Why this session?

- EDI are fundamental values of the library and community.
- Part of the Stay Savvy with Scholarly Communication Summer Professional Development Series at UCF Libraries
- Goal: Share information and resources, continue the EDI conversation.
- Experiences: Felt an urge to talk about EDI while I keep encountering it in various committee work
 - ALA Diversity Fair:
 - Promoting Library Advocacy, Diversity, Family Literacy, and Global Outreach (Chou, M., Lee, E., Tseng, S. & Deng, S., 2011)
 - Chinese American Librarians Association: Embracing Diversity and Outreaching to the Global Community (Deng, S. & Zhang, Y., 2017)
 - UCF Graduate Student Garrison's research on Classification and Cataloging of LGBTQAI+ Materials
 - In western cataloging and classification, assumed user was historically "a white, heterosexual, Christian, western European male" (e.g., in Dewey Decimal Classification, LC classification, LCSH)
 - ALA Interest Group Programming
 - ALCTS Cataloging and Classification Research Interest Group
 - Thinking Outside the Book: Research on Non-traditional Cataloging & Classification \(2019 ALA Annual\)
 - "An astronaut, a nurse, and a prostitute walk into a library...": How to Effectively Explain Our Value to Non-Catalogers (Ros)
 - Classification and Cataloging of LGBTQAI+ Material in the Elementary School Library (Garrison)
 - Core Role of the Professional Librarian in Technical Services IG Discussion
 - Embracing Equity, Diversity and Inclusion \(EDI\) in Library Cataloging \(2021 ALA Core IG Week\)
 - Equity, Diversity and Inclusion \(EDI\) in the Library and Technical Services \(2021 ALA Annual\)

Using EDI principles

An EDI Survey

- Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in the OCLC Research Library Partnership Survey, 2017

The top areas that had changed due to their EDI goals:

- Activities and events (88%)
- Recruitment and retention (87%)
- Outreach to marginalized communities (84%)
- Collection building (73%)

The top areas that institutions planned to change:

- Search and discovery interfaces (77%)
- Metadata descriptions in library catalogs (70%)
- Metadata descriptions in digital or digitized collections (58%)
- Terminologies and/or vocabularies (52%)

EDI Questions from an ACRL Survey: Recruitment/Retention

- ACRL 2020 Academic Library Trends survey: DEI questions on recruitment/retention, e.g.,
 - What strategies is the library using to hire staff from underrepresented groups? (Check all that apply)
 - Action plans for recruiting underrepresented groups
 - Analyzing the number of applicants, finalists, and hires from underrepresented groups
 - Conducting blind review of resumes and other application materials
 - Including an explicit EDI statement in job postings
 - Offering higher salaries to reflect supply/demand imbalance for hires from underrepresented groups
 - Offering implicit bias and/or cultural competency training for library staff
 - Offering residency or fellowship program(s)
 - Posting the position to a diverse range of audiences
 - Providing formal mentorship programs for new hires
 - Requiring candidates to demonstrate support for EDI initiatives in their job applications
 - Rewriting position descriptions to encourage a broader pool of applicants
 - Training search committees on best practices for inclusive searches...

EDI at Organizational Level

- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Spectrum Tool for Organizations
 - Dimensions of DEI/EDI work:

- DEI Vision
- Policies
- Diversity
- Decisions
- Commitment
- Infrastructure

- Data
- Accountability
- Leadership
- Training
- Community
- Inclusion

DEI Component	Not Yet Started	Ready to Start	Launched	Well on the Way	Exemplary or Leading
Diversity	Doesn't see diversification of board and staff as a priority; may be paralyzed by the perceived challenges or view it as unattainable	Has had initial discussions about and values the idea of diversifying its board and staff	Beginning attempts to diversify its board and/or staff but may not know how to do it effectively or have strategies and systems in place; may not result in growing diversity	Actively works to increase diversity of board and staff, resulting in growing diversity; has begun to identify and institute retention strategies for diverse staff	Has policies and strategies for strengthening and maintaining organizational diversity; staff and board represent the diversity of the community it serves; effective retention strategies are implemented

Global Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Benchmarks

From The Centre for Global Inclusion: <https://centreforglobalinclusion.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/06/GDEIB-APRIL-2021-1.pdf>

- Global Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Benchmarks

15 categories, organized into 4 groups

Five levels

LEVEL 5: BEST PRACTICE

Demonstrating current global best practices in DEI; exemplary.

