J. J.

Charleston Oct: 25th 1783 —

I wrote you some time past, but understood in yours of the 12th Inst: suppose it not come to hand — I then informed that Cresspion had sent state of Accts, against the late Mr Crowe & Connections — under seal of Magis-tralty — at same time Powers of Attorney against the late Mr Abbot went to Jos: Ward — the demands large — & the creditors pressing: — in consequence wrote to see you, or to have state of Accts: the former most agreeable, if you could possibly make it convenient, as more could be done to elucidate matters in one hour, than fifty letters. On the other side you have great amt: of the several Accts:
— not a Shilling paid of the Estates, nor likely to receive any, till the Law Lion stalks at large, whose roaring God grant, the Assembly will in their great wisdom prevent.

Yours most obed^t & affec^t Servant
Robert Smith
