New York July 16th 1828

Dear Sir

I have examined all the Letters and Accounts which you left with me in the Case of Lahn, and so far as I can collect from those Statements, which are very vague and imperfect, I should infer that the Interest had been paid on the $7000 Mortgage up to the 1. Nov 1820. It was after that period <sup>that</sup> the accumulations appear to have commenced in the hands of Lahn. I sent Jernin this morning and he states that the Int. was paid up to 1 Nov 1820. He says also that Mrs Menceweys Bank Book will shew every payment that he ever made and on what Account. It is a matter of astonishment to me that you should have suffered these accumulations to continue as you did, but it is useless to deplete it now.

Mr Deen has requested me to write to you upon a private subject of his own. He is desirous of borrowing three thousand Dollars for about two years but he has nothing except country property to offer as Security. In order to supply a substitute for town lots Morris and I have agreed to write with him in a bond as collateral security for the amount payable in two years with int at 7 percent. half yearly - The property he proposes to mortgage is in our estimation ample Security - but knowing your aversion to country property we have thought it advisable to offer the personal Security in addition to the lands which he proposes to pledge - And we can early answer -
Yours O B C
