URSINUS WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS FIRST FALL REUNION

Fifteen Units Are Being Organized To Raise $5000 for Women's Dorm Fund Campaign by March 1930

MISS FERREE '14 HEADS COMM.

A new custom was inaugurated by the Ursinus Woman's Club when that group's first fall dinner was held on Saturday evening, October 12, in the college dining room. The meeting was called for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm and interesting the members in the winter project of the club, which is the raising of a considerable sum of money for the Ursinus Women's Dormitory. The club has already interested itself in the preliminary plans for this building and has helped materially in this work.

After an excellent dinner prepared and served by the college culinary department, Mrs. John Lentz, of Collegeville, assisted by a group of college girls led the club in singing some old-time songs.

Miss Florence Brooks, president of the Woman's Club, then introduced the speakers. Because of the purpose of the meeting—the building of the women's dormitory formed the theme for the speeches.

Dr. Omwake, who spoke first, mentioned the history and growth of the Woman's Club and of the College, showing how this growth makes the need for the new dormitory more pressing.

Dr. Isenberg told of experiences in his field work for the College, emphasizing the good that will come to both givers and receivers of donations for the construction of the women's building.

He was followed by Mr. E. S. Fretz, treasurer of the College who from wide experience discussed practical

"THE MAKER OF DREAMS" GIVEN SATURDAY NIGHT

Something different and most enjoyable as a means of week-end entertainment, arranged particularly for members of the Ursinus Woman's Club, was presented Saturday evening, October 12 in the gym under the direction of the Music and Dramatic Clubs. The first part of the performance consisted of several well chosen, and equally well presented, musical numbers. The program was: Polonaise Militaire—Chopin—piano duet, Doris Wagner '32 and Paul Wagner '32; When Winter Comes—vocal solo, Marion Kepler '32, accompanied by Helen Green '31; The Rosary—Nevin and Perfect Day—Bond—duet, musical saw and guitar—Harry Maurer '31, and Oscar Trauger '31; The Greatest Wish in the World—Del Riego—duet, Muriel Wayman '30, and Geraldine Ohl '30, accompanied by Doris Wagner '32.

The one-act play which followed served to fill entrance requirements into the Dramatic Club for a number of students. The players presented the delightful phantasy of G. Down, "The Maker of Dreams." The dainty Pierrette, longing for tangible happiness, was uselessly in love with the blithesome Pierrot making verses to his unknown lady, until the Maker of Dreams came by and turned Pierrot's fancies in the proper direction. So they lived happily ever after. The hero and heroine created living characters which were attractive centers of the play. The Maker of Dreams deserves special credit for his remarkably good performance with so little time for preparation. The cast: Pierrette, Iris Lutz '33; Pierrot, Walter Welsh '33; The Maker of Dreams, (Continued on page 4)

DR. WHITE ENTERTAINS WITH A "NEIGHBORHOOD TEA"

On Friday afternoon from three to five o'clock, Dr. White gave a very "mall and very delightful "Neighborhood Tea" at Shreiner to introduce the newer members of Ursinus, Mrs. Bone, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Cordry, Mrs. Care, Miss Mayberry, Miss Stibitz and Miss Holt. Mrs. Rauch assisted in receiving the guests. Doris Wagner, '32 provided much pleasant entertainment with three piano solos, "To a Wild Rose," Mac Dowell; "First Arabesque," Debussy; and "To a Water Lily," Mac Dowell. Evelyn Wetzel '30 charmingly sang three solos, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," Lieurance; "The Star," (A Fragment from Plato) Rogers; and "The Lilac Tree," Gartlan.

Dr. White was aided by Mrs. J. M. S. Isenberg who poured the tea, Miss Errett, Miss Stibitz, Margaret Smith '30, Shreiner Hall President and Iva Missimer '30, President of Olevian.

SUCCESSFUL FROSH BANQUET AT PENN A. C., OCTOBER 7

Escorted by Highway Patrolmen, 135 Freshmen and Their Guests Reach Phila. in Safety

HOSTAGES TELL OF ESCAPES

The Freshman class of '33 completely outwitted their traditional rivals, the Sophomores, by holding the time honored Freshman banquet, Monday, October 7, in the Penn Athletic Club, Philadelphia. The beautiful Locust Street ball room was the scene of the colorful event.

Escorted by state highway patrolmen, busses, loaded to capacity with chaperons, guests, and 135 buoyant Freshmen, arrived in Philadelphia at 6:45 p. m., ample time being allowed for the more playful members of the class to ride up and down the elevators.

