Foreward

LAST fall, when the final vote to decide the question of an annual for Cle Elum High School, was taken, it was found that the majority of the students were strongly in favor of such a publication. To those who voted "no," we believe that this book proves that "it can be done." To those whose votes were "yes" we hope that the contents of this, our first yearbook will come up to your expectations in every way. We have striven to edit the best possible, on a limited budget. If we have failed in this attempt, we have at least established a precedent—a precedent which we know will not be above the possibility of attainment by any future staff, and we trust that each ensuing edition of The Redskin will be superior to its predecessor.

Appreciation

THE staff of the 1928 Redskin wishes to express its appreciation to all who have been instrumental in editing this book—to the business and professional men for their loyal financial support—to the classes and clubs for their liberal contributions—to Miss Brown, Miss Carpenter, Miss Hunt, Miss Montgomery, and Mr. Helm for their kindly and efficient aid—and lastly to The Heppenstall Engraving Company, Pautzke's photo shop and the Miner Echo Publishing Company for their timely suggestions and helpful advice.

Dedication

TO one who for the past six years has guided carefully and faithfully the destiny of Cle Elum High School and has made this school a better one, we dedicate the first volume of "The Redskin":

The History of the Cle Elum High School

THE Cle Elum High School came into existence in 1904. Two students comprised the entire enrollment for the year. In 1909 the enrollment had reached fourteen. Since that time the size of the school, as determined by the number of pupils, has steadily increased and during the present year the total enrollment is two hundred thirty four.

The Hazelwood school was built in 1912 to accommodate the increase in school population, but the building put up in 1904 still housed the High School. The Central Building was damaged the wooden buildings still housing the high school, both high school and part of the grades until 1923 when a brick structure containing eight class rooms and large and well equipped gymnasium was erected. The following year a fire damaged the wooden buildings still housing the high school and $10,000 insurance was obtained which was immediately placed in a building fund.

The school had by this time out grown its quarters again, and so in the Summer of 1925 a spacious addition was added to the brick structure erected in 1923. The present building contains 26 class rooms, a gymnasium 50 by 100 feet provided with two shower and locker rooms, a stage and balcony, a grade and high school principal's office, a library, hospital room, suite of offices for superintendent and school board and many closets for storage. Every room is fully equipped and well lighted. The study hall located on the second floor is 35 by 90 feet and is provided with a stage. This room may be used for entertainments as well as the gymnasium. The Manual Arts Department is located in a large well lighted room separated from the main building by the gymnasium; it is especially well stocked with the latest approved machines and tools.

At present a lawn is being started at the front and two ends of the building.

This modern building with the improvements that are constantly being added gives Cle Elum one of the most up to date and best schools in the state.

CLASS MOTTO

"Finished, Yet Beginning."

Hope

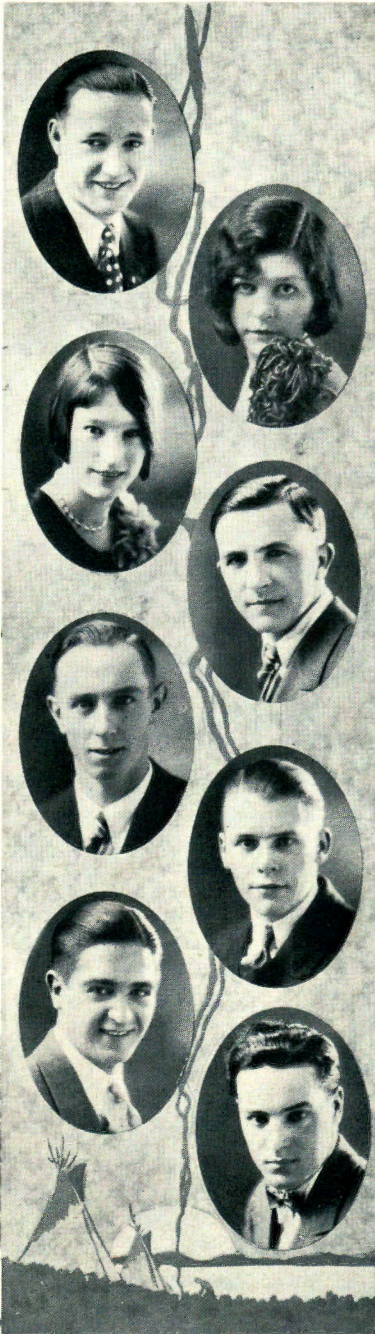

With renewed energy we press
 Along life's path of endless flight,
 To where, afar on lofty height,
 Wrapped in glory of its light,
 Beckons success.

The gilded pinnacle it soars,
 Unreached by petty weakness, towers,
 And gifted with rare magic powers
 Gives promise faith to Youth like ours,
 And waning hope restores.

Our goal draws near.
 Its gleam grows brighter day by day,
 While siren-like guides us away
 From crooked trails that lead astray—
 The mires of a career.

