School.

'20—Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Johnson are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Donald Harvey, October 3, 1930. Mrs. Johnson is the former Alma L. Fries.

'25—Ruth Kistler has just finished her work for a master's degree at Lehigh. Her thesis has been accepted and her master's degree will be formally conferred in June.

'25—Alice Berger is teaching in the Palmerton High School.

'26—Katherine Shipe is an instructor in the Reading High School.

'27—Marion Werner spent the summer touring the coast line from Boston Massachusetts, to Maine.

'27—Mildred Barth is secretary of the Binding Department of the N. Y. Life Insurance Company in Philadelphia.

ex-'32—Robert Miller and Hobart Clayton are now students at the University of Penna.

NOTICE CROSS COUNTRY MEN!

Dr. Rubin, cross country coach, orders that every man listed below and any additional men who are especially interested in distance running should report for practice at the Gym at 4:15 daily. It is necessary that all the men be there every day at the same time. The coach wishes to give the entire squad a daily systematic training and develop teamwork. This training is to prepare the squad and facilitate the selection of the team for the Conference meet at Gettysburg three weeks from next Saturday. Since all candidates are eligible for this race it is possible for Ursinus to send a strong team to the Conference meet and repossession of the cup is not an impossibility. The candidates who are requested to come out daily are: Capt. Fertig George Clark, Dale Carlberg D. Gregory, "Bunker" Hill, R. Jamison, J. Palm, C. Sautter, B. Stabart, I. Sutin, and W. Bown.

INTER-CLASS MEET HELD

Last Tuesday afternoon the cross-country squad staged an inter-class meet over the six mile Perkiomen course. The run was held to select the runners for the trip to Union College, October 11. Sutin, a very promising Freshman, won the race. Sautter and Fertig finished in easy form for close second. Fertig was bothered with a foot bruise but finished well in spite of it. Trailing them were Jamison and D. Gregory. In the last quarter mile Palm and Hill put on an interesting sprint. Altho handicapped by a sore ankle, Clarke took the next place. Ben Souders, who just joined the squad, finished well and Stabert, who is showing fine form, was unable to finish because of a sprained muscle. The classes were too unequally represented to compile any score. There were two Seniors, one Junior, four Sophs, and three Freshmen who ran.

SOME important anniversaries have been celebrated in the present century. Notable among these are the millenium of good King Alfred, not noticed so much in this country but well observed in England, the Shakesperean tercentenary, the six hundred years of Dante, the centennial of Beethoven, and the fifty years of Edison's incandescent lamp. To these we add another. Next Wednesday, October 15, 1930, we shall have reached the two thousandth anniversary of the birth of Publius Vergilius Maro, commonly know as Vergil.

In order that this country might do its share in paying honor to Vergil, the American Classical League has undertaken to sponsor and organize a nation-wide Vergilian Celebration that will extend through 1930-31. The celebration embraces various features and is being observed by such widely differing groups as the American Society of Arts and Letters and the National Grange. During the past summer there were conducted in the Mediterranean, Vergilian tours in which people visited the places made famous by Vergil. The lecturers on these tours were chosen from outstanding classical scholars and teachers from America and England.

Notwithstanding the opening words of the Aeneid:

"Arma virumque cano," Vergil was an apostle of peace. He differs from many other poets in that he never paints war as a glorious adventure but rather makes the reader feel its cruelty and injustice. He should be especially honored at this time when the nations of the world are seeking the ways of permanent peace.

That Vergil was a friend of the farmers will be understood only by those who are familiar with the purpose and nature of the Georgics. These are plain poems in which the joys of the simple life are magnified. He exalts the happiness of honest toil as found in the pursuits of the husbandman. In his day the people suffered deeply from economic depression following devastating wars. Farming was in a bad state as it is today. His songs in praise of agriculture were doubtless intended to bring comfort to the tillers of the soil of whom he in his boyhood was one.

As one writer points out, Vergil's Aeneid is the epic of the Pilgrim Fathers of the Roman Race." It is a tale of early exiles, who go forth, not knowing whither, but guided by fate and following the gleam. Through seven years of wanderings they make their way from ruined Troy to their new home on the sunny slopes of western Italy. The song is full of paternal and filial devotion.

