THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

April 6, 1911.

My dear John Muir:

I have your letter of March 31st. We will see if we can prevent any injustice being done in the matter. No action will be taken until the Commission of Army Engineers has sent in its report. You can be sure of that.

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, likely Woodrow Wilson, written in dark ink.

John Muir, Esq.,
Martinez, Cal.