As we progress
 Let our unceasing prayer
 Be, to see the Light,—to bravely bear
 Our portion of the world's despair
 And find success.

IN the year 1950 many things of most terrific importance took place; consequently, the office of the local paper was in great turmoil. The Staff in great excitement was here—there—everywhere incidently—and accidently—some foolishness was unearthed and bits of gossip came to light. By special permission of Editor Big' in Feet I will relate to you some of the items which appeared in that edition of the paper.

The elevator girls of the A. G. Perry building, Alice Koch, Eunice Dawson, Arline Irvin have gone on a strike. They broke all plate glass windows and dislocated several of their passengers' necks.

We have with us today in our magnificent city an illustrious missionary, Miss Valeria Douglas, who is collecting furs and flannels for the frost bitten natives of the Kongo Valley in Africa. Any donation to this most worthy cause will be appreciated.

Because she left him standing at the altar Clifford Burcham tried to commit suicide by jumping out of the window of his home in Ash-can alley. We are sorry to say the attempt proved unsuccessful as he had on his spring suit.

One of the most magnificent affairs of the season culminated yesterday evening when Miss Marcella Dunnigan and Roger Greenburg were married. The altar was beautifully decorated with masses of bright yellow dandy-lines, and bouquets of honey suckles formed a hedge along the aisles. Miss Olive West, bass soloist, sang "Hail Hail, the Gang's All Here." The bride, charming in a gown of deep red crepe de cheese cloth, met her future husband at the altar. The bridesmaids, Mary Micheletta and Mae Munroe, wore dresses of imitation "George—et" and carried "extensive" bouquets of celery and cabbage. The Reverend William Kerman officiated, and Donald Rebhan, best man and leading jeweler, furnished the ring.

Much curiosity was felt by all the guests present in regard to the masked man who has haunted the blushing bride since kindergarten days. It is rumored that it is Harold Dunn, a prominent dairy man.

Miss Elizabeth Sommerfield, a former tight rope walker in Barnum's circus, gave a delightful reception to Miss Helen McKean, who has just arrived here after many years of missionary work in the Roslyn Missions.

The warm reception was opened with baseball bats, and then a solo was rendered by the lovely fair haired contralto, Alice Leyde. Her selections were "Lord, Lord, Where at is You?" and "The Sweetheart of Some Other Guy."

After a dainty luncheon of cold hash and Ireland's quarantened Angel Food Face, the guests returned to their homes having spent an unusually profitable evening.

Incidentally, all the solid steel silverware was missing in the morning. Several persons are suspected and being carefully watched by the chief of the Fire Department, Dave Adams.

Ruth Ayers, the international famed landscape artist, has completed a new picture entitled, "Why Teacher's Have Gray Hair?" Her picture will be on exhibit next Saturday night at Garver's Variety Store, and will be sold to the highest bidder providing bids do not surpass 99 cents.

A very effective prayer meeting was held at the colored Holy Roller Church when Rev. John Mus officiated last night on Sunday morning. The Reverend's beautiful pink and purple striped vest caught the eyes of all, and as they lent their ears, his beautiful sympathetic understanding voice fairly boomed from beam to beam and brought tears to the eyes as he pleaded for the cause of fans of the sun-burned polar bears.

The Reverend's ability to wash all white "soles" black was evident by one glance at the mourners bench, of these the most skillful actress; consequently the most pitiful was a poor girl, Helen Brown, a lady hasher in Burcham's cafe, who confessed to the great sin of loosing her heart to "Eagle Eye" Clif.

The most appealing prayer was that for the lost "Sole," Dorothy Sanderson. After many years of frantic search they found her in a small bungalow in Duck Town Roslyn, and they prayed that she might be resting in a cool place. She was peacefully cremated by the firm Bator and Gaidos, incorporated, who are now conducting an insane asylum for all hen-pecked husbands.

Kenwood Arthur Youmans, alias "One Eyed Casey," was taken into custody yesterday morning at 2:47 o'clock by Sheriff Carl Hope, as he was unable to explain why he was chasing the white leghorn hens around in Mr. Harold Dunn's poultry yard. "One Eyed Casey" was a noted desperado in 1928 but reformed when he old pal "Yodelling Hank" Noble decided to give up the free and easy life in the wide open spaces and marry and settle down to granite biscuits. It was thought by many of his admirers that "One Eyed Casey" had reformed forever and a day, but this last escapade proved that the appeal of his former life is still too strong for him to resist. After due process of the law Judge Edgar Canfield with the advice of the jury sentenced him to Walla Walla for 4 years 1 day 5 hours 60 minutes and 30 seconds, where he will earn his board and keep by making little one out of big ones.

The most interesting case of the times in court recently was that of Mary Sova Bray Belin Kelso who is suing for divorce from her third husband, Mr. Lamar Kelso. When interviewed, she said, "I have already survived 3 husbands, and am now ready to take in floors to scrub." We might remark that a week later Mr. Kelso was serving as janitor in the same building where Mrs. Kelso was scrubbing floors.