Among the most important projects of the American Classical League in connection with the Vergilian Bimillennium is the promotion of extensive and intensive readings of Vergil's works either in Latin or in good English translations, and of books about Vergil. The Phi Beta Kappa Society is sponsoring addresses by its members in celebration of the event in American high schools. Unfortunately in many high schools Vergil has departed. At the same time he has been welcomed into the curricula of colleges. Such is the case at Ursinus.

Ere the anniversary year passes it behooves us to turn our attention in some form of celebration, to this "best poet of all the ages." G. L. O.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB MAKES PLANS FOR YEAR

The Men's Glee Club of Ursinus College has been reorganized for the coming year. Under the competent direction of Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine, who for the past eight seasons has conducted the Men's Glee Club, the organization has practiced and formulated plans for the annual tour. Much enthusiasm has been aroused and numerous favorable comments received.

The number of applicants up to the present time is greater than can be carried on trips and there will be much competition for positions. New music is being secured and the schedule of concerts arranged, including the first one to be held on November 1. All alumni or other persons desiring dates for the Glee Club should communicate with the manager, John H. Sando, Box No. 61, Ursinus College.

ex-'32—Viola Kennedy is also a student at the University of Penna.

DR. WHITE GIVES TALK ON CARIBBEAN TRIP

Dr. Elizabeth B. White gave an interesting, illustrated talk on Porto Rico and Santo Domingo at the meeting of the International Relations Club held in Bomberger last Wednesday evening. Post cards and photographs of her recent Caribbean trip were projected on the screen.

Graphic pictures of the coastline, el Morro castle, the governor's residence, the country side, typical huts, and the inhabitants were shown. This insular possession of the United States is very hilly and barren. The people are in a state of poverty, due to the rocky soil and overpopulation. The speaker reported the health situation to be in a serious state.

Santo Domingo, which Dr. White visited just previous to the late hurricane, was compared with Porto Rico. The photos represented this island as possessing much more vegetation than its neighbor. The inhabitants, before the recent storm, were more prosperous than the Porto Ricans. The pictures of the citadel; the cathedral in which the bones of Columbus, the first governor of the island, are supposed to rest; the residence of Diego Columbus, Christopher's son and also a governor; and the tree to which the discoverer of the New World is supposed to have tied up his ship, were of especial interest.

An appreciative audience completely filled Room 6. Gosta Schuyler, '31, presided.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for October 28, with South America as the topic of discussion. On Nov. 7, M. Pierre de Lanux, an authority on International affairs, the Director of the Paris Information Office of the League of Nations, will deliver a lecture.

WEEKLY TRYOUTS MEET

A meeting of the all the candidates for the Weekly was held on Tuesday, October 7, at 12.30 in Room 8 in Bomberger. Those who reported were: Matilda Umholtz '33, Mary Reider '32, Floyd Heller '33, Ruth Roth '34, Berhardt Stabert '34, Harry Pote '33, and Robert Warren '34. Members of the Staff were present and the Editor-in-Chief spoke to the new reporters about the organization and customs of the paper. He gave definite instructions as to when and where assignments would be given and the time allotted for their submittal. He also offered a few suggestions on the writing-up of news items. A list of the candidates was then taken prior to the posting of assignments later in the week.

Entries for the first semester's competition for the Weekly staff will close on Friday, October 17. Freshmen are particularly urged to compete. Persons desiring to try out will see the Editor-in-Chief in person in order to be placed on the list of candidates.

SISTERS MEET AT MAPLES

A very informal gathering of "Big and Little Sisters" was held at Maples Wednesday afternoon, October 8, from 3 to 5 p. m. in the form of a tea. Merle Williamson '31, Hall President, acted as hostess in welcoming everyone to join the circle and become better acquainted while tea and cakes were being served. Coreta Nagle '33 and Helen Green '31 entertained at the piano. The appropriate autumn decorations of the room and the informality of the party added to its enjoyment.

THE THRILL
lasts for days!

Those voices from Home will ring in your ears for days to come, and help to brighten up the longest lecture, or the dullest evening.

Make a telephone date with the folks at home, for a certain evening every week—and bring a touch of home to the campus.

It's easy to make the call—just give the Operator your home telephone number, and stay on the line.