LEVEL 4: PROGRESSIVE

Implementing DEI systemically and showing improved results and outcomes beyond what is required or expected.

LEVEL 3: PROACTIVE

A clear awareness of the value of DEI; starting to implement DEI systemically. This is what is required and expected of all organizations.

LEVEL 2: REACTIVE

A compliance-only mindset; actions are taken primarily to comply with relevant laws and social pressures. Doing the bare minimum.

LEVEL 1: INACTIVE

No DEI work has begun; diversity, equity, and inclusion are not part of organizational goals.

The Libraries' Responses to EDI

- EDI and Anti-Racism Toolkit from the Oregon Library Association, 2021
 - EDI Antiracism: EDI Antiracism Readiness Survey; Antiracism Policies and Practices; Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) workplace perspective...
 - Collection Development: EDI Collection Development
 - Diverse Collections: An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights
 - Considerations for Collection Development:
 - Look for authentic voices;
 - look beyond mainstream review journals, get to know publisher highlighting diverse voices (e.g., online resources of AILA, APALA, BCALA, CALA, REFORMA, JCLC, specialized book fairs); alternative resources, diverse authors
 - Collection promotion (in book display, library program, reference)
 - Maintenance (diversity audit, need assessment, look beyond circulation statistics for weeding)
 - Policy: budget for diverse collection; support diverse collection management
 - Align intellectual freedom with EDI values via adding acknowledgement statement, e.g.,
 - List of Statements on Bias in Library and Archives Description
 - DPLA's Statement on Potentially Harmful Content

The Libraries' Responses to EDI

- Cataloging
 - Considerations with Cataloging
 - Subject Headings; Authority work; Classification Systems
 - Author/Audience Characteristics
 - Specify in MARC fields 385/386 using LC Demographic Group Terms, e.g., 385 †m Gender group: †n gdr †a Women †2 lcdgt; 386 $m Age group: $n age $a Children $2 lcdgt
- Diversity Audit
 - Considerations with Diversity/Equity Audits
 - Types of representations;
 - Keep an eye on stereotypes;
 - Examine your own internalized biases;
 - Can be time-consuming;
 - Decide if you need a book in hand to evaluate
- Advocacy
- Intellectual Freedom: banned books; libraries for "all"

 - Goal: consider US census data (e.g., population percentage of people of color, LGBTQAI+, disabled people)
 - Up to date shelf list
 - Staff with time and knowledge to evaluate the titles
 - Research
 - Book titles in each category

The Libraries' Responses to EDI: Evaluating Books for Bias

- How to Tell the Difference: A Guide for Evaluating Children's Books for Anti-Indian Bias

- Criteria from How To Tell The Difference:

- Look at picture books (e.g., “E” for “Eskimo,” “I” for “Indians” present in ABC books?)
- Look for stereotypes (e.g., are native people portrayed as savages, or simple tribal people, oversimplified, generalized, all one color, one style)
- Look for loaded words (e.g., primitive, pristine, simple, Injun, savage)
- Look for tokenism (e.g., stereotypically alike)
- Look for distortion of history (e.g., Euro-American conquest of /victory over the Native people)
- Look for victimization (e.g., Natives accepted defeats passively, aided conquest)
- Look at the lifestyles (e.g., condescending manner: them vs. us; “vanished Indian”; religion described as superstition; ethnocentric Western focus on material objects)
- Look at dialog (e.g., “early jawbreaker” vs. “noble savage,” oral tradition)
- Look for standards of success (e.g., avoid pastor knew better than native people on what is good for them; culture norm; values)
- Look at the role of women, elders, Child’s self-image
- Look at the author’s or illustrator’s background

Radical Cataloging

“Alien” vs. “Noncitizens” etc.