John Gordanier has resumed his old occupation as station caller in the trans-Atlantic liner, "The Wind Blower" at an increased salary of 25 cents a week. He is noted at all stations for the marvelous carrying power of his melodious voice, and the fact that he has to wear blinders when on board ship. This request was made by Captain John Huffman, so that the ship would not be capsized as the ladies rushed after him, when he looked at them.

Pete Chiarelli is now working as a cook on the section. He always did express a preference for the section gangs.

Signor Joe Vallone, the noted Italian novelist, has gone back to Sunny Italy to get local color for his new novel, "The Garbage Women's Revenge."

Class Will

OH Great Spirit, we, the tribe of Twenty-Eight about to leave forever the Council Wigwam, make and declare this our Last Will and Testament to endure as long as the rivers flow and the sun shines.

We bequeath, oh Great Spirit, as follows:

First, To the Big Chief, Coleman, we leave our heartiest thanks and sincerest gratitude for guiding us through four (4) trying years.

Second, To the Medicine Man, Helm, we leave pleasant memories of pleasant reprimands received in his pleasant office.

Third, To the Faculty we leave any poor grades that we might have collected during our four (4) years sojourn in the fields of knowledge.

Fourth, To Miss Hunt who counselled us in our council we leave—with reluctance.

Fifth, To the juniors we leave our cherished formula on the Development of the Ultimate Ego.

Sixth, To the sophomores—a six volume set "Mental Malformations and Their Cure."

Seventh, To the frosh we leave our greatest sympathy.

Individually the Tribe bequeaths their personal belongings as follows:

1. Dave Adams leaves—Feeling rather queer since playing opposite Selina Harrison in the One-Act Play Contest.

2. Olive West leaves her chewing gum under every desk-top.

3. Ruth Ayers leaves her artistic ability and Frenchy way to any lacking these qualities.

4. Joe Vallone leaves as he came—unconquered.

5. Emery Bator leaves—the door open as usual.

6. Ruth Stanton leaves her boisterous ways to Buster Stafford.

7. Helen Brown leaves her quiet manner to be used during speaking period.

8. Mary Sova leaves her heart in the typing room.

9. Clifford Burcham leaves nothing as he decides to keep his vast knowledge for future use.

10. Elizabeth Sommerfeld leaves her typing ability to Viola Mattox.

11. Edgar Canfield leaves his stupendous oratorical powers to Buddy B. Burcham.

12. Dorothy Sanderson leaves her dignity to Catherine Dorsey.

13. Pete Chiarelli leaves the junior girls' prayers unanswered.

14. Don Rebhan leaves his manners at home as usual.

15. William Crespi leaves his raven locks as he heard Ladies prefer Blonds too.

16. Henry Noble leaves rather dubiously—still wondering what it's all about.

17. Eunice Dawson leaves her lofty ambitions to Claudie Bray.

18. John Mus leaves a gap which can never be filled.

19. Valeria Douglas leaves a book "101 Ways to Collect" to the future history secretaries.

20. Dominic Mus leaves his ability to write sport articles to Barney Chiado.

21. Harold Dunn leaves the assembly a quieter speaking period.

22. Mae Monroe leaves her history notes with great sorrow.

History of Senior Class

THE Class of 1928 first assembled in C. H. S. on the first Monday in September in 1924. There were seventy-two members of our class who gathered in the assembly that morning to be welcomed by Superintendent Hugh Coleman and Principal Troy D. Walker. Miss Miller, our class advisor guided us through our first year.

It seemed we had only started to make plans when our work of the freshman year ended. Then we had to begin sophomore difficulties.

But our junior year was our "Banner Year" for we were represented in all school activities. During this year one of the four, who represented the high school in debate which took second place in the districts was a junior.

When first call to football came the juniors responded splendidly. Of those eight were successful in making the team.

Then the fourteenth annual prom was given by the class in the high school gymnasium, Monday, February 21.

And now the year of 1928 is nearly over. We have completed our work in C. H. S. Fifteen lettermen will graduate, five successful debaters and many from the dramatic and music circles.

Truly, the class of '28 has made a enviable record.

