THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 14, 1972

Dear Mr. Spink:

Your letter of December 14 has come to my attention, and I just wanted to tell you how pleased I am to have your support for our program to curb inflation and revitalize the economy. I am confident that, through the voluntary efforts of unselfish Americans such as yourself, our goal for prosperity in peacetime can become a reality. Your encouragement means a great deal to me and I hope I may continue to merit your confidence in the coming year.

My son-in-law David and I have been frequent readers of the Sporting News and its great baseball analysis. My sports time is limited now but, keep up the good work.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Mr. C. C. Johnson Spink
