days - and ^{will} you see Helen - In your letter to me you say "Helen's husband and her eldest boy, have been ill". I do not understand it, quite, for I had not heard that the stork had visited Helen and her husband for the second time.
I am so sorry to learn that Mr. Pierce and dear little Muir have been ill.

Dear Mr. Muir -

I have just gotten up from a sick bed - where I have been for two weeks - Was threatened with pneumonia and other complications - However I am now rapidly recovering and hope to be out again in a few

I never go out any more to see my friends - although I ride out every day when I can - just run over to Tropico where my sister lives. Soon my sister-in-law will come to California for a visit, and I am looking forward with pleasure, to it. She will be a comfort to me - helping me to live through this awful loneliness. Just imagine Mr. Muir what this means to me - to be so absolutely alone. All summer I have been here - preferring it however - to being with people who did not interest me. You do not say anything about your Alaska trip, Hope you enjoyed it. But that goes without saying - as you