23. Marcella Dunnigan leaves a string of broken hearts.
24. Mary Micheletta leaves her love of pretzels to Annie Chickilinski.
25. Lora Filippini leaves her movie ambitions to any one.
26. Helen McKean leaves her seat in the Mine Five Bus.
27. John Gaidos leaves for the tippie.
28. Dominic Magnetti leaves for the Great White Way.
29. John Gordanier leaves his editorial ability to the future editors of the Annual.
30. Alice Leyde leaves John Gordanier.
31. Gladys Grinstead leaves her golden voice to Selina Harrison.
32. Robert Leadbetter leaves his athletic speeches to Leo Hirschorn.
33. Roger Greenburg leaves with a parting sigh for the girls he leaves behind.
34. William Kerman leaves his rolling gait to Mike Belin.
35. Carl Hope leaves a maiden's prayer unanswered.
36. Victor Kurtz leaves under the watchful care of his cousin.
37. Lamar Kelso leaves his devotion to duty to Stanley Adamsyk.
38. John Huffman leaves the girls alone.
39. Alice Koch leaves nothing—she's got Scotch blood.
40. Alice Kurtz leaves her size 12 basketball shoes to Eva Yachnich.
41. Arline Irvin leaves a little brother to take her place.
42. Myrtle Ireland leaves proof that Gentlemen prefer Blondes.
43. Kenwood Youmans leaves—his line of bright sayings to Frederick Dawson.

Junior Class History

THE activities of the junior class have been confined wholly to contests. The class of '29 is the proud owner of several banners. Each year this class has won a banner in the "Season Ticket Sale." They have also won three cash prizes in "Operetta Ticket Sales." The class of '29 has always been a leader in all things. It is a class that is famous for its pep and high school spirit.

The activities from a social standpoint are limited to two affairs, the Freshman Frolic and the Sophomore Dance. Both of these affairs were a great success. This year's social event is the Junior Prom. Great preparations are being made for this affair and the juniors expect to make this a success also.

Many juniors are in the various school activities. Some of the major and minor parts in the various plays were filled by them. Thelma Stiener, Selina Harrison, Eleanor Bausano, Marjory Morin, Mike Belin, and Claude Bray are juniors that have taken parts in plays and operettas. Mike Belin and Joe Susich represented the class in athletics. The class was also represented in debate by Robert Morin. Being all-around people the juniors have many scholars in the Honor Society. The class of '29 is also noted for its hearty co-operation in student government. This class is well prepared to take their place as seniors next year.

Calendar of Events

FIRST SEMESTER

September

- 14—First assembly of the year. Student body officers elected.

October

- 1—Roslyn won from Cle Elum High in a slow game by the score of 12 to 0.
 5—Seniors selected class rings.
 14—Better brand of football was shown in the game between Cle Elum High and Ellensburg Normal. Super Varsity. Score 0-0.
 18—Yell Club organized. Two members chosen from each class.
 22—Hurrah! We won the game with Chelan 18-0.

November

- 1—First meeting of Girl's Club held in the gymnasium. Seniors put on a short but comical program.
 5—Second time! Grid squad won from Grandview 6-0.
 11—More enthusiasm. C. H. S. student body cheered till they were hoarse for the Maroon and Gold.
 24—C. H. S. met Ellensburg. We won again, 6-0.

December

- 3—High school fight shown again. Local team defeated Easton in a practice basketball game by the wide margin of 21-7.
 9—First "real" basketball game lost to Ellensburg by 15-13—three overtime periods.

January

- 4—Four Song birds chosen for the Boy's Quartet.
 13—Strong C. H. S. hoopsters retained their hold on second place for the county hoop honors, by their victory over the weak Roslyn quintet.

ONE SEMESTER HAS GONE!

February

- 1—Maroon and Gold hoop quintet practically clinched second place honors by the win over the Kittitas Cagers.
 9—C. H. S. hoopsters won the right to participate in the valley tournament at Yakima, by nosing out Kennewick 21-16.
 17—Thrills! Shouts of laughter! Applause! were prevalent the night of the high school play, "The Family Upstairs."
 6—Practice for first spring football in the history of Cle Elum began.

April

- 20—Cle Elum won the one-act play contest held in Ellensburg.
 27—Junior Prom was voted the best ever.
 4—The Sophomore-Freshman dance was held in the gymnasium. It was a glorious affari.
 11—The Seniors showed extraordinary talent in the college play, "Strongheart."
 17-18—A day of hard work and fast thinking for the seniors—as soon as a thought came which seemed accurate—it was placed on the paper for either the highly-decorative blot of red or the clean-looking blue mark.
 20—Midnight oil was burned well into the "wee hours" when C. H. S. students prepared for the final exams.
 25—Senior graduation. Farewell, Seniors. Best of luck in the future!

NO records remain of a student organization before 1924 although it is known that such a body existed. In that year a constitution was drawn up and ratified, which was revised in 1926. The preamble of the present constitution is as follows:

“For the purpose of organizing and centralizing the activities of the high school and establishing machinery for their efficient operation and for obtaining united action and support on all questions pertaining to the student body, we, the students of the Cle Elum High School, do ordain and establish this Constitution and By-Laws.”

Secretary-Treasurer	- - - - -	Lucia Sowinski
Advisor	- - - - -	Miss Stalhut

PURPOSE

To encourage students toward higher accomplishments in scholarship by the recognition of merit; to encourage leadership and character development, and to promote good school citizenship. The Torch, used by the Greeks as a symbol of progress, is the emblem of the Society.

