New Orleans, Jan. 25, 82,

Helloah! Cammie

I rec<sup>d</sup> your this morning. was very much pleased to hear from you. & to see you were having such a gay time in My Grove. I will give you all my old sweethearts up there. & I want you to break their hearts right & left!! If you do not exactly understand the "modus opperandi" just tell me, & I will let you know all about it!!! I will tell you how to mix up some currerment!! that you can catch them all, & barnfoozle!! them with!!!! Just as I did when I was up there! I am having a high old time here. "you bet" more girls than I know how to manage. I have joined the Vaudry Rifle. a crack company & drill eat oysters & drink fer much!! I did not get your card at all & began to think you were dead! am quite glad to believe the contrary, if that old bugy is still at the Rectory, can't you please have it taken up to Mrs James Stewarts barn. for I told Pa that I had it put in her barn, & if he goes to Dry Grove & sees it is not there he will fly off the handle.

I am quite well now, weigh 145 pounds & getting heavier every day. As for the two dollars. if you will see to that Chgo for me, & Rick Miss Abnie Carney for me. You can keep them for with my compliments. Give my regards

To all my friends, having a pint & a half for your own use. If you have any trouble at any of the parties, just let me know & I will send you a receipt for a curfew bunell that will knock all the cirkle hearts perfectly cold!!
Well good bye take good care of your self & write here presently!!

Yours &c
G. H. Douglas,