- Survey: ALA/ALCTS/CaMMS Subject Analysis Committee
 - September-Oct 2019, 40 responses
- Trend: Those who made revisions mostly changed their heading to “Undocumented immigrants”
- Primary approaches:
 - Keep authorized LCSH and add new term(s)
 - Replace authorized LCSH with new term(s)
 - Keep authorized LCSH, but display new term(s)

Radical Cataloging

“Alien” vs. “Noncitizens” etc.

- Radical Cataloging: “ ‘radical’... refers to addressing the root–systemic, or structural–issues behind social problems. Radical cataloging... [is] intended to address the root issues that can make access to information problematic.” - Radical Cataloging: From words to action (Lember)
- Radical Cataloging: Using alternative subject headings locally to promote inclusiveness and diversity
 - CU Boulder Libraries: added “undocumented immigrants” (and six variants) to over 5,000 bib records

“Identifying & dismantling white supremacy”

Identifying & Dismantling White Supremacy in Archives

DESCRIPTION

PRIVILEGE When I look for materials from my community in archives, they will be described in the finding aid and catalog records using language we use to describe ourselves.	PRIVILEGE When I look at descriptions of archival materials, I am not always bombarded by/reminded of my otherness.	PRIVILEGE Materials are described using my native language.
ACTION <ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Train all archivists to have cultural humility and describe materials using anti-oppressive language.▶ Educate yourself continually and constantly.▶ Hire more archivists of color to describe materials.▶ Engage communities to ask how they wish to describe themselves. Compensate them for their labor.	ACTION <ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Hire more archivists of color to describe materials.▶ Update finding aids that use outdated white supremacist language. Keep a note of your changes so that users can examine the history of the finding aid as an artifact.▶ Engage communities to ask how they wish to describe themselves. Compensate them for their labor.	ACTION <ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Hire multilingual people as archivists and translators and translate finding aids into appropriate languages.▶ Encourage, value, and give credit for language courses in MLIS programs and as continuing education.

Racial Considerations

“Describing whiteness”

Auditing Legacy Archival Description for Racism

- Reparative Processing (Bolding)
 - Describe white ethnicities (ex. Scottish American)
 - Call it like it is (settlers, colonists)
 - “The first white” ≠ “The first”
 - Use active voice to describe oppressive relationships
 - Denormalize colonial place names (e.g., for Early American history collections)

https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1MhOx5ZlVjb_8pfvvFquMqLsUUIOHFFMT4js5EP4qnA/edit?usp=sharing

Racial Considerations

“Include racial identities for all people”

“whiteness is no longer the presumed default”

Example: Julian Shakespeare Carr Papers

- Legacy description: Julian Shakespeare Carr (1845-1924) of Chapel Hill and Durham, N.C., was a manufacturer of tobacco products with interests in a wide range of other businesses, including banking and textiles. Carr was also active in the Methodist Church, the Democratic 45 Party, and several Confederate veterans' organizations, including the North Carolina branch of the United Confederate Veterans, which he served as commander. He was also a strong supporter of various institutions of higher education in the state. The collection includes letters, telegrams, printed announcements, programs, and pamphlets, business and legal documents, maps, and newspaper clippings pertaining to Carr's business and personal affairs. The letters chiefly concern banking, farming, and family matters, but also reflect Carr's interests in the Civil War and the United Confederate Veterans and in the Methodist Church. Also included are printed and manuscript addresses and Sunday School lessons given by Carr. Of special note is a series of speeches discussing the race problem in North Carolina and throughout the South. One address, 2 June 1913, given at the dedication of the monument later known as "Silent Sam" on the University of North Carolina campus. Business topics are also represented. Included are seven volumes of Carr's diary containing brief entries, 1907-1917, and letter books, 1919-1922. These volumes chiefly document Carr's personal life, particularly his travels and family associations. Also included are a wedding album, 1895, of Carr's daughter Eliza, and a family history, 1991, by Joseph Julian Carr. Photographs are chiefly of Julian S. Carr.