ELIGIBILITY

Character development being a basic aim of this organization, good school citizenship shall be a prerequisite for eligibility to membership. Eligibility shall also depend upon the earnings of points by grades and activities. A grade above ninety shall count four points, about eighty, two points; for a major school service two points and a minor school service one point.

To retain permanent possession of the Torch pin, a student must have one hundred ten points (110) at graduation.

The outstanding social event given by the Torch Society this year was a party held Thursday, December 23, at the High School.

The Society has sponsored several assembly programs. Among the speakers were Rev. Jones, Mr. Geo E. Canfield, and Supt. Forbes of Rsllyn.

THIS Club was organized in 1923 for the purpose of creating friendship among the girls. Since then it has been one of the most active organization in High School.

The club, composed of all high school girls, meets the first Tuesday in every month in the gymnasium. The girls bring their lunches and spend the noon-hour there.

The various classes put on programs at these meetings and unusual talent is sometimes discovered. After the program is given, the remainder of the hour is spent in dancing.

The outstanding social event given by the girls was a dance given on April 13. The proceeds were contributed to the Annual Fund.

THE "C" Club was organized in the spring of 1925 under the supervision of Troy D. Walker for the purpose of centralizing the activities of the Cle Elum High School and for preventing the promiscuous wearing of the big "C." Through lack of an advisor and loss of the original constitution the club stands at present in name only. However, the present officers and a committee of members are working on a new constitution which will incorporate this club as a regular part of the activities of the high school.

Debate

RESOLVED: That an old age pension system providing for the aged and infirm be adopted in the State of Washington was the question discussed in the triangular debate, which took place Thursday, February 2, 1928.

Contrary to the usual schedule of entering the state debate, Cle Elum vied only with Roslyn and Ellensburg for county championship.

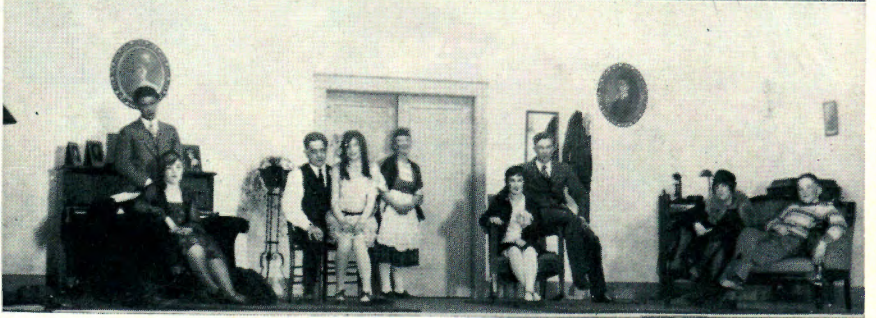

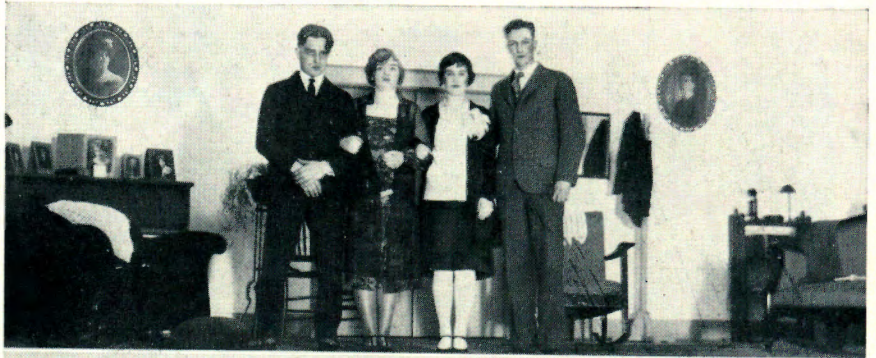

Olive West, Edgar Canfield, and Roger Greenberg upheld the affirmative side, and Helen Brown, Robert Morin, and John Gordanier argued for the negative. Cle Elum received both decisions, again taking county championship.

One Act Play Contest

On April 20, 1928, at Ellensburg, Cle Elum won the one act play contest held between Thorpe, Kittitas, Ellensburg, and Cle Elum. Cle Elum presented "Midsummer Moon" with the following cast of characters:

Harelequin	Dave Adams
Columbine	Selina Harrison
Pierette	Lucia Sowinski

High School Play

"The Family Upstairs"

THE Hellers are the type of family we all know. Father is a good, old soul who loves his family, but he does not believe it. Mother is more interested in her children and her gallstones than anything else in the world. Willie Heller is one of those seventeen-year-old cake-eater boys, a good-looking, nice, little fellow who likes the girls more than his books.

The romance between Louise Heller and Charles Grant is almost smashed, because Mrs. Heller, by her untiring efforts to appear stylish and dignified before the suitor, manages to give some very bad impressions.

