J. D. Banks,

Kirbyville, Texas, in re W.L. Douglass Will Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing herewith the letters that you sent me for information the abave matter. I have read them through theroughly and sent them to my mether at Dry Greve who also read them and returned to me. She does not know what to de and appeles to me to help her. I frankly admit that I do not see that she could have any claim whatever unless there could be some preef to show that undue influence or durces or fraud was practiced in the making of the last will. I am bound to leave that matter to you as I know mething about it. I shall not change my mind upon the opinion expressed that there is nothing to be done to accrue to the good or benefit of my methor unless you know of womething along the line suggested.

I leave it to you to ascertain about those matters. Again thanking you for your interest in behalf of my mother I am,

Yours truly,