Prof. and Mrs. Carter, Miss Errett, and Prof. Veatch attended the banquet as guests. Stanley Omwake, Junior class president, and Rhea Sell, secretary of the class of '31, accompanied the party as chaperons.

President John Frick, whose presence made the banquet a complete success, greeted the class and introduced two speakers. They were Walter Welsh and William Isenberg who had been held as hostages by the Sophomores. Mr. Welsh told of their confinement in a log cabin, north of Allentown, praising the fair treatment received at the hands of the Sophomores. Mr. Isenberg related the details of their escape from the cabin Sunday night. Chaplain Charles Livzey invoked the blessing. The banquet consisted of fruit cocktail, consommé, fried spring chicken, new peas, potatoes, demi-tasse, and ice cream, which needless to say, was eagerly consumed. Dinner music was furnished by Pat Riley's orchestra, always at its best. Dancing was enjoyed until 12:00, when to the lingering strains of the Campus Song, as played by the orchestra, chaperons, guests, and the Freshman class again boarded busses happy in the realization that the event, to which every Freshman looks forward to, had reached a successful termination.

To the banquet committee goes much of the credit for the success of the event. They are: John Kassab, Mary Brendle, Henry H. Harris, Wm. Isenberg and Edith Henderson.

The first of the annual series of vocal recitals given by Miss Hartestine's students will be presented on Wednesday afternoon, October 16, in the Vocal Studio. The hour for the recital is five o'clock. The concert is open to the student body.

Harry E. Paisley

H. E. PAISLEY TO HEAD STATE RELIGIOUS BODY

President of Board of Directors Elected President of Penna. State Sabbath School Association

STEELE ELECTED TREASURER

H. E. Paisley, President of the Board of Directors of Ursinus College, was elected president of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association at its annual convention at Williamsport, last week. Mr. Paisley is an elder in Trinity Reformed Church, Broad and Venango streets, Philadelphia, of which the Rev. Purd E. Deitz, '18, is pastor. He is the superintendent of the large and progressive Bible School of that congregation. He is connected officially with many religious and charitable organizations in the city. For many years he served as Treasurer of the State Sabbath School Association, and is well fitted in personality and experience for the post to which he has now been elected—a place honored in past years by such well-known Christian laymen as H. J. Heinz and John Wanamaker.

In business Mr. Paisley is Treasurer of the Reading Railway Company. He began as a boy in the offices of this Company and rose thru intermediate positions to his present high station.

He became a member of the Board of Directors of Ursinus in 1907, and since 1910 he has been president of the Board. His service to the College has been conspicuous, sponsoring many forward movements and strongly supporting the administration in every progressive step. His interest and ability may be expected to bear fruit in the work of Christian education throughout the state as he now takes the helm in the State Association.

Joseph M. Steele, another director of Ursinus, was elected to succeed Mr. Paisley as Treasurer of the State Sabbath School Association.

VARSLITY BEATS SECOND TEAM SUBBING FOR BEAVER

The girls' first hockey game scheduled with Beaver for Thursday afternoon, October 10, was postponed because of a misunderstanding on the opponent's part. The scrimmage was to begin at 3:30 p. m., and after waiting an hour, it was discovered that Beaver was expecting Ursinus at Jenkintown. As a referee had been secured and all the arrangements made, Coach Errett decided that the first and second teams should play.

The game which ensued was a spirited one. Both of the forward lines followed the ball closely, and were well supported by the backfield. Captain Lake was the outstanding player on the varsity. The second team also showed up well. However, the regulars proved their superiority by making five goals to the substitutes' one point.

Ursinus Holds Strong Delaware Eleven to 0-0 Tie in Third Game

Bears Keep Impenetrable Defense and Shove Mud-Hens Back for a Loss of Yardage on Saturday

DONALDSON AND JULO STAR IN QUICK LINE PLAYS

Accompanied by a group of supporters, the Ursinus grid machine traveled to Newark Saturday afternoon for a Columbus day battle with the University of Delaware and for the third time in as many starts was forced to accept a draw, the fray ending in a 0 to 0 deadlock. In spite of the warm weather and frequent injuries the game was an exciting one and was marked by a great many penalties and the extensive use of the forward pass as an offensive weapon.

Neither team was able to take advantage of their scoring opportunities when the time came. The Bears had two chances in the second half in which to tally but both times a 15 yd. penalty robbed them of their position. Once in the third quarter Ursinus marched from the 48 yd. line to the goal only to be shoved back by a penalty and again in the last period this was repeated. Delaware had an opportunity in the first part of the second half after a long run had brought the ball within a few yards of the goal. This, however, was thoroughly squelched by the Bears, who stopped all attempts.

