PROBLEMS

SOLUTIONS

Arranging a face-to-face or meeting to explain EMODnet

Lack of interest for second use of data

Lack of awareness about the importance of databases and open data access

Reluctance to give information

Distrust of potential loss of control of their data

Lack of resources to organize all their data

Lack of knowledge of the EMODnet website

Showing other cases of data providers

Teaching providers how to manage the EMODnet website to download data

Convincing that EMODnet is a good showcase for their data

Giving support for creating metadata
