New York 1st Nov. 1804.

Dear Sir

On Tuesday last Peter Kean, called - on me, & let me know that you were arrived a few days since, from Europe, on wh. I congratulate late you. Peter left me early on Wednesday Morn^g. express with a Message to Mr. Ricketts, in order to come to Town on business with Judge Benson, & myself while I have a little respite from Spasms. I expected him last night but have heard nothing from him or Peter since - I desired Peter to give my Love to his Mother & to congratulate late you both on your arrival & to enquire how something better & had great hopes my fit was passing off - and also to tell my Sister that I should be glad to see both her & you at my House when ever you came to Town in Robinson's to wh.

to which I removed in a Sedan Chair about three weeks ago and where I shall be very glad to see you both when you either of you come to Town. My Illness has prevented Mr. L. from making any arrangements in putting the House in order but I hope before Christmas. We shall be settled. I am - My Dear Son with great regards, your most obed. & humb. Servant

moments

It is but this very moment I received the letter you did me the honor to write I rejoice you feel a respite in your Spasms, my Satisfaction would be complete if ^{my} Dear Sir I could soon see you entirely recovered, On my arrival ~~to~~ I would have hasten'd to wait upon you, but Peter's immediate departure for Princeton College, made our stay home necessary, as soon however as he is fitted out, which will be about the middle of next week, we shall have ~~both~~ the pleasure of seeing you. Pray do not put yourself or Mrs. L. to any Inconvenience about lodging us in your house, wherever we put up, no distance will prevent us from seeing you as often as possible. Mrs. H. expresses her affectionate love to you, our ^{dearly} respects to Mrs. L. & the children.
