Dearest Chris:

Your letter was very welcome indeed, and it was mighty good to know that you were thinking of me every now and then. It was also very sweet of you to answer so soon. Wish I could see you, even for a little while. You've no idea.

I'm glad that you are "putting it over" on the unsuspecting parents and children. You haven't begun worrying for fear that you will be an old maid, yet have you? That would be foolish of you, to my way of thinking.

I've been thinking of you lots and lots, and wishing more and more every day that I could see you. And I would like to go to a circus or something like that with you. We could have loads of fun, don't you think? That reminds me, there is going to be a big circus in Columbus the twenty-second. Why not come up and we'll attend?

I have been to Columbus only one time this year. Wish you were back over there so I could see you every weekend anyway. ~~And that wouldn't be often enough.~~ Wish I could think of lots of things to write, something that would interest you.

Write soon, won't you? Remember me once in a while. I think you are very, very, sweet, and I also think more of you than you would guess.

Lots of love,
Wade

Monday nite

Dearest Christine:

I am sending two letters. Why? Because I mailed the first one to Rosedale. Dumb wasn't it? Don't know why I did it.

You had me worried, for fear you weren't going to write and then the letter came back marked "unclaimed."

My grandmother has been at the point of death for the last week and of course I haven't done any work, I have been at home for nearly a week.

Wish I could see you for a short while, better still for a long, long time. you are so sweet. I think of you altogether too much.

Have you been home any or do you like teaching so well that you don't care to go home?

Don't forget to let me know
when you get out for Xmas
I want to see you. Sooner
if possible.

Be sweet as ever and write real soon.

Lovingly
Wade
