The

May 31. 64 Mrs A. Rice dear maddum I have the plesher of saying to you that all is in good health except Buck he has had a short attack of newmone but is getting abought & James Merick she was taken with convulsion fits last Sunday here 3 from 12 o'clock til sundun I sent for the Doctor & after bleeding til she fainted she has had no more I went up to Tappelow in search of the pony but when I got there they was gone to Montevilla Ala they onley staid 2 nights & day at the camp where they started to when I was there but since I got home I have heard that they were cued back again I made an arrangement with a veld gentle man that if they came back there to write to me he said he new the smart of hit as they tested him the same was all well at the lower place the wheat will soon be ready to cut & not hurt by rust yet hit is out of danger nough I will soon be over the crop the second time & am loving hit in fine fix we are needing none the garden peas are but up so that we had nothing of the kind to sende to you this time I sende one bucket of butter you will find inclosed a letter that I taken out of the ofis yartexday I am much gratified to git your papers & hope they will continue to come as I am allways glad to hear the news
