Mrs V. Williams,
Raymond, Miss.
My dear Cousin,

I know you think I have treated you awfully awfully (and perhaps I have) But Jennie & I have not been well since I have returned home from Miss - and I have made several very big losses speculations that cost me a good deal of money and trouble - I have wanted to get rich to fast, and thought I saw a fortune a head of me, and most all of my money went on the sea of speculation. The boom has been exceeded and before I could realize the condition every thing I had was swept away - one thing however I have no debts or incumbrances hanging over me, that I have not been able to meet - I did want to get rich so much, not for my self, but I thought, dear Jennie, I could take you and Betty and provide for you and yours and give that I could give to you the comforts in your and age that you enjoyed in your pickered days I am going to strive for that end. Yes - failure should only make me stouter, and pass experience will suffice to guard me from the losses that I have experienced before -

I don't know if I will be able to bring Bettie to Tex as this winter or may I send her last year $50⁰⁰ and I intend to send her money from now on that she may live comfortably upon. I hope her boy may be industrious and try and soon after the comforts of his mother Write to her boy, Jimmie, and advise and encourage him to try and make something out of himself. I don't know Jimmie if I will be able to come and see you Christmas or may.
If I can come & Will do so, and Will come straight to your home and spend a day or two with you. I have some speculation on hand that may turn out to my advantage in the next few or few weeks - I have great expectations in them - I can not lose any more money on them, but I hope to realize the most of the money loan has I have last - Over town is improving very rapidly, there may be some four or five thousand more people here than there was the beginning of the year. There is some thirty or forty breeders breeding going up in the city now. Some of them that will do credit to any city in the South Give my love to all of your children and keep my best for your self, and if you need any help, furnish that I can give, let me know it
