RECITATION.

Good old MUSIC MASTER, you've a place within my heart
You can make me laugh and make the tear-drops start.
What a great companion you have grown to be,
Always ready, when I ask, to comfort me.
Gee, how lonesome I would be without you now,
Couldn't do without you seems to me somehow.
And where'er I go folks all say
If you don't want 'er I want 'er.
