My dear Bishop, Chas -

I am grieved not to have answered your letter earlier. It gave me great pleasure to hear that you had come amongst us again & that the Lord had opened before you another scene of usefulness. I am now in quite a different situation to what I was when you were with us before; in an agricultural village with chiefly poor around us; but find incessant occupation partly in the work to which my former situation has led me & partly in my Parish & in publications.

It will give me great pleasure to furnish you with a copy of my Publications. I enclose a letter to Miss<sup>rs</sup> Seely for that purpose. I have a ~~good~~ hope that we may meet at Mr Wilson's Annual meeting.

the beginning of January, when I conclude that you will be.

May all the Lords dealings with you & all your toyes, labours, & sufferings be greatly owned of God to the good of his Church. Nothing suffered for our Lord Christ & his people can be in vain

affly Yrs

E. Bickersteth