WYOMING SEMINARY DEFEATS FRESHMAN GRIDDERS 25-0

Ursinus Team is Fast But Light; Continuous Supply of Wyoming Subs Wears Down Defense

YEARLINGS GAIN ON PUNTS

The bacon slipped from the Freshmen Cubs at Wyoming Seminary to the tune of 25 to 0, Saturday as the yearling team was completely stopped by their powerful opponents. From the start the Seminary eleven took the lead when DeNunzio, big halfback, scored the first touchdown after a few minutes of play. Fox added another six points to the Wyoming score as the first half ended.

The second half started with a spurt on the part of Ursinus, and for the greater part of the third period the playing was even. During this quarter the Freshmen played real football and gained much more ground on the opponents, but due to the continuous supply of substitutes could not keep up the pace with Wyoming. In the last quarter, Bailey scored on a forward pass and Seiple later skirted the end for a touchdown. In every instance, the kick for the extra point

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM LOSES TO LEHIGH TRACK MEN

The Lehigh University cross country team defeated Ursinus last Saturday, at Bethlehem, score 15 to 40. Prochtle and Chansler, both of Lehigh, tied for first place, running the 5 1-5 mile course in 30 minutes, 39 seconds. Engleman Newarth and McElroy, all of Lehigh, finished in order after the winners. Conner '33 ran well for Ursinus, placing sixth in 31 minutes, 54 seconds. Fertig '31 was seventh. Jamison '32, Palm '33, and Captain Davies '30, were the other scorers for Ursinus.

The Bethlehem course was one of hill and dale. The athletes first raced down a mountain side, on stony, rustic paths for over a mile, surrounded by dense woods. Emerging, they crossed a railroad, and followed the banks of a quiet stream on soft country roads. The finish was a gradual up-grade slope, and the final stretch passed thru a Columbus day celebration, crowds hearing the A's defeat the Cubs, and across Lehigh's campus to the gymnasium. Ursinus is preparing for the annual Conference cross country run to be held at Muhlenberg on October 26.

DR. OMWAKE TO MEET WITH EDUCATION COMMISSION

President Omwake, who is a member of the Commission in charge of the Pennsylvania Study of Education which is being sponsored jointly by the Association of College Presidents and the State Department of Education, will leave for Harrisburg this week to attend an important meeting of the Joint Commission. The work of the Commission became of such proportions that an endowed foundation having the services of experts to carry on the work as a major operation was needed. The task was outlined to the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching and that institution undertook the study.

Ursinus outplayed Delaware securing two-thirds of the first downs made. Especially was this so in the second half in which period the Newark crew lost more yardage from scrimmage than it gained.

The forward wall at starting consisted mostly of second string men if they may be called that. This line played a good game until replaced by the regulars in the form of a shock troop in the second quarter. Both lines played powerfully and Julo starting at center showed up exceptionally well.

In the back field Young played a beautiful game consistently making substantial gains. He was followed closely in his efforts by Sterner, Soeder and Conover all of whom helped present a stronger offensive than against Haverford.

Ursinus kicked off to Delaware to start the game the ball being put in play on the 40 yard line. Two thrusts at right tackle gained 2 yards and off-sides lost 5. Julo broke in and blocked and recovered a punt. Ursinus failed to gain at right tackle. Hunter's pass was incomplete and Sterner punted over the goal. Delaware with the ball on their 20 yard line made 2 yards thru left guard. Taylor broke loose for a 35 yard jaunt around left end. A fumble lost 17 yards and an illegal pass 5 more. Taylor punted to Sterner who returned it to the Ursinus 35 yard line. Ursinus fumbled and Delaware recovered to then gain 3 yards but a penalty lost 5. Ross went around right end for 1 yard. Taylor punted out of bounds on Ursinus' 20-yd. marker. Young failed to gain at end but made 4 yards at left guard. Sterner punted and Delaware returned it to her 45-yd. line. Two of

THE TRANSIENTS

There has always been a source of great annoyance to professors to be found in the persistence of the student habit of disappearing from the campus on Friday afternoon and appearing on Monday morning just in time for chapel and classes and quite unprepared. Students have been known to exist who established records for absence from college every week during the term. Perhaps such achievements are praiseworthy but in our humble opinion they should be severely condemned. The students who habitually leave college for week-end jaunts to their homes and elsewhere lose some of the best part of their college life. This can be ascertained very readily by a short examination of the losses resulting from this practice.

