My ^W Rev^d & Dear Friend

We have two most welcome letters to thank you for, one from Weycombe which Mrs Williams forwarded to us and one this morning by the post telling us of your interview with Mr Bealey which was just as we expected genial and pleasant we are delighted that you have been so well pleased and trust the blessing of God will meet and follow you wherever you go -

We were to have conversed a little about Canada when you were here, but Illinois engrossed engrossed us and we let the subject slip by. I hope before you leave this Country you may see our most active Seced Capt Wellesley, who would tell you what we are about, but even if you should not, I think when you pass from New York through Lake Erie you will say a good word for the spiritual benefit of many our settlers you may happen to meet with — I am taking advantage of a packet I am sending to Capt Wellesley to convey this note to you which brings the subject particularly before me, at this minute.

Amongst the friends you saw at Wycombe & Hughendon I do not ^x and the name of my friend Mr Vincent the son in Law of Mr Norris. I shall be sorry if he had not the pleasure of seeing you - I think I may conclude from your not speaking of the memoir, that Mr. Motimer has got it and is at work. When you go to Lord Berkeley, our dear Mrs. Sophia Janssant will like to hear what you have to tell her on that subject.

I have forwarded your letter to Dr White, and give your appeals wherever we see an opening.

I wrote a letter on your subject to the Editor of the Record and it was inserted in that paper of Monday 14 Dec. since which £10 more has been subscribed.

Mr Syntale sends you his most cordial remembrance, he is busy preparing for his Christmas Day
