Dear madam

Those lines have all well here & no bad cases at the lower place the sum complaint I sende to Crawford depot on thursday from the fact that I killd hogs on munday & could not get all fixt up that I wisht to sende before I sende you a barrel of back bones & ribs & sawing mate & a box of saws & one of sops & the shewe one bucket of butter I killd 21 hogs waiing 42.96 lbs as we have not munny to kill I thought hit best to wate & get the rest as good as I can what I have killd was good fat one of them wuld 3.94 lbs of wood be glad if you can that you woud sende the barrel back when empty as I have none of more than I have got & hit will anen the same purpos againe when I kill againe Delpha & Beckys child is impain in Delpha is spinning the just begun I have got the cron we spoke of by the leve of Mr Gaston we find that the demand is so grate for stears that we were afraid to wate I have sold most corn anup to pay for them with 100 bushels that I let go atords them Jane says plese to excuse her for not spinning the thread better that the cards was so bad that she could not see hit may better Jane says there is one black ball & on purple one for M^{rs} Foot & one black one for you if will extende to washing & drying the wheat as fast as I can but can du mity littel at hit now & I have a good deal to fix to pay for the side of socke I was going to cropped with my self to day but ther ar waggons hear after corn so that I cant leve in time I intended to see if the thing had cum to have rittin & let you no but when I rite again I can let you no if they have cum the boxes meet I spoke of sendin in a box will cum in a bucket you will plese tel Mag Walker I preser this letter & thank him for what things he can get & sende

Recd

Yours verrey respect fully
A. B. Park!
