Dear Miss:

I was in Jackson a few days since and some one told me, at the Mississippi Cotton Oil Co., that the U.S. Trust Co had liquidated, and gone out of business.

I feel very much interested to know what you expect to do.

The outlook in our afflicted Country is indeed gloomy, but it is not so in many other parts of the Country. The opportunities in many parts of our vast Country are as bright as they ever were and as much can be accomplished as there ever has been.

I realize that I am not so young as I was a few years back, and that my health is not so good as it was

And also that I have now a very large family, but I have the knowledge of past expenses how grand in industry, and economy, and how adjusted the habit of price determination to do or try to do so long as I am able - these are of "homemade" attributes but I think with time I shall some day make good -

do you think of going to Washington on 6th of Feb?
I guess a few many few and Miss - will attend -

This looks all well - Can you not come to see us some time - we glad to see you come & spend a while with us, before your way back in to business - Yr bro