The week end is by far the best time in which to put on programs of groups, societies, and clubs. The extra time which is needed for the immediate preparations for entertainments and programs is available, and freedom from classwork affords a better atmosphere for the preparation. Too often functions held during the week in order that there may be a large attendance show the traces of insufficient preparation. This is generally caused by the demands of classroom work on the student's time, which demands of course must be complied with.

Secondly the week end is one of the best times in which to do outside reading in the library and to make up on back work or to do extra work. It affords time in sufficient periods for the student to write term papers or other papers that may be required. Work that otherwise is done in the wee small hours of the mornings during the week could be dispatched with ease and without such heroic methods if the weekend habit were abolished and such time devoted to study.

A third reason why students should stay on the campus over the week ends is a direct outcome of many students reason for not studying. They claim that the associations and friendships made in college are as valuable as the college training itself. And what better time could be found for the making and fostering such friendships. Associations and friendships do form one of the most pleasant parts of college life and every student should cultivate his friends. But it can't be done in the class room nor while studying. What better time is there to be found than the week-end?

RECOGNITION

In his statement to the student body at Chapel on Wednesday Dr. Omwake read the official statement of the College's position in regard to the formation of fraternities and student societies. The stand which the College authorities have taken for many years in this regard has not been altered. There can be no national fraternities at Ursinus. But as President Omwake pointed out societies may be formed on the campus for various purposes provided that they are approved by the faculty. This position is one of entire fairness and justice. The student body can not find fault with it in any way, for there must obviously be some control over all social organizations in the student body.

Under the conditions as they were stated by Dr. Omwake each organization must have its charter procedure, and purpose approved by the faculty and it must be at all times open to inspection. It is to be hoped that all the organizations already in existence which are included in this ruling will speedily take steps to be approved and end the rather anomalous position in which they now stand. The situation has been solved in a very logical and friendly way by the administration and the next step is in the hands of the students. The move to secure official recognition is one which each society should make. The matter cannot be put off indefinitely, and as a definite and practicable solution is offered no time should be wasted in making use of the opportunity. Recognition in the near future would give the members of these societies chance to hold social functions this semester, although that is not of course the main consideration. The wisdom of immediate action should be apparent.

Mr. Clarence H. Livingood '32 and Mr. David Weinraub '32 were elected to the Weekly staff as reporters at a recent meeting of the Executive Council. C. D. Y. '30.

WHILE TIME IS PASSING

Now that everyone is more or less reconciled to the routine of study and recitation, those moments begin to put forth themselves for which there is no definite plan or purpose. At times like these the urge to study is somewhat distant, and, having nothing else to do one seeks diversion. The Library is no place in which to have a gay time or carry on spirited discussions, the lobby, too, carries sound waves very well, but to use up those stray bits of leisure "browsing" is the most delightful occupation one can imagine. Reference books and magazine articles are interesting in their way. But to poke around the shelves and find a well written presentation of one's own particular interest is something pleasantly different.

For spending a very few moments, the magazine shelves are recommended as a source of an unlimited variety of material. College students who are seeking after the modern trend of thought will find lucid expositions of their own ideas and solutions to questions in such magazines as the Forum and Harpers. For the devotee of philosophical discussions, The Hibbert Journal and the Philosophical Review offer not too involved articles. The Economics students have a number of magazines and papers for their use. The Science Monthly, Scientific Monthly and Journal of Heredity have many unusual findings of the day. If one is attracted by unusual places, ancient lands and customs, or by the modern descendants of older regimes he may find in Asia or the National Geographic enough fascinating material for any length of time. There are on the shelves a number of magazines good but unfamiliar to many such as the Jewish Tribune, The Sports-woman the Nation, the Independent, New Republic, Figaro, and Das Deutsche Echo, Books are without equal as a means of entertainment. The best companions among them for brief periods of relaxation are the collections of short stories. But another type, not so generally known is the Anthology. In these one can find bits suited to any taste. The section of the shelves allotted to American Humor would be one of the most popular parts of the Library if everyone knew it. Even History can be made as interesting as fiction when written, for example, in the manner of Trevelyan. A surprising fact recently brought to light is that the Philosophy books are often quite the opposite from the traditional idea of dry, thick, and heavy materials.

This is written not so much as a supplement to Faculty pleas for reference reading, but in the hope of introducing to some a new source of ideas and entertainment.

PLUMBING AND HEATING

The Tower Window

DURING the past week the fiscal officers of the College have devoted themselves to the making of the budget for the coming year. This task always requires the utmost of understanding and judgment. The work has to be done with both eyes wide open. There is, on the one hand, the lure of opportunity — the desire to build up and advance, calling for increased allowances for this item and for that. There is, on the other, the restraint of limited resources. Each item must be dealt with in the wide view of the work as a whole and given its place in due proportion to every other item, with strict reference to available funds.