Racial Considerations

Include racial identities for all people

“whiteness is no longer the presumed default”

Example: Julian Shakespeare Carr Papers

"conscious editing"

Dean, Jackie. "Conscious Editing of Archival Description at UNC-Chapel Hill." Journal of the Society of North Carolina Archivists 19 (2019): 41-55. http://www.ncarchivists.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/02/jsnca_vol16_dean.pdf

- 2018 revision: The papers of white businessman and public figure Julian Shakespeare Carr \(1845-1924\) of Chapel Hill and Durham, N.C., document his financial interests in tobacco, textiles, and banking; affiliations with the Methodist Church, the Democratic Party in North Carolina, and organizations commemorating the Confederacy; and philanthropic support of institutions of higher education, particularly the University of North Carolina (UNC). Papers include letters, printed items, business records, legal documents, diaries, photographs, lessons for Sunday school, and addresses written and delivered by Carr. The rhetoric in many addresses reflects Carr's positions on what he and his contemporaries called "the race problem." In keeping with white supremacy movements in North Carolina at the turn of the twentieth century, Carr defended the institution of slavery, claiming it had been beneficial to the enslaved, and argued for denying full citizenship rights to African Americans. Included are Carr's 1899 speech supporting an amendment to the North Carolina constitution that disenfranchised African Americans and his address at the 1913 dedication of the Confederate monument later known as "Silent Sam" on the UNC campus.

Main Text	In front of Zhao Mausoleum (the mausoleum of Emperor Taizong of Tang (599-649)), this horse is the second from the east. It has a bluish white and mixed color and was struck with five arrows. This is the horse that Shimin Li (an emperor of the Tang dynasty, 597-649) rode when he conquered Jiande Dou (573-621)(a leader of rebels in Sui dynasty). The horse moves as fast as a flash. It runs so swiftly as if there were god's blessings on its hoofs. Riding on this horse, a flying-white-cloth-like steed, will guarantee victory of a war.

- Metadata recommendations:
- Voice and Style
 - Decenter “neutrality” and “objectivity” in favor of “respect” and “care.”
 - Avoid passive voice when describing oppressive relationships
 - “Four Kent State University students were killed on May 4, 1970, during a clash between the Ohio National Guard and a crowd gathered to protest the Vietnam War.”
 - “Members of the Ohio National Guard killed four Kent State University students during a mass protest against the Vietnam War.”
 - Focus on the humanity of an individual before their identity/ies
 - “documents the business dealings of a Black woman named Maria in 18th century Mexico”
 - “documents the business dealings of Maria, a Black woman in 18th century Mexico

Resource Lists

- Refrain from writing flowery, valorizing biographical notes for collection creators.
 - Remove and refrain from including evaluative terms like “preeminent,” “renowned,” “genius,” or “seminal” that serve to praise collection creators
- Use accurate and strong language such as lynching, rape, murder, and hate mail when they are appropriate. Do not let your discomfort with the terms censor the material.
- Describe relationships of power when they are important for understanding the context of records (e.g., Racism, slurs, white supremacy, colonialism, and histories of oppression).
 - “Thomas Jefferson was a known enslaver despite his legacy as a supporter of individual rights.”
- Handling Racist Folder Titles and Creator-Sourced Description
 - preserve but contextualize creator-sourced original description
 - draw a distinction between the creator-supplied description and archivist-supplied description via quotation marks, processing information note, scope and content note, and/or another method.
 - replace offensive language in primary user-facing description
 - Make a distinction between the institutional voice/archivist’s voice and the voice of the collection creator
 - Research how the community being described feels about certain terms

Resource Lists

- Describing Slavery Records

- Use “enslaved” or “captive” [person/woman/man/child/laborer] rather than “slave” when describing people held in bondage
- Use “free [person | man | woman] of color” “freed[person | man | woman],” or another term to describe those who were not enslaved during a period when slavery existed in that society
- Humanize documents from all sides (e.g., include the seller and purchaser’s names for deeds)
- Use available information to name enslaved people
- Use enslaved or formerly enslaved people as primary entry.....
