

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1912-06-20

Letter from Herbert W. Gleason to John Muir, 1912 Jun 20.

Herbert W. Gleason

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Gleason, Herbert W., "Letter from Herbert W. Gleason to John Muir, 1912 Jun 20." (1912). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6295.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6295>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

HERBERT W. GLEASON

ILLUSTRATED LECTURES ON TRAVEL AND NATURE STUDY

83 PINCKNEY STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

June 20, 1912.

Our National Parks
Yellowstone Park
Yosemite Park
Glacier Park
Mt. Rainier Park
Grand Canyon of Arizona

Luther Burbank and his Wonderful Plant Productions
El Camino Real—a Tour Among the Old Spanish Missions
The Gardens and Deserts of Southern California
Yosemite Valley and the Big Trees
Camping and Tramping with the Sierra Club in the High Sierras
Along the California Coast
Trees and Wild Flowers of California
Hetch-Hetchy and the Grand Canyon of the Tuolumne
Volcanic Peaks of the Pacific Coast
Alaska

The Canadian Alps
In the Heart of the Selkirks
Rambles in the Canadian Rockies
At the Sources of the Columbia River
Wild Flowers of the Canadian Rockies

In Thoreau's Country
The Maine Woods
Wild Flowers of New England
Cape Cod

Rambles in Bird-land
Among the Wild Flowers
Mushrooms and Other Fungi
Glacier Studies
The Ocean
The Prairie
The Desert

My dear Mr. Muir:

I have just read John Burroughs' review of your "Yosemite" in the Literary Digest of June 1. I hope you will go on with your glorious writing, describing the glorious scenes of California's glorious mountains and glorious parks and glorious forests and glorious water-falls, just as long and just as GLORIOUSLY as you can! And don't forget to tell us all about the "psalms and hymns and spiritual songs" which you hear in the aforesaid mountains, water-falls, etc. J. B., cold-blooded agnostic that he is, may not like it, but it appeals immensely to the people who read your books.

We are just off on a three months' trip to the West, going first to the Canadian Rockies, then to Glacier Park, then to the Olympics and possibly home by way of Enos Mills' ranch in the shadow of Long's Peak, Colorado. How I wish you were going with us!

Love from us both.

Faithfully yours,

Herbert W. Gleason.

05213