The budget allowances as well as the expenditures of past years are continually consulted. In many cases, however, the amount of money required depends on factors that have future reference. These, of course, can only be approximated. Fortunately, College having opened and the students for the year being registered, the income of the institution from all sources is quite definitely known. The determining influence is the actual money available.

A budget has been prepared for submission to the Finance Committee and to the Board of Directors by which bodies it may receive further alteration. On the whole, however, I believe it will commend itself. It provides for all departments with such means as will permit of full and efficient functioning. At the same time it will impose restraint on all expenditures. Only by strict economy in the purchase and use of materials can its provisions be adhered to.

After a budget has been adopted the next step is to administer it. The College's budget officer can sit in the watch tower and observe, he can caution and admonish but only by the cooperation of the whole College along the line of economy and conservation, can it be satisfactorily administered.

A college like this is not run for profit, but it should come out at the end of the year with a surplus and not with a deficit. I call upon all persons constituting our college household to work for a surplus by avoiding every unnecessary expenditure of money. Whatever surpluses are gained from year to year go into permanent improvements.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. turned out in force for its regular Wednesday night meeting, and was well repaid for attending. Men student non-members had also been invited and quite a few were there. The program was packed with interest, good sense, and fellowship. Blair Egge, '31, conducted the meeting and led the singing, which was made up of hymns very appropriate for the occasion. The vocal efforts, incidentally, were reinforced by the now-famous "Y" orchestra, consisting of Denny, '30, Thompson, '31, Lentz, '31, and Thoroughgood, '32. Coach Kichline led the responsive reading and Helffrich, '30, offered the prayer. An announcement was made referring to the Y. W.'s sandwich sale and Coach Kichline promptly warned his football men away. Rev. John Lentz, introduced as "The Spiritual Captain of Ursinus," was next presented. His short address was in the subject of "A Fighting Man," and St. Paul's valedictory "I have fought a good fight" was the theme. We were told that to fight is not only a human and masculine quality, but a commendable one as well, provided that the fight is for the right principle. The talk was put over in Rev. Lentz's usual vigorous style and made a deep impression. The group adjourned at 8 p. m., after singing one of the speaker's favorites, "The Little Brown Church in the Vale."

Dr. Isenberg was the Sunday preacher at the Perkiomen School, Pennsburg, on October 6th.

He opened the fall meetings of the Reformed Ministers of Philadelphia and vicinity, Monday, October 7th, with an address on "Observations and Impressions of Europe."

On Wednesday, Oct. 8, a son, William Ursinus Helffrich, 2nd, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Helffrich '21.

GAFF FROM THE GRIZZLY

When President Frick '33 emerged from his hiding place, in the Penn A. C., dark glasses, a cane, spats, and the fact that he walked with a limp, served as such an effective disguise that on one occasion he was passed unnoticed by Sophomores, while on the streets of Philadelphia.

What will the Sophomores think now that they know that the Freshman President was within their very grasp when he returned to Collegeville the following night after he had left, and was in Brodbeck Hall at four o'clock in the morning?

The mere handful of Sophomores who stood outside the Penn A. C. were formally introduced to the Freshman President and cordially invited to "try and get him."

The Sophomores unable to join the Freshmen, in riding the Penn A. C. elevators amused themselves at home rolling up and down Freeland path.

Alfred Alspach should have taken better care of "Zeb" Robbins after they emerged from the cornfield, in which the Sophomores deposited them. The doorman at the Club wasn't sure whether Robbins was a scarecrow or a Sophomore and wouldn't let him in.

Not even Stanley Omwake's eloquence could keep him from being kidnapped by the brutal Sophs. The State Police had to rescue the dear boy with a whistle.

Considering all the energy spent by the class of '32 to make last Monday's affair successful, it is a question whether it should be called the Freshman or Sophomore Banquet.

Grizzly hears that the Sophs are trying to collect the cost of the gasoline used in behalf of the Freshman president from the yearlings. They should also be paid for Earl Stibitz's loss of sleep. Union rates are a dollar an hour.

On being asked what entree was served at the Banquet the Freshman replied, "I don't know, we didn't have a register."

To prove that we have nothing against the Freshmen we quote this: Upperclasswoman, "Yes, I hope to go to South America." Other Upper C. W., being helpful, "Well, if he goes to the Philippines, you will be able to see each other quite often, won't you?"

