MADE IN U. S. A.

The Peer of Irish love ballads. This song is the best that Eliza Doyle Smith has ever produced; it is truly Irish, and who, that hath music in his soul does not love Irish music? The Colleen, Killarney, Primroses and Fairies are extolled in this sweetly appealing waltz ballad.

Voice Slow with expression

Ah! Sweet Nor ah Da ly, my own Nor- ah
I left you in E - rin, in beau - ti - ful

A clever story about the well-known Jonah, the whale and the sea, with funny lines and a jingling one-step melody.

There is nothing so good for what ails you as a good laugh, and this combine of mirth and melody will fix you up all right.

gain, Mist - y moon. moon.

rit pp

This new and very beautiful love ballad from the pen of John Loftus is bound to become World Famous, because as we sing each note of love's most beautiful song, our own hearts will beat high to each measure and we will recognize love's master-piece in both sentiment and melody.

REFRAIN Tenderly

If I found the end of the rain - bow

And all the treasure it hides, If all of my tears turned to glad - ness, Still I'd not be sat - is -