Annabelle, too, furnished a great deal of humor to the play by her practising and peddling of news. The cast of characters is as follows:

Annabelle, the baby sister	- - - -	Roberta Sawyer
Emma Heller, the mother	- - - -	Eunice Dawson
Willie Heller, the brother	- - - -	Theron Stafford
Joe Heller	- - - -	Roger Greenburg
Louise Heller, the elder sister	- - - -	Eleanor Bausano
Charles Grant	- - - -	Harold Dunn

Mrs. Grant	- - - -	Marjorie Morin
Herbert, her youngest son	- - - -	Freddie Dawson

Senior Play

"Strongheart"

THE senior play, "Strongheart," in four acts, was presented in the Gymnasium on May 10, 1928. Strongheart, an Indian, comes to college and is a good friend of Frank Nelson and Dick Livingston, having saved Frank's life in the west some years previous. Thorne, a member of the football team, steals a list of signals that Dick has written for another teammate and sends them to the manager of the other team. Strongheart shields Dick in order to keep him in the game. He and Dick both love Frank's sister, Dorothy, but she declares her love for Strongheart. Strongheart, however, finally seeing the impossibility of his marriage to Dorothy, gives her up to Dick and goes back to his own people.

High School Operetta

“Tulip Time”

THE village, enjoying a holiday, is startled by the arrival of a party of American college students under the leadership of Professor McSpindle, a tutor of botany, to study tulip culture. Two of the party, Ned and Dick, are more interested in Christina and her friend, Katinka. News reaches the village that a thief has been stealing choice bulbs of tulips, and a handbill describes the thief and offers a reward for his capture. Ned and Dick induce McSpindle to wear certain clothing, answering the description of the tulip thief. When the Burgomaster beholds McSpindle so attired he causes his arrest. With McSpindle out of the way, Ned and Dick promote their friendship with the girls, and learn that certain securities owned by Christina are, (unknown to her) of immense value. They reveal the truth to her and thwart the Burgomaster's attempt to grow rich at her expense. With the assistance of Aunt Anna, the innocence of McSpindle is established, and the latter declares his affection for her. With the prospect of a triple wedding, the final curtain falls.

Our Coach

IT is fitting in reviewing athletics that we should begin with Curry Mitchell. He in a large measure can be considered responsible for Cle Elum's regime at the top of sports, for the past two years. No summary would be quite complete unless it gave to him a share of the credit.

It was his careful, sound training, his fighting spirit and his splendid ideals which won for the maroon and gold three championships, along with several second place positions.

Coach Angelel

MITCHELL Angelel, besides assisting Curry Mitchell as football and basketball coach, will take up the duties of track mentor this year. "Mitch" is a graduate of Ellensburg Normal, where he starred in basketball and track. He comes to Cle Elum from Thorp, his first teaching position.

Forty-two

Review of Football

ALTHOUGH failing to retain the county title, which was annexed for the first time in four years, by the 1927 eleven, Cle Elum, this season took second place by virtue of its six to nothing win over Ellensburg, Thanksgiving Day. Until the Turkey Day tussle, both teams had been tied for second place, each having lost twice to Roslyn, county champions.

Starting the season in a weak and inauspicious manner but gradually gaining speed and strength, the Cle Elum offensive attack hit its stride in the final few games of the season, taking three wins from the last five contests.

The maroon, launching a belated drive in the Chelan game, scored three touchdowns in the last half, which resulted in an 18-0 victory. None of the tries for points were successful.

The maroons continued their winning streak with two well-earned victories over Grandview and Ellensburg, copping the lower-valley tilt by a 6-0 margin, and neatly disposing of the blue and white by an identical score.

