April 11, 1936

His Excellency, Hugh L. White, Governor
Jackson, Mississippi

My Dear Governor White:

In the selection of gasoline inspectors I am sure that the organization which you are perfecting will select outstanding and experienced field men. With these facts in mind, I can, without hesitation, commend for your attention and investigation Honorable S. H. Smith of Calhoun County.

Senator Smith occupied the position of sheriff and tax collector of his county and served the State of Mississippi for four years in the State Senate. His practical experience as a law enforcement officer and his untiring energy and devotion to duty qualify him in every particular for a position in the gasoline tax enforcement department.

Assuring you of my appreciation of any courtesy or consideration which you may show Mr. Smith and thanking you for the many favors of the past, I am,

Very truly yours,

JOHN H. CULKIN.
