My dear Sir

Mr Tyndal has just received your welcome letter, and I write in great haste for the Blenheim Coach if possible, to tell you we shall be rejoiced to see you tomorrow, and to hope you will come to us by the Blenheim which leaves Town about ten and will put you down at our corner at  $\frac{1}{2}$  past 4, where I & my man will meet you - The Blenheim calls at Moore's Green Man & still in Oxford St and <sup>lastly</sup> at the Bull and Mouth office at the corner of Portman St Oxford St - but I do not know the exact time - this you may learn of the Porter whom I shall direct to stay for you to tell him to secure a place for you and to give you information. If you cannot come by the Blenheim, you must come by the Royal William which leaves Town about one and reaches Wheatley about seven - In that case you must be set down at the King's Arms Wheatley where my man shall be waiting but I cannot as I have a lecture in my school room on Friday evening / We dine at 5 -

You may learn about the Loyal Wm at any of the offices in Oxford St

Remember we are on the Wycombe Oxford road not on the Henley - 6 miles short of Oxford

Yours truly

H. Lyndal