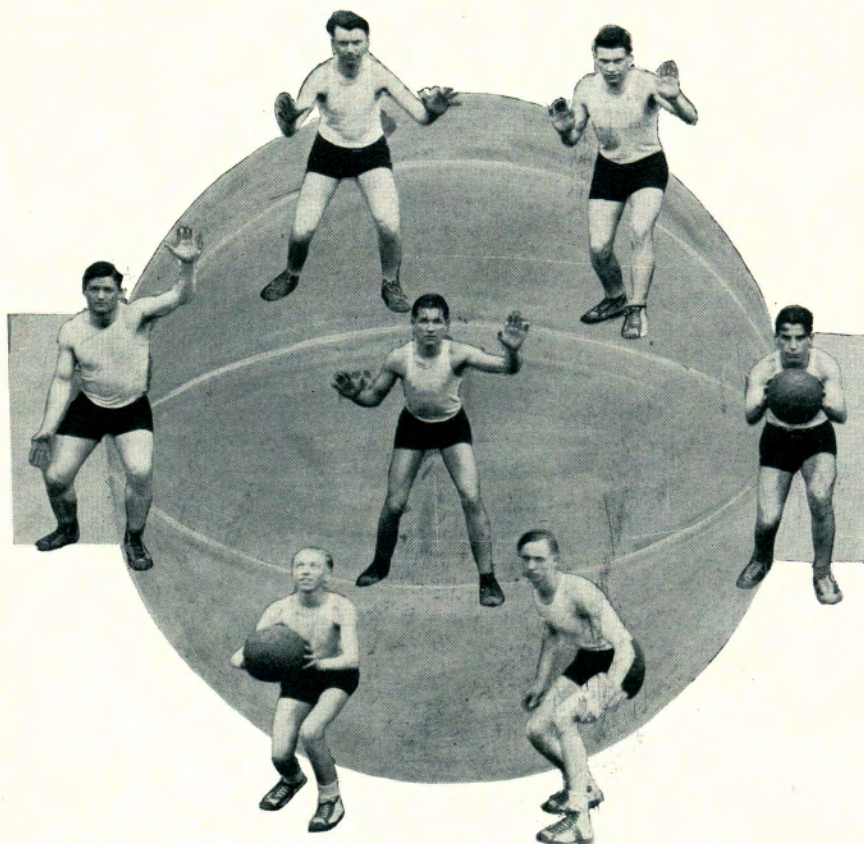

The closing season recorded two crushing defeats for the C. H. S. Each, however, is readily accounted for by bad breaks, the second loss Roslyn, being the result of an intercepted pass and a blocked punt; while the Cashmere reversal was due to a freak run in the opening moments of play, made possible by the high tension which starts an important contest.

Review of Basket Ball

MARKING one of the most successful years in the history of the school and boasting of a record surpassed only by that of the mythical teams of the past two years, the 1927 maroon quintet, besides taking second place county honors, proved to be one of the strongest teams in the Valley Tournament which it entered as runner-up from this county.

Cle Elum suffered only two reversals during the official season, both to the fast Ellensburg five. The maroon revenged itself later, defeating the blue and white cagers at the Yakima meet, thus putting them out of the running.

The local hoopsters themselves were eliminated immediately after this tilt, losing to Naches and Prosser in two hard-fought frays, by 21-17 and 24-15 respectively.

Coach Curry Mitchell loses C. Burcham, Kelso, Kerman, and Leadbetter by graduation, leaving only three veterans to be relied on to form the nucleus of next year's team.

Although the loss of four lettermen, from this year's winning aggregation is large, prospects for a strong title contender for 1928-1929 loom as brightly as in the past two seasons.

Besides the trio of veterans returning, Cle Elum hopes will be strengthened by the addition of material developed on the supervarsity, along with several experienced Junior High hoopsters.

Track

TRACK, somewhat in the background of athletics in the past, by replacing baseball as the annual spring event this year, is now ranked as a major sport on the interscholastic schedule.

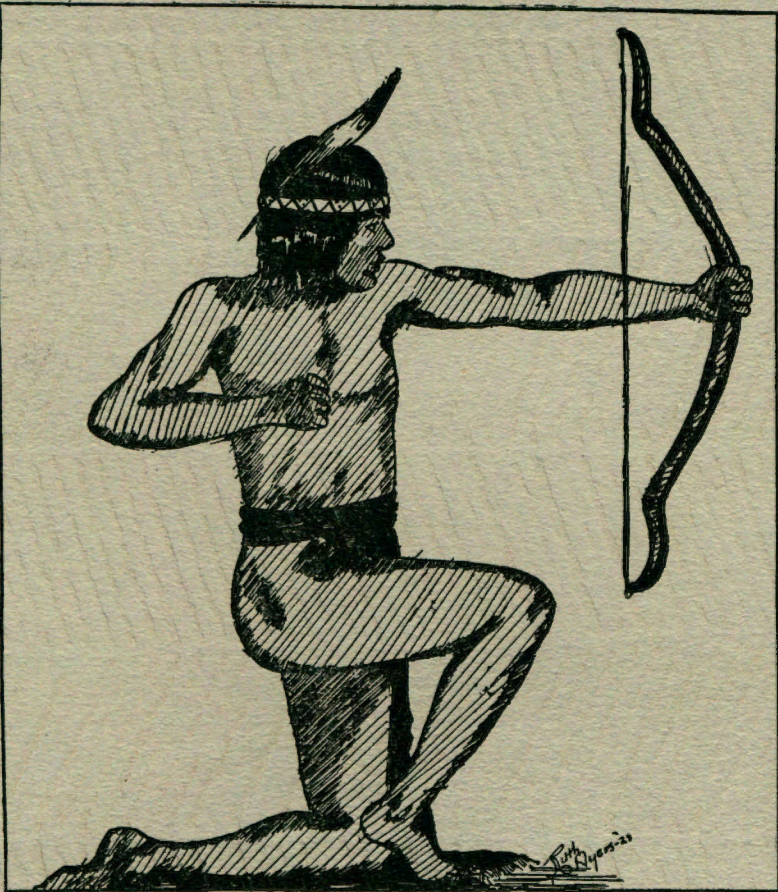

The maroon cinder artists give track a prominent place in the annals of Cle Elum sport history two years ago when they placed third in the valley meet and entered two men in the Pullman State conference tournament.

