Con spirito.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of five systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system begins with a dynamic marking of fz (forzando) and the instruction Con spirito. The second system includes a dynamic marking of mf (mezzo-forte). The score is characterized by rhythmic patterns such as eighth-note runs and chords, with various articulation marks like accents and slurs. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the fifth system.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a 3/4 time signature. It features a complex texture with many beamed notes and rests. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same key and time signature, with intricate melodic and harmonic lines in both staves.

Third system of musical notation, showing further development of the musical themes. The notation includes various articulation marks and dynamic markings.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a prominent melodic line in the treble clef and a supporting bass line. The system ends with a double bar line.

Fifth system of musical notation, characterized by a more active bass line and sustained chords in the treble. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Sixth and final system of musical notation on the page. It includes first and second endings, indicated by the numbers '1' and '2' above the staves. The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Nights of Gladness

WALTZES

The Latest from London. Successor to "In the Shadows". Played extensively both in England and Europe. The brightness of its themes gives it individuality and distinctiveness that stamps this Composition indelibly on the ear.

The musical score is presented in four systems, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The first system begins with a forte sf dynamic. The second system includes a piano p dynamic and a crescendo cresc. followed by a poco a poco instruction. The third system features a piano p dynamic and a forte sf dynamic. The fourth system begins with a fortissimo ff dynamic. The notation includes various rhythmic values, accidentals, and phrasing slurs.