It costs but little—and, if you like, charges may be reversed.

to attend the practice Wednesday evening at seven-thirty in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium. Only those faithfully attending the practices, pep meetings, and home games will be eligible to make the trips. If sufficient interest and faithfulness is shown by the members, credit for their services will be given by the College in some appropriate way.

ceased and the Freshmen, tired but happy, boarded the buses once again. The trip home was accompanied with ghastly visions of "pie-beds," ransacked closets, heart-rending interior decorating, etc. They were very much relieved, therefore, to return and find their rooms in excellent condition and the other Ursinus students peacefully at rest. With consciences at last at ease, they finally "turned in," thankful for the fact that the pre-Ursinus days of "after-banquet housecleaning" no longer exist.

the auditing committee. A discussion ensued concerning the ever increasing bank balance of the association and it was decided to use some of the money to send literature and interesting information concerning debating activities to member colleges. The report of the committee on questions was heard and adopted. The following were selected in the order named, the first to have the preference: (1) "Resolved: That nations should adopt a policy of free trade." (2) "Resolved: That the emergence of women from the home is deplorable." (3) "Resolved: That the states should enact laws providing for unemployment insurance." These questions will be used by all the colleges in the association during the year 1930-31. Officers for the coming year were elected: Dr. Herbert Wing of Dickinson, president; George S. Wells of Western Maryland, vice-president; D. D. Larsen of Franklin and Marshall, secretary-treasurer.

BEARS TRIUMPH OVER

DICKINSON, 19-7, SATURDAY

ty yards, with Dotterer throwing uncannily accurate passes to Miller, Coble, and Sterner. This sustained march, in which four straight forward passes were completed, brought the Bears to Dickinson's three-yard line, and after a line play thru center failed, Charlie Soeder leaped across the goal for the score.

Harry Miller, brilliant Ursinus back, was an outstanding star on the offense. Twice he carried the oval over the goal line, and many times he snared long passes for lengthy gains, or crashed through the line on line plays. The rest of the Ursinus gridders did their bit, and Soeder shared in the scoring, but Miller stood out of the fight like a man-mountain. Dotterer was another Ursinus back who loomed big in the Bears' brilliant aerial attack, with beautiful passing. His punting was of a high order, and his generalship was excellent thru-out the fray. Sterner displayed his usual brand of brilliant football, and altho he played an entire quarter with one eye completely closed, time and again he hit the Dickinson forward wall for substantial gains. Soeder was without doubt, the defensive star of the contest. Many times the powerful blonde fullback backed up the Ursinus forward wall with a brand of unbeatable defensive play.

Captain McBath's aggressive line was its usual self, impregnable in the defense, and opening gaping holes on the offense, whenever called upon. From end to end, Dickinson found a savage, unyielding line which was as strong as the proverbial stone wall.

Coach Griffith's Dickinson eleven came back in the third quarter to score a six-pointer and take the lead by making the extra point. It was not until the final period that the Bears, determined to score, started a march down the field, featuring an aerial offense, which resulted in two touchdowns in less than six minutes. The extra point was scored on the last touchdown on a pass, Dotterer to Frick.

The Bears were far superior thru-out the contest, but tough breaks prevented them from scoring in the first and third periods. Statistics show that the offense gained 208 yards from scrimmage, completed 15 out of 17 passes for a total of 169 yards, to stage one of the best offensive attacks of an Ursinus eleven since the days of that famous Varsity combination, Moyer to Jeffers.

In the past two games the Grizzlies have amassed a total of six touchdowns, as many as were scored in the whole 1929 season. They have won two games and lost one, an average of .666 and have tallied 39 points to 19 for the opponents. The next opponent is F. & M., who will be met on Patterson Field on Saturday next.

A KEYBOARD

FOR

EVERY LANGUAGE

EVERY PROFESSION

To typewrite the theses for your technical classes or the papers for your favorite language study would make school work a distinct pleasure, and improve its quality. Also, your notes and papers would be in shape to be preserved for future reference.

The catch lies in the fact that the ordinary typewriter does not make the characters of the language you are studying, nor the technical symbols peculiar to your profession.

At no extra cost, you can have your Remington PORTABLE equipped with the correct keyboard for your needs. Literally thousands of special keyboard arrangements have been designed for the Remington...one for every language and every profession.
