

Kean University

Kean Digital Learning Commons

---

Liberty Hall Collection 1840s

Liberty Hall Collection

---

6-15-1847

Examination of Benjamin Williamson, June 15, 1847

Benjamin Williamson

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.kean.edu/lhc\_1840s

---

Recommended Citation

Williamson, Benjamin. Examination of Benjamin Williamson, June 15, 1847. Manuscript. From Special Collections Research Library and Archives, Kean University, Liberty Hall Collection 1840s.
https://digitalcommons.kean.edu/lhc\_1840s/4

This Manuscript is brought to you for free and open access by the Liberty Hall Collection at Kean Digital Learning Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Liberty Hall Collection 1840s by an authorized administrator of Kean Digital Learning Commons. For more information, please contact learningcommons@kean.edu.

In Chancery,

In the matter of the trust under the last Will and testament of Susan H.
Neimceicz deceased

Examination of Witnesses taken in pursuance of an order of the Court of Chancery bearing date the fifteenth day of June eighteen hundred and forty seven Benjamin Williamson of Elizabeth town in the County of Essex, and State of New Jersey, Counselor at law, being sworn and examined, doth depose and say, I was acquainted with Susan H. Neimceicz late of Union, in the County of Essex, and State of New Jersey, that during her life time I occasionally transacted business for her, and know that at the time of her decease, as well as she was seized and possessed of considerable real estate in the State of New Jersey, as well as of a large personal estate, she died in or about the month of May 1833 having made her last Will and testament bearing date, on or about the 26 day of September 1829. Shortly after her decease Henry J. Williams & Anthony Rutgers, two of the Executors named in her said Will, proved the same before the Surrogate of the County of Essex in this State, and took upon themselves the execution thereof, and of the trust therein directed Peter A. Jay <sup>who</sup> was also an Executor named in the said Will refused to qualify as such and never undertook the execution of the said Will, John Nean another Executor in the said Will a Grandson of the Testatrix attained the age of 21 years sometime in, or about, the month of March 1835 and shortly thereafter qualified as such Executor before the Surrogate of the County of Essex, Anthony Rutgers died about June 1836. Since which time John Nean has had the transactions of nearly all the business connected with the said estate. Peter A.

Jay died, as I am informed and believe, in the month of February 1843 - Julia K. Fish, also named as an Executor, in the said Will has never qualified as such and Christene (a Granddaughter of the said Susan N.
Nevins) is still under the age of twenty one year.
Ann Nean, Julia Nean (now the wife of Harrington Fish) and Christene Nean, the three Grandchildren of the said Susan N. Nevins, and named in her will, and the persons beneficially interested in the trust then created are still living, the said Ann and Julia being respectively of full age. I have become acquainted with the above facts from having transacted as a lawyer most of the business of the said Estate in New Jersey & since the death of Mr. Rutgers and part of it, prior to that time, and I likewise acted as Counsel and as Solicitor in the settlement of the said estate in the Court of Chancery. As the Solicitor for Harrington Fish and Julia K. his wife, and Christene A. N. Nean I for Baker her next friend, sometime in or about the month of April 1843 I filed a bill in the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey in behalf of the said Harrington Fish and wife, and Christene A. N. Nean against Henry J.
Williams and John Nean surviving Executors of the last Will and testament of the said Susan N. Nevins and against Robert Bird Birch and Sarah A. Birch wife of the said Robert as Executors and Charles F.
Whuman as Executor of the last Will and testament of Anthony Rutgers deceased for an account of the estate of the said Susan N. Nevins, and such proceedings were thereupon had, that the cause was referred to a Master of the said Court to take and state the accounts, and thereupon both the said Henry J. Williams and the said John Kean appeared before the said Master and presented to him under oath accounts of all monies, goods, chattels debts, evidences of debt and securities for money belonging to the said estate, which had come to their hands respectively, and under their respective personal managements or knowledge, and to the best of my knowledge <sup>in information stated</sup> the said Henry J. Williams hath not, since the said accounting received any money, goods, chattels, debts, or other thing for, or in behalf of the said estate. On or about the 11. day of July 1843 the said Henry J. Williams in pursuance of the directions contained in the said Will, appointed six respectable persons to make division of the Real and personal estate of the said Testatrix as directed by her Will, and such partition & division of all of the said estate, except certain Real estate within the State of New York and except also some small balances of monies retained for the purpose of equalizing the said shares and defraying expenses was thereupon made, and the several shares granted & conveyed, or settled as directed in and by the said Will, and after the settlement of the said accounts, the said Henry J. Williams paid over to me upon an order from and on behalf of the said John Kean his Co. Executor the balance of the monies remaining in his hands belonging to the Estate as ascertained upon the aforesaid accounting before the Master.

I <sup>further</sup> state that to the best of my knowledge and belief the only property belonging to the said estate and held in

I further state that the said Henry J. Williams resides in the City of Philadelphia, and that the said John Kean has for a long time part had the whole management of the estate and that I believe all parties interested are willing the prayer of the Petition should be granted, as it will save much expense and trouble to have the estate of Miss Thaw under the control of the Trustee

Chancery

Matter of the Petition of H.
J. Williams

of Milwaukee —
B. R. —

Copy

