My dear Mama - I am here old today. I am making every effort to gain ground again on come my recent trouble. I want to see you and will see you just as soon as I can.

Mama - I saw Tom Hubbard he told me the best thing I ever would be to sell those timber men those large trees that they want that the trees were too large and bulky for lumber or any good but for what they wanted them for. Said he sold the Mrs off of his land to them And it would not injure the timber lands nor the sale of the other timber - Mr Ellis tells me the same thing - So Maama I knew that you were in need of the money and that I wanted to build a house or two & get a good rent for another year -

I am going to manage if I fail to see to get at least 6 Bales worth for which would make you a living. I wrote Foshee that in would