When the Dream Maker told Pierrot that he should soon fall in love and feel his wings sprouting, it certainly was amusing for those in the back rows to see the self-conscious shoulder blades up front. Was that the reason for the stag line gluing its backs to the front of the stage after the performance?

MEN'S STUDENT ASSEMBLY HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Last Tuesday evening the Student Assembly held its first regular meeting in Room 12, Bomberger Hall, at 6:30 p. m. About 100 men were present.

The main purpose of the meeting was to ascertain the opinion of the students on the question, "Should Student Council members be policemen?"

Quite a bit of discussion followed the proposal of this question. Several students voiced the opinion that Student Council members should not be policemen, but that each individual student should hold it his duty to report all violations of Student Council rules. It was brought up that some students regarded this reporting as "tattling." The opinion was then expressed that a change in spirit was necessary. Several students at random, of those who had not previously spoken, were asked for their opinion, and all agreed that such reporting should not be looked down upon as tattling.

A motion that each member of the Student Assembly hold it his duty to report to the Student Council all violations of the Student Council rules was then formally introduced. The objection was raised that this allowed no leeway or discretion in reporting minor offenses in which the letter but not the spirit of the rules had been broken. After some discussion the motion was amended to read, ".....all violations of the spirit of the Student Council rules." The motion was passed in this form.

After further discussion the following motions were made seconded, and passed: "Motion that any man accusing another must be made to face accused person at the trial before the Student Council except in special cases at the discretion of the Student Council." "Motion that the Student Council be given the power to compel witnesses to appear."

After the assembly had adjourned copies of the Constitution of the Men's Student Assembly and Council, and copies of the Freshmen rules were distributed to the Freshmen.

WOMEN'S DEBATING CLUB DISCUSSES FRATERNITIES

The Women's Debating Club held their first meeting of the fall and winter season on Monday evening in Bomberger. Many interesting and novel innovations for making the meetings more unusual and varied were introduced; chief among them being the resolutions to hold the meetings at the various residence halls for women and to make them more informal in character.

The Constitution has been completely revised and was read to the assembled members. It proved itself very much more competent and concise than the one formerly used.

The Club decided to make the try-outs for the Varsity Debating Teams more informal than has been its custom in preceding seasons. Everyone will be given an equal opportunity and the teams will finally be chosen by a process of elimination.

Miss Evelyn Lake '30, and Miss Emily Roth '32 were received into active membership.

After the business end of the evening had been dispensed with the meeting was turned over to a spirited debate on the question, "Resolved that fraternities merit recognition at Ursinus." The affirmative team was composed of Dorothy Sanderson '31 and Isabel Rickley '30. Those upholding the negative side included, Katherine Clarke '31 and Alberta Jacobs '31.

Following the debate Dr. Barnard presented criticisms and suggestions which proved quite helpful to the speakers.

The meeting was then thrown open to discussion and much interest was manifested, nearly everybody taking part and voicing their opinions on the subject.

HENRY H. CRANE WILL SPEAK AT "Y" CONFERENCE

A number of Ursinus "Y" men are planning to attend the annual Y. M. C. A. Fall Student's Conference of Eastern Pennsylvania Colleges, which will be held this year at Reading on November 1, 2, 3.

Two outstanding contemporary leaders of American thought, Dr. Henry H. Crane of Scranton, and Dr. Daniel A. Poling, of New York City, will be featured in a program of addresses and discussions. Dr. Poling is the pastor of Marble Collegiate Presbyterian Church in New York, and Dr. Crane is minister of the Elm Park Methodist parish in Scranton. Both are talented and widely known speakers.

The theme of the conference will be, it is announced, "Jesus Christ and My Life." Aside from the addresses by Dr. Crane and Dr. Poling, the conference will be conducted largely by young men from the undergraduate ranks of the colleges. One of the special features of the program will be an open forum, led by Dr. Crane, which will follow his address on the first evening. Opportunity will be afforded, throughout the conference, for those attending to become intimately acquainted with both Dr. Poling and his distinguished fellow preacher.

The Conference will begin at 2 o'clock on Friday, and will continue through until noon Sunday, with a full day program scheduled for Saturday. The Saturday program includes the annual banquet at 6 o'clock in the evening, preceded by a football game at 2.30. Paul Meng and Dr. Poling will address the banquet. The Saturday and Sunday roster will be begun by a brief morning watch service.

It is anticipated that over two hundred delegates will attend. If this number is reached, it will be the largest registration in the history of the conference. An invitation to attend is being extended to all college men.

