Andte Moderato

There's a Col - leen in dear old Kil - larn - ey, I would like you to meet her some Sure I'm sail - in' a - way to ould Er - in, To the Col - leen who waits there for day, She's a rogue of a Col - leen for blar - ney, With her me And I long for the ship to be near - in' For the laugh - ter, your heart she would sway, From her head to her toes, She's as day when my own she will be, You may seek far and wide for a fair as a rose And I'm tell - in' you all For I don't care who knows, I re - pret - ti - er bride, For they call her the pride of the whole coun - try - side, When I mem - ber when we two were cour - tin' Ev - ry Pat said: "I wish she were mine." — take her to Fath - er O - Con - ner He will say: "Heaven bless you" I know. —

 She's the wild Ir-ish rose that God gave me — And he sent her from Heaven a - bove, — Just to make my heart glad, When I'm lonely and sad, Just to brighten my life with her love. Oh thank God for the day that he gave me — Such a treasure far o - ver the sea, — There's no gift any - where that could ever compare With the Wild Irish Rose that God gave me. She the me.

THE BIG WALTZ-BALLAD SUCCESS OF THE YEAR

“SOMEWHERE A HEART IS BREAKING AND CALLING ME BACK TO YOU”

You will note the melody of this beautiful ballad is written by Leo Friedman, composer of such big hits as “Meet Me To-Night In Dreamland,” “Let Me Call You Sweetheart,” “When I Dream of Old Erin.” Mr. Friedman thinks this new song is his best effort and the way the public is buying it indicates that Mr. Friedman’s judgment in this matter is equally as good as his melody. It is truly a wonderful seller and a copy should be in every home.

CHORUS

Some-where a heart is break - ing And call - ing me back to you, ———

Fond mem-o - ries a - wak - ing Each hap-py hour we knew. ———

I hear a voice so ten - der Mak - ing my dreams come true; ——— Some-where a
