WELCOME to our 1956 May Day Program. This afternoon we would like for you to go with us in your imagination to other lands and witness the dance each land will perform for your majesty, the queen and her court.

MEXICO—The first stop we'll make will be south of the border and we'll watch the Senors and Senioritas dressed in their gay costumes perform a native dance.

FRANCE—As we approach the gay city of Paris we are greeted by their select dancer who will do for us a stately and precise minuet.

SCOTLAND—The next group to perform for our Queen will be the Scottish Lassies kicking kilts in the Highland Fling.

DENMARK—The Scandinavian people have also prepared for our visit this afternoon as their dancers do for us the sprite steps of the polka.

ISRAEL—Our journey now takes us to Israel for one of their exotic dances.

ENGLAND—Thanks for coming along with us on our journey to other lands. For our finale the English dancers would like to perform for us one of their oldest dances—May Pole Dance—and say:

"LONG LIVE THE QUEEN"

RECESSIONAL—"A Pretty Girl is like a Melody"
