My dear Sir

Mr. Ricketts writes to Mr. Mean that we have our Cousin George Brown lately arrived at Philadelphia. He is a Captain in the British army, & came from Jamaica where he left his Regiment to North Carolina, & so on to the Northward. He will stay a few days at Philadelphia, & we suppose he is an entire stranger there, & wish him to be introduced to Mr. Bond, the British Charge des affaires. who will probably take him to the President's - will you be so obliging as to call on him. he lodges at N<sup>o</sup> 129. Arch Street - & offer to make him acquainted with Mr. Bond. - Mr. L. has written to her Sister Beade to ask Col. Beade to call on him also. I am still more than half my time confined to the House, by ill health - I wish you a long continuance of yours - & am most affectionately
Yours, P. Livingston.
