 WKU Glasgow

Fact Book

WKU-Glasgow, established in 1988, is a premiere regional campus among Kentucky's public institutions. Located among the rolling hills of Barren County in south central Kentucky, the Glasgow campus enrolls approximately 2600 students and employs over 100 full-time and part-time faculty and staff. The campus maintains a strong reputation with an excellent faculty and experienced staff, solid academic programs, exceptional students, and successful graduates.

WKU-Glasgow offers a wide variety of degree programs and certificates to meet the needs of the citizens in Barren County and the surrounding area. Many of these programs can be completed on the campus. Classes are delivered face-to-face, online, and through interactive video. Personal attention, convenient scheduling, financial assistance, student services, easy access, and ample parking make WKU-Glasgow a perfect choice for both traditional and non-traditional students.

Come visit the campus, and explore the many educational opportunities WKU-Glasgow offers!

“I was a single mom and worked full-time. I needed classes to accommodate my busy schedule. WKU-Glasgow set up my class schedule so I could still work full-time and be a mom. I was also able to complete my entire Sociology degree at WKU-Glasgow. The faculty and staff really do everything they can to accommodate students. They take pride in their students and want to see them succeed.”

– Crystal Nuckols
Sociology, 2004 graduate

“If you have a disability, WKU-Glasgow will make accommodations for you. They will work with you. They make the college experience less stressful. If you try, if you give it your all...you can do it.”

- Erica Wilson, Social Work

“One of my instructors told me... ‘You can do it and you will be great!’ I will always remember that and appreciate it. I can do a lot of different things with my Social Work degree, but I am glad I did something for myself to have a better life!”

- Kathy Wilson, Social Work
