Dearest Chris:

Please forgive me for waiting so long to answer your letter, also for having to refuse to write to you on this kind of stationery. Just pretend that is the best paper you can buy just anywhere! It's in a class which really isn't so bad, but is not nearly so interesting as writing to you, that is if I can look forward to a letter from you.

I enjoy your letters very much and always look forward to them. They do me lots of good. I don't mean to wait so long to answer, it doesn't mean that I don't think of you lots and lots, wonder what you are doing, if you like it, and if you ever think of me.

Off man "Lui" is doing his level best to drag me down. Feel much worse today. Never felt so no good and tired. May have to go to the hospital. Hope not. But I would feel a hundred percent better if you and I were together at some place where we could have plenty of fun, laugh, and enjoy everything. Nobody but you would do cause I like so much to be with you. It seems ages, ages, and more ages since I last saw you, but I haven't forgotten how you look and how very sweet you are. Some awfully nice, high-priced word should go in there, but try as I might.

surface. Wish I could touch a button and find myself with you in just about five minutes. In other words, I want to see you.

Chick says "hello, - like to see you," etc.
Next week this time no school. Are you considering going to the State - Ole Miss football game? I haven't made up my mind whether to go or not. Do you think I should?

Helen was asking about <sup>you</sup> last week. She says "hello," also.

Do you remember the boy she went with last year whose name was "Dubbo"?
His father died yesterday afternoon.
He was a very good friend of my father's and all of us liked him a great deal. I can't seem to realize that he is dead. Have you ever been that way? Doesn't seem right.

This foolish professor thinks I am taking notes or something. His lecture is disconcerting or something. If this letter is crazy, blame it on him.

My two more months I shall be a "sunny side" graduate of Mississippi State college. (I hope) Sometimes I just don't give a damn what happens or what doesn't happen. Be glad when my school days are over. Couldn't stand four more years of it.

Think of me every now and then, write soon and be sweet

Lovingly,
Wade

Pardon
me
for writing
so many times