WHILE Yale and Princeton were battling to a tie at Hoboken, New Jersey, a small group of scientists, directed by Thomas A. Edison, was busy at Menlo Park, only a few miles away. On October 21, their work resulted in the first practical incandescent lamp.

Few realized what fifty years would mean to both electric lighting and football. The handful who watched Yale and Princeton then has grown to tens of thousands to-day. And the lamp that glowed for forty hours in Edison's little laboratory made possible to-day's billions of candle power of electric light. In honor of the pioneer achievement, and of lighting progress, the nation this year observes Light's Golden Jubilee.

Much of this progress in lighting has been the achievement of college-trained men employed by General Electric.

URSINUS HOLDS DELAWARE FOR THIRD TIE SCORE

Tunnel's efforts at center were stopped but a running forward pass gained 9. After another 5 yard penalty Taylor made it first down. A line play and a reverse gained nothing. A blocked pass fell into Delaware hands for 6 yards but the ball was lost on downs. Conover went through center for a yard. Sterner's pass to Egge was incomplete and Don punted to Delaware's 35 yard line. Craig lost 3 at right end and a fumble lost 2. Taylor punted as the quarter ended.

Ursinus with the ball on their 20-yd. line tried a line plunge and failed. Sterner skirted end for a yard and then punted to Haggerty who was downed on the Delaware 45 yd. stripe. Two plays at center and one at left tackle totaled 8 yards. Taylor punted over the goal. Starting on the 20 yd. line Young and Conover made 5 and 4 yards respectively, thru right guard and Sterner hit center for a first down. Conover plowed through center for a yard. At this point Coble, Miller, Black, Allen and McBath entered the game. Young went around left end for a first down. Sterner made a yard at right guard and Souder 4. Three yards were lost at end and Sterner punted to Ross who was stopped on his 35 yard mark. After a plunge failed Taylor punted out of bounds on the Ursinus 40 yd. line. Soeder went through the right side of the line for 5 yards but on the next play the ball was lost on a fumble. Delaware kicked out of bounds on the Bears' 30 yd. line after Craig was stopped at tackle and two passes were incomplete. Conover gained 4 yards through right tackle and one at the other end. Sterner's pass bounced off a player's back into a Delaware player's arms. Taylor made a yard thru guard and two incomplete passes with the penalty followed. Taylor's punt was returned by one from Sterner which went out on the 40 yd. line. Delaware fumbled and recovered. Two passes Taylor to Hopkins went for a first down. Another pass was intercepted by Coble and the half was over.

Ursinus again kicked off, the Delaware man being stopped on his 30 yd. line. Tunnel hit guard and center to gain 3 yards and Taylor punted. After an end run Sterner kicked out on the Delaware 21 yard line. Craig was thrown for a loss but Taylor made first down around right end. A line plunge at right guard was stopped dead. Young returned Taylor's punt to the Delaware 48 yd. line. Here the Bears started a drive toward the goal. Young made a yard at left tackle and Soeder 6 thru right guard, and Conover made it first down. Soeder hit center for a 5 yd. gain. Young secured another first down off tackle putting the ball in scoring distance but a 15 yd. penalty upset plans, nevertheless Young got 5 more thru guard. Sterner's pass was intercepted by Taylor who came down on the Ursinus 40 yd. line. Two line plays gained little for Delaware, but a pass to Ross brought the ball within a few yards of the goal. An attempt to pierce left guard was hopeless. Taylor was thrown for a loss on a reverse play and Tunnel was stopped at center. Taylor again lost on an end run thus ending Delaware's sole threat. Ursinus punted out of danger. After Craig and Tunnel failed to gain, Taylor punted over the goal line. Conover lost a yard at left guard but made it up at tackle. Sterner punted to the Delaware 38 yard line when the ball was downed. Craig lost a yard as did Ross and Taylor punted to Young who was stopped on the Ursinus 41 yard line as the quarter ended.

Young started by tearing around end for 20 yards. Conover lost a yard at left tackle but made 2 at right. A pass Sterner to Coble was grounded and Ursinus punted over the goal. Delaware returned the punt on the first down, Ursinus getting the ball on the 38 yard line. Soeder was stopped but Sterner made 9 yards around end. Soeder made it first down in 2 plunges. Young in one run made another. Conover hit left guard for 2 and Young did the same for 4. Again near the goal a 15 yd. penalty removed the chance of scoring. Craig removed any doubt by intercepting a pass. Taylor kicked to Young who ended up on Delaware's 49 yard line. Here came another penalty one for 25 yds. Sterner failed to gain thru center and his pass was grounded. Conover gained 4 yds. thru center and the ball was lost on downs. Delaware's fumble was recovered by Coble. Conover and Sterner could not gain and Sterner punted. Delaware lost a yard on two plunges and punted. Ursinus fumbled and recovered. A pass was intercepted by Warren. Delaware lost 5 yds on a penalty. A blocked pass was nabbed by Julo. Young failed to gain thru center and Hunter's blocked pass was jointly caught by Soeder and Julo. A pass Hunter to Young netted 6 yards. Dotterer punted and the game ended.