Last year, competing with the leading schools in the central part of the state, and seriously handicapped by the lack of a coach, the locals dropped in prestige to fourth place, but again sent two men to Pullman.

Only two lettermen, Kurtz in the weights, and Dunn in the pole vault and high jump, will greet Coach Angelel at the opening of the season. Kurtz is particularly strong in the javelin throw, while Dunn, (captain), specializes in the pole vault.

Others who are likely to help form the mainstays of the team are: Crespi, Chiarelli and Gillette—distance runs; Sibillia, a four-forty man; Dunn and Stafford, sprints and jumps; Kurtz, weight; and Youmans, hurdles.

Considering the competition and the number of men entered from C. H. S. the locals did well. It must be noted that the local track team has greatly decreased in size since the picture for the annual was taken.

ATHLETICS

Manager System

THE Athletic Manager System recently instituted in Cle Elum comes as an essential part of school sport activities. By taking charge of general field equipment, and the housing and feeding of players on trips, the manager relieves the coach of this responsibility, and so, of much unnecessary worry.

Those appointed this year were Leo Hirschorn, football; Cecil Gavalier, basketball; and Pat McLean, track.

Girls Athletics

HAMPERED by the limited amount of time devoted to gymnasium classes, Cle Elum failed to sponsor the customary girls inter-class basketball series this year.

Instead the girls turning out were divided into two divisions, christened the "Heads" and "Tails," and a series of 14 games was played to decide the school "championship." The "Heads," captained by Cleo Connell, and composed mainly of veterans, tallied 10 wins, and four defeats to win the title decisively.

Miss Anstett had complete supervision of girls' gym work. She also has charge of hiking classes and will probably direct girls indoor baseball.

Inter-Class Basket Ball

THE Frosh, displaying class team work and accurate shooting, trounced the senior quintet by a 30 to 22 score in the final game of the Inter-Class Tournament—a tie play-off, thus displacing the Senior Flashes from their brief hold as champions—the Flashes having won the title last year.

In reality, not two but three teams were knotted at the top; the juniors, the third five, however, were disqualified for playing inelligible men.

The contest culminated one of the best-attended and most successful tournaments since this feature was introduced four years ago. Chiefly responsible for the interest shown was the fine calibre for the participants, who besides several star varsity men, included some of the faculty members of the junior team; namely C. Mitchell, N. I. Baker and M. Angelel.

Songs

CHEER FOR CLE ELUM HIGH

Cheer for Cle Elum High;	Maroon and Gold for evermore,
Cheer her in the fray	Maroon and Gold for aye,
Our foes before us	So back them with a rah! rah! rah!
Our banners o'er us,	For old Cle Elum High.
We're out to win today.

OUR ALMA MATER

I

You may talk about your colleges of Harvard and old Yale,
The glorious schools of Uncle Sam, we're not here to assail;
But we can tell you of the school we think is the best.

CHORUS

For we are jolly students of Cle Elum Hi
Yes, You and I
Our colors are maroon and gold
We're from the fir clad hills of dear old Washington
Rah! Rah! Rah! We're the kind so brave and bold.

II

In basketball and football, too, we make our rivals race,
In basketball again this fall we're out to take first place,
So if you want to join a band that always makes things hum
You'd better try Cle Elum High, it is the place to come.

CHORUS

III

Though some may say we're boasting in this song we sing to you,
And shouldn't sing of anything Cle Elum High can do,
But this we know and time will show our students all to be
As brave a crew, as strong and true as ever you will see.

CHORUS

Yells

Oski wow wow! Whiskey Wee Wee!
Holy muckii eye
Washingtoni eye
Cle Elum Hi!

You haven't got the pep, you haven't got the jazz,
You haven't got the team that old Cle Elum has.

Come Rickety Bim, Come Rickety Bim,
Come out of the woods and sandpaper your chin,
We're wild, we're woolly, We're notched like a saw,
We eat them like oysters,
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Choose Your Friends If You Wish Success

“How far you travel depends upon whom you travel with,” is an old Indian saying. The J. C. Penney company has travelled in a quarter of a century from a tiny country store to a Nation Wide Institution of 1000 stores, serving millions of people, and their success has been due in a great measure to the principles with which they chose to make the journey.

Performance-Instead-Of-Promise was one of their early traveling companions, and Truth-In-Advertising and A-Square-Deal-To-All-Alike have proved equally satisfactory friends.

These 1000 stores are more than just places to sell yards of goods. They are monuments to the principle that the public appreciates honest dealings.

We Specialize in High School Annual Photography

*Annuals~ like Skyscrapers,
are best built with the aid of an architect~
We are architects of annuals.*

Prepared as only specialists can be,
we help our school friends to avoid the pitfalls encountered in building annuals that will endure as the treasure house of their precious memories.