ALUMNI NOTES

Rev. Norman S. Greenawalt, '22, of Saxton, Pa., and Miss Norma Ethel Meyer, of Toledo, Ohio, were married in the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church, Toledo, on Tuesday afternoon, October 8, at half after four o'clock. Mr. Greenawalt spent the past two years in study at Boston University where he was awarded the degree of Master of Arts in June. Miss Meyer likewise spent several years in graduate study in Boston University where she specialized in Religious Education. Mr. and Mrs. Greenawalt will live at Saxton, Pa.

Miriam Ehret, '27, is coach of debating and teacher of English at the Nazareth High School, Nazareth, Pa. Miss Harriet Smith, '23, has been appointed teacher of English in Miyagi College, Sendai, Japan.

ways of raising the necessary money for the completion of this project.

A graduate of Ursinus, Miss Katherine La Rose, who is now head of the French department at Cedar Crest College, spoke of the bond between this college and Ursinus. She also dwelt on the expansion program just carried out at Cedar Crest and ways in which it was promoted.

A fitting close to the after dinner speeches was provided by Dr. White who showed why every member of the club should be interested in urging young women to come to Ursinus and providing well for them when they come.

The chairmen of the various committees of the club gave brief outlines of the year's work. Miss Helen Ferree, the finance chairman, stated that there are fifteen units in connection with the club, each of which was given an allotted amount to raise before March 1. It is the plan of the Club to give $5,000 to the Dormitory Committee by March 1930. Following the reports the meeting ended with the singing of the Campus Song. Credit for the success of the meeting is largely due to Mrs. E. S. Fretz, who spared neither time nor effort in its preparation.

Mrs. Rauch and Mrs. Cordy were most gracious chaperones for the informal dance which followed to the music of a number of radio orchestras. Proceeds from the entertainment in excess of expenses will be given to the Woman's Dormitory Fund.

was blocked, but on one occasion, an Ursinus lineman was detected offside and the point awarded to the opponents. Passing was a great help to Wyoming. Time and time again the Blue and White made substantial gains thru passing. The local team was weak on the defensive, especially on the line. The yearlings had a decided edge on the punts. Not only were the kicks longer but the ends often smothered the receiver in his tracks. Wyoming scored 18 first downs to the Freshmen's 5.

Next week Coach Schell's proteges will journey to Philadelphia to play the Temple Freshmen at the Stadium.

BOOSTER COMMITTEE HOLDS PEP MEETING ON THURSDAY

Last Thursday night a pep meeting was held in Bomberger Hall. Before such an important game as the one with Delaware, one would have expected a much larger assembly. Those who were there did their best to show the team that the school is back of them.

When the band began to play "Fight Ursinus" it seemed as if the old spirit was again returning. Bill McGarvey, chairman of the Booster-Committee, spoke of the coming game. The Delaware contest has always been regarded as a jinx. However, things have changed this year and the Mud-Hen tiff is just another game. The jinx is forgotten and the team is cut to win. Bill also had a riddle: "What must we do on Saturday?" The answer begins with "W" and ends with "N". The riddle was quickly solved as the assembly shook the rafters with WIN.

Of course, when everyone discovered that Pop Schell was sitting on the shelf they immediately yelled to him. "We want Schell" was the cry of the student body. Not wanting to disappoint them, he came down. Coach Schell declared that the team looks good. Although the offence was not what it should be, it has shown a great improvement this week. The Frosh are playing Wyoming Seminary and there is no doubt that they will win. As Pop asserted, "the two teams will bring home the bacon on Saturday."

Captain Helfrich was the next speaker to address the meeting. He stated that there was not enough support from the school. The same students are always backing the team. It is very disheartening, to know that the squad is working hard every afternoon to win for the school, and when a pep-meeting is called to see only a remnant of the student body present. In other words, Randy was giving those absent *!?

Head cheer-leader Frank Rohrbaugh congratulated the student body upon their cheering and thanked them for their co-operation. Since the cross-country team meets Lehigh on Saturday, they received a peppy yell to show what the school expects of them. Rohrbaugh gave the girls a break by leading a cheer for the hockey team.